BREAK GROUND FOR COUNTY BUILDING—Members of the Board of Supervisors building committee and others participate in groundbreaking ceremonies Tuesday morning at the former Eagle Hotel site on Main Street for the $1,445,000 county office building. The six-story structure is expected to be completed for occupancy in the fall of 1964. Groundbreakers are (l-r) Charles Relyea, Town of Hurley; Benjamin A. Storms, Second Ward; Arthur A. Davis Jr., county attorney; Peter M. Williams, Saugerties, and GOP majority leader; Jesse McHugh, Shawangunk, chairman of the Board of Supervisors; Joseph Martorana, Plattekill; John J. Gaffney, Lloyd, Democratic minority leader; James A. Rapp, First Ward. Observing the official groundbreakers in the background are representatives of the contracting firms for the building. Soviets Desire Wheat

No Order Yet for 200 Million Bushels

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — The Soviet Union is reportedly prepared to purchase up to 200 million bushels of United States wheat, Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman says.

Freeman told a news conference Tuesday night that such a sale would exceed $300 million—a lower price than that set for the domestic market.

No Formal Order

He said flatly, however, that there had been no formal proposal from the Soviet Union and "no (U.S.) decision has been made."

The agriculture secretary spoke to newsmen here during the second stop of a one-day northeastern tour. He came here from Harrisburg, Pa., after conferring Tuesday morning with President Kennedy on the wheat-sale question.

He said in Harrisburg that he personally favored such a transaction.

Traders Report

Reports of Soviet preparedness to purchase U.S. wheat came from private traders, Freeman said.

He added that it would be "reasonable" to expect that any sale of American wheat to Soviet Russia would be at the world rather than at the higher domestic price.

"It will be a cash deal if it comes into being at all," the secretary said.

The Syracuse and Harrisburg stops were among a series of meetings Freeman is holding as a means of obtaining close-up views of farm problems.

He told an audience of 2,500 persons Tuesday night that conflicts among milk producers were holding up legislation designed to raise incomes and stabilize the industry.

He said earnings of dairy farmers were among the lowest of any farm group and had aroused concern in the administration.

Freeman said he must view the dairy situation from the standpoint of the nation a whole.

"I must not only consider dairy

New CR Tensions Hit Syracuse and Rochester Cities

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fresh tensions pressed down today on racially embattled Syracuse after 15 civil rights pickets, including a county official, were arrested for allegedly staging a sit-down in front of the city hall office of Mayor William F. Walsh.

The demonstration and arrests Tuesday came after civil rights groups had threatened intensified protests over the city's handling of a housing dispute.

Against this background of racial unrest, Republican Sen. Clifford P. Case of New Jersey told a Syracuse audience Tuesday night that the federal government should be empowered to intervene in the "whole range of civil rights."

Clash in Rochester

In Rochester, meantime, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People clashed with board of education over the latter's policy on erasing racial imbalances in city schools.

The Syracuse arrests raised to 92 the number of persons taken into custody since demonstrations began here Sept. 13 and marked

745 Now Attend College, 193 Full-Time Students

Officials of Ulster County Community College today announced that the total enrollment at the new Community College at the end of the first week of classes was 745. Of these 552 students are attending part-time classes; 47 during regular day time hours and the balance during evening hours. Of the 193 full-time students 136 are male and 57 are female. Of the 173 full-time students are residents of Ulster County while the remaining 20 come from eight different counties. The largest number of out-of-county students come from Greene County.

A survey of the major field of study of full-time students indicated that 72 were majoring in the social science humanities; 25 majoring in science and mathematics; 27 majoring in engineering science; 13 majoring in accounting; 16 majoring in executive secretarial and the remaining 40 majoring in business administration.

A survey of the age distribution of the full-time students revealed that 52 of them were 20 years of age or older and that 12 of them were over 25 years old. It is interesting to note that 20 per cent of the full-time students are between 20-24 years of age and consequently were not 1963 graduates. This significant number within that age range lends further support to the notion that the Community College is meeting a real need in Ulster County for those many young people who did not find higher education either financially or geographically feasible before the Community College opened.

Full-time students are registered for programs within which they were able to chose from 25 different subject areas offered, distributed over 60 different sections. Students attending the

YWCA Schedules Open House on Saturday, 2-4:30

The Young Women's Christian Association of Kingston will observe its 40th anniversary tomorrow. An agency of the Ulster County Community Chest, YWCA recreational and creative programs are scheduled for the benefit of Ulster County residents.

An open house tea and reception will be given on Saturday from 2-4:30 p. m. in the YW, 209 Clinton Avenue in honor of the occasion.

Putnam Is Favored By Ruppert

Jacob Ruppert Brewing Co., of New York City has obtained an option on a 50-acre tract including a large lake in the Town of Carmel, Putnam County, as a site for its proposed $21 million brewery, an authoritative source revealed today.

The lake included in the package will provide a 1½ million gallons per day soft water supply required by the brewing and continual cleaning operation.

It was reported that if the deal is consumated, the firm will be favored by a 10-year tax exemption.

The source also said the new brewery would take two years to complete and will employ about 1,200 people.

On Rail Spur

The site is on the New York Central Railroad spur between Brewster and New York City. It had been reported earlier that Rupperts basic requirements included a sufficient soft water supply and rail siding.

Carmel, the county seat of Putnam has an estimated population of more than 10,000. In the 1960 census the population was reported at 9,049.

Rupperts, which operates its main brewery at 1639 Second Avenue, New York City, must vacate the present plant by 1965, it was reported.

Sold in August

The firm was purchased in August by the Kratter Corp., of New York City. At that time it was announced to distributors and sales representatives that the new corporation was seeking a brewery site in the Hudson Valley.

Several Hudson River towns and cities have made bids for the location including Kingston and Saugerties.

It was reported yesterday that Ruppert interests apparently were not considering any site on the west shore since much of its distribution is east of the river.

Rupperts distributor in this area is Eveready Beverage Distributors Inc., Saugerties, which has a large distribution warehouse at Centerville.

Parking Is Problem at New School

Broadway East Is In Need of Land

Study of traffic congestion in the area of the Community College temporarily housed in the former School No. 2 building, West Chestnut Street, was asked at the Tuesday night meeting of the Common Council, which legislated to approve a second amendatory contract for downtown's Broadway East urban renewal project.

A zoning change that would permit erection of an apartment house in the 12th Ward was requested by Burgevin Inc., of 245 Fair Street, and a claim for $11,000 was filed to collect for injuries suffered by a child at the Hasbrouck Park swimming pool.

Republican claims that Democratic aldermen had obstructed important measures submitted by Mayor John J. Schwenk, brought counter charges from majority party members that no action had come of proposals and requests made by the Democrats.

Survey Revised

The second amendatory contract for the Broadway East project amounts to approval for additional land, which was included in the revised survey and planning application for the Broadway East project.

It is the technical final phase of such addition involving the area around Hasbrouck and Delaware avenues, needed principally for an interchange to be built as part of the proposed Rondout Creek Bridge arterial.

Covers Land Area

A first amendatory contract covered budget items. The second covers the land area.

Mayor Schwenk, in a letter to the aldermen noted that "a serious parking problem prevails" in the vicinity of the Community College.

Montrepose Avenue he said, "between West Chestnut and Spring Streets, and portions of West Chester Street between Augusta and the dead-end street, are lined with automobiles most of the day and during classes each evening.

Hard to Clean

"This presents a problem for our street-cleaning crews, and I foresee serious difficulties being encountered while snow plowing this winter.

"I would suggest that the Traffic Control Committee of the Common Council consider adopting a parking plan, such as alternate side of the street parking, applicable to this area while the college is temporarily quartered there."

The letter was referred to the traffic control committee.

Would Use Yard

Alderman Arthur Smith (D) Eighth Ward, proposed use of the school yard for parking. This would be during the months when it is not used as a playground. It is estimated that some 30 to 35 vehicles could park there.

Third Man Held In Birmingham Racial Bombings

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — A third white man has been arrested and over 100 sticks of dynamite were found hidden in a wooded area in the continuing investigation of racial bombings.

John W. Hall, 36, of urban Gardendale, was charged with illegal possession of dynamite Tuesday. He posted bond—set at $300—shortly afterwards.

Robert E. Chambliss, 59, who was arrested Sunday by state investigators, also was free on $300 bond on the same charge. Chambliss posted bond shortly after a habeas corpus hearing in circuit court.

Charles Cagle, 22, of Birmingham, who was arrested with Chambliss Sunday, remained in jail on an illegal possession of dynamite charge pending a habeas corpus hearing today.

Still Lacks Answers to Viet Woes

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara probably found no final answer in South Viet Nam to two important questions.

He probably didn't learn how to get President Ngo Dinh Diem to do what the United States thinks must be done to win the war against the Communist Viet Cong. Or what would happen if Diem were overthrown.

Has Massive Report

But McNamara left for Washington Tuesday with a massive report that should help President Kennedy make one crucial decision — whether the Communists can be defeated if the United States continues to support Diem's authoritarian and increasingly unpopular regime.

The defense secretary probably had much of the information he got here before he left Washington last week. One highly placed, sympathetic diplomat described McNamara's trip as "a piece of necessary showmanship" for the benefit of a U.S. Congress increasingly hostile to the American commitment in South Viet Nam.

Covered 2,000 Miles

McNamara covered more than 2,000 miles in his swing through major war zones.

He conferred with Diem three hours. The visit probably was too brief to get across more than an impression of U.S. displeasure with Diem's repressive tactics.

McNamara's report probably will follow the line of previous observations of American officers on the scene. An intelligent guess can be made on its main points.

On the basis of recommendations available before he arrived, McNamara probably will recommend no increase in the force of 15,000 U.S. military men in Viet Nam and no increase in the current $1.5 million daily in U.S. aid.

He may suggest, on purely military grounds, a modest cut in American personnel or U.S. aid

Stamford Doyle Clean

Valachi Corrects Santuccio's Address

WASHINGTON (AP) — Joseph Valachi said today he was wrong in testifying that gangster Girolamo Santuccio, alias Bobby Doyle, whom he has named as a killer in the underworld, lives in Stamford, Conn. He said he had intended to say that Santuccio lives in Hartford, Conn.

Valachi spoke up to correct the testimony he had given Tuesday.

Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn., went before the Senate investigations subcommittee at the start of today's session with a protest that "by coincidence" there is a Robert Doyle in Stamford — and only one man there of that name —who has been deeply embarrassed by the testimony.

Respected Man

Ribicoff said the Stamford Doyle is a respected business man of Irish extraction, some 20 years younger than the hoodlum Valachi had named as an underworld trigger man in three 1930 gangland slayings.

Lt. John Roach of the Hartford police force was sworn as a witness and testified he had known a Hartford Doyle for about 10 years.

"He hangs around the streets and has no visible means of support," Roach said.

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., the subcommittee chairman, said he was "awfully sorry" about the mixup.

Valachi spent most of Tuesday telling of assassinations and gang warfare back in the 1920s and 30s when hoodlum killers carried their machine guns in violin cases.

The big, crowded hearing room grew hushed as he described his

Change Rondout School System to Superintendency

Rondout Valley Central School District was designated as an independent "village superintendency," according to an order by the state commissioner of education, and Supervising Principal Edward T. Green was named superintendent of schools, it was announced today.

The order gave the local board of education the power to employ a superintendent of school and to operate a local school system as prescribed by the education law. The board announced the appointment of Green, who served at Rondout Valley Central as supervising principal since 1958.

Superintendent Required

In the school district, the only administrative change required by the order is that the chief school administrator is known as superintendent of schools rather than supervising principal.

Prior to his appointment in 1958, Green served as supervising principal of New Berlin Central School. He graduated from Hackettstown, N. J. High School in 1937 with a college preparatory diploma and took a post graduate course in science in 1938. He graduated cum laude from Ithaca College in 1942 with a

After Sandy Koufax and Whitey Ford made short work of the batters in the first inning, Frank Howard lined a double to deep center after Tony Kubek retired Tommy Davis. Bill Skowron singled to center, scoring Howard. Dick Tracewski,

Montana in Buffalo Charges Valachi Is Liar and Insane

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Mobster Joseph Valachi is "a dirty liar. . .he's insane," says John C. Montana, an Apalachin gangland convention delegate named by Valachi as a onetime lieutenant in the secret crime syndicate, Cosa Nostra.

Valachi testified before the Senate Investigations Subcommittee Tuesday that Montana, board chairman of a Buffalo taxi company, had asked to be demoted to "soldier" because Montana "didn't want the boys contacting him anymore."

The FBI informer also claimed that Montana had worked under Stefano (Stephen) Magaddino of Niagara Falls, whose brother, Antonio (Anthony), was among the 60 gangsters and friends taken into custody by State Police at the 1957 Apalachin meeting. Valachi last week named Stephen Magaddino as Buffalo area boss of Cosa Nostra.

Montana told a reporter Tuesday night he never had met Valachi.

"I. . .never saw him in my life," Montana said. "I don't know who he is. I don't even know what he looks like except for the newspapers.

"He said he has met me and I think he's a dirty liar. I think he's insane."

Stephen Magaddino, who is about 70, was president of a bankrupt beer-distributing company.

On Jan. 14, 1959, he appeared before the State Investigation Commission in New York City but refused to answer questions 37 times on the ground it would violate his constitutional rights. The commission was trying to learn the purpose of the Apalachin meeting.

Magaddino, who has a heart condition, does not have a police record in Niagara Falls.

Two of Magaddino's children are married to relatives of Montana—a son to a niece and a daughter to a nephew.

Another of Magaddino's daughters married James V. Laduca of Lewiston, also an Apalachin delegate.

Political Flurry In Council

$90,000 Approved Till Funds Paid

A Common Council meeting marked with political flurry Tuesday night finally brought action on enabling legislation required to legalize use of the new Washington Avenue Arterial, and approval of $90,000 in revenue anticipation notes to provide funds until the city collects sums owed it.

A letter from Mayor John J. Schwenk criticizing delay on the arterial route measure, and a charge by Alderman Clark W. Myers (R) Second Ward, that Democratic moves during 21 months were aimed at embarassing the mayor's administration, touched off reprisal, which continued through the session.

Democrats Balked

Democrats held that the mayor, if informed that the Washington Avenue Arterial project was to be completed long ahead of the deadline date, should have forwarded such information, and they claimed lack of earlier, adequate information on file.

Majority Leader Frank C. Sass also held that the aldermen, who had voted $75,000 in revenue anticipation notes in August, had not been given sufficient notice in advance of the need for the $90,000.

Sass, however, and the other majority party aldermen went along after the finance committee, of which he is a member, met with City Treasurer M. G. Richardson, who was at the meeting, and explained the sums still to be collected.

Schwenk Places Blame

Mayor Schwenk's letter on the arterial route measure said:

"As you know, the Washington Avenue Arterial is in the final stages of construction. The cooperation from the State Department of Public Works, and the contracter, has been extraordinary, but I regret that the City of Kingston has failed to live up to is legislative responsibility in this matter.

"Almost a year ago, on Nov. 1, 1962, I forwarded to your Honorable Body a traffic control report prepared by the State Traffic Control Commission, with a request that you study the report and adopt an attached resolution approving the report, and agreeing to enact the ordinances requested in the report. I pointed out that in cases where federal funds were allocated to highway projects, the Bureau of Public Roads requires the municipality to adopt such a resolution.

No Meeting Called

"To date, the minority member of the Traffic Control Committee of Your Honorable Body informs me that no meeting has been called to deal with this im-

KERHONKSON NEWS

KERHONKSON — The Kerhonkson Parent-Teacher Association held its September meeting in the school cafeteria last week. The schedule for the evening was as follows: 7:30-8 classrooms open for brief parent-teacher conferences; 8:10-9:30 organizational business meeting. PTA president, Mrs. Earla Conklin, opened the meeting with the group singing and the pledge to the flag. Teachers were introduced. Representatives to Parent-Teacher Council and committees were appointed. It was decided to donate $25 to the Kerhonkson Girl Scouts. A discussion of Parents' Math Workshops was held. A great deal of interest was indicated.

The Adult Fellowship Club of the Federated Church of Kerhonkson held its annual reorganization meeting last Wednesday, at 8 p. m. Plans were made for club members to attend an evening of fun and fellowship with the Couples Club of the Ellenville Reformed Church Friday, Oct. 11. The booth for the annual turkey supper and bazaar will be headed by Mrs. Paul Babich. Items for the booth may be left with Mrs. Henry Seymour, Jr., or Mrs. Ernest Keator before the bazaar, which will be held on Oct. 19 at the Firehall.

Sunday school rally day was held at the Federated Church of Kerhonkson Sunday, Sept. 29 at 11 a. m. Special guitar music was provided by Paul Fox and Dick Curry. The call to worship was given by Carla Schoonmaker. Scripture was read by Sharon Kortright. Richard Christiana offered a prayer. The offertory prayer was given by Ronnie Dunn. The film, "Born to Witness", was shown. The benediction was offered by Judy DeGraw. Sunday school is in session each Sunday at 9:45 a. m. There is a class for every one from age 3 up. Senior choir rehearsal will be held Thursday at 7 p. m. Junior choir rehearsal will be held on Friday at 4 p. m. Boys and girls in the third grade and up may join the junior choir.

The men of the Federated Church will hold a work session on the parsonage garage Saturday 8:30 a.m.

The senior department of the Federated Sunday school will hold a car wash in the near future.

World Communion

The Federated Church of Kerhonkson will join Christians everywhere in observing the Sacrament of Holy Communion Sunday at 11 a. m. The Rev. Paul Babich, pastor of the church, will speak on the topic, Communion of Saints, in observance of World Wide Communion Sunday.

Culture Switch Unneeded

KENOSHA, Wis. (AP)—Western missionaries in Africa or Asia don't have to adopt local customs entirely in order to establish rapport and confidence among the people, a member of the Lutheran Church in America's board of world missions told a conference here.

Many missionaries have remained "plainly western," said the Rev. Dr. Clarence W. Sorensen, "but by thoughtful concern and dedicated service, have developed with the local people genuine ties of mutual affection."

Lutheran Teachers Conference Slated

Lutheran Schools of this area will be closed Oct. 2, 3, 4, permitting the 350 Christian Day School Teachers of the Atlantic District of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod to attend the annual conference. This professional growth meeting will be held at the Pocono Crest Hotel, Pocono Pines, Pa.

The purpose of such a meeting is to give the Lutheran teachers the opportunity to attend seminars, lectures, and workshops which will emphasize the improvement of instruction through a modern curriculum.

The key speakers will include Dr. Herbert H. Gross, PhD, president of the American Geographical Society, and contributing author of Encyclopedia Britannica; and Prof. John D. Weinhold, MA, representing the science department of Concordia Teachers College, River Forest, Ill.

Ulster Kiwanis Names Committee For Chest Drive

Ulster Kiwanis Club members were appointed as team captains for designated areas in the Town of Ulster for the Community Chest fund campaign, by Orvil Norman, club campaign chairman, at the Monday night meeting at Aiello's Bridge Circle Restaurant.

Edgar P. Elliott, vice chairman distributed kits they will give to the solicitors who are residents of the area to which they were appointed.

A door-to-door campaign will be conducted. Norman demonstrated the use of the kits and gave each member instructions as to how the campaign will be conducted.

Norman also brought the members up-to-date on the arrangements for the Accordion Concert to be held November 9 at Kingston High School auditorium.

Ira Franzblau, ticket chairman, distributed tickets as Norman explained the sales methods and use of patron tickets.

Guest speaker was Frank Grimaldi of Sangi's Bowlero, who spoke about the various methods of arranging and setting up bowling tournaments. Program chairman was Samuel Levine.

Thomas Glynn, a Kingston Kiwanian was a visitor.

Robert Morehouse, club vice president, was in charge of the meeting due to the absence of Sidney Spiegel, who was attending the Kiwanis convention at Concord Hotel, Kiamesha Lake.

Next Week, Oct. 7 the club will meet at Ang-Els Restaurant, East Chester Street by-pass at 6:45 p. m. A board of directors meeting will be held following the regular meeting.

GIVE YOUR 'FAIR SHARE'

The Ulster County Community Chest affects everyone of us because directly or indirectly we benefit from the eleven agencies that make up the local Chest. Concerned with the needs of all the citizens of the community, the Chest agencies do not limit their services or facilities.

The funds raised are for basic needs of the Chest agencies and are distributed to health, welfare and recreational institutions in Ulster County. These agencies do for us the actual work of caring for the community's needy through the Association for Retarded Children, Boys' Club, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, Gateway Industries, Jewish Center, Salvation Army, USO, United Cerebral Palsy, YMCA and YWCA.

Much of the work of the agencies and of the Comunity Chest Workers is voluntary and unpaid. However, certain fixed operating costs for therepeutic, medical, recreational and functional facilities and counsel are unavoidable. The costs of these fixed necessities, which directly benefit every citizen by upgrading the physical, mental, moral and spiritual standards of the community, are what you are asked to contribute to in the united, once-a-year Community Chest financial campaign.

You will be asked to give a "fair share" just once for many causes. The total basic need for this year's causes is $195,000.

If you earn $3,640 a year, is the cost of a weekly package of cigarettes a "fair share'?' Is eight cents daily if you earn $5,000 annually or 10 cents daily if you earn $6,420.

These "fair shares" are calculated on national averages of citizens for giving to Community Chests and United Funds.

What will you do when your volunteer campaign committeeman or personal solicitor asks you to contribute through the 1964 Ulster County Community Chest? Will you give your "fair share"?

NIMROD RAMPANT

The traditional view that every American is by nature a crack shot comes to its most splendid flowering in the fall of the year. That is when several million Americans take gun in hand and tramp the fields—or stumble through the woods, or sit muttering in the swamps—and shoot at bird and beast.

The flaw in this picture of nimrods rampant is that a heavy proportion of the hunters get out only about twice a year, and are not quite as sharp as Daniel Boone at handling a gun. Bird and beast fall to their barrage, all right, but so does an occasional hunter.

Moral: No one should go hunting without first checking over the safety rules for gun-handling. This will not improve marksmanship, but it may save a life.

Business leaders form a political action group they say is non-partisan. That will allow them to support conservatives in either party.

NOT THE FINAL BLOW

The appearance off Joe Valachi before a Senate subcommittee investigating organized crime had a tremendous advance build-up. This appears to have fostered a widespread public belief that Valachi's disclosures will knock the props from under the nationwide organized crime syndicate. That hope is not likely to be realized.

Valachi has spilled a great deal of information to the FBI and the Senate investigators. His detailed picture of the inner workings of "Cosa Nostra" will give law enforcement agencies a better chance to crack down on the overlords of crime. But these men must not be over-estimated. They are resourceful and shrewd; they are not hampered by considerations of morality; they have at stake great wealth and power. They have been under heavy attack before, and have survived.

Valachi's revelations constitute a major breakthrough in the fight against organized crime. They do not mark its downfall immediately or in the near future. The crime bosses would like nothing better than public assumption that the fight was over.

THE CASE FOR STOCKPILING

Senator Stuart Symington, the watchdog of the stockpiles, has recently pointed to various abuses which have attended the efforts of this nation to be forthcoming in applying the "ever normal granary" principle to the business of storing strategic metals. Since the Senator, who hails appropriately from the "show me" state of Missouri, is almost incredibly learned in all things that affect military preparedness, I am sure that the excesses he points to are real, at least to some extent. But, lest we be tempted to toss the stockpiling baby out with dirty bathwater, it should be noted that the stockpilers have a good case for most of the things they have done.

The stockpiles, as of recent record, consist of close to a hundred items, mainly mineral, that are valued at approximately eight billion dollars. They were acquired in good part during and just after the Korean War, when it was deemed advisable to keep on hand a domestic backlog of strategic commodities equal to the economy's industrial consumption of them for one year. Lately, such a backlog has come to seem excessive and some $3.4 billion of the stockpile has been classified as surplus.

Thus the shift in thinking about strategic safeguards has served to put the government retroactively in a bad light. It seems to have been "wasteful" to the tune of some four billion dollars. And if the current drive to "relax cold war tensions" and save on the military budget takes on bigger proportions, the stockpiles will seem even more wasteful. They will take on the guise of costly and unnecessary inventory.

But before we begin to apply the principles of peacetime cost accounting to our backlog of strategic minerals, we might reflect a bit on the situation of the U.S. continent in the middle of two potentially unfriendly oceans. Approximately three-fourths of our stockpiled material has come in from overseas, or from outside our own borders on our own continent. We are dependent on foreign nations for nickle, tungsten, tin, manganese, and chrome. Much of our bauxite, the raw material for aluminum production, comes from other countries. We have enough high-cost domestic copper, but in times of emergency it helps to be able to obtain cheaper copper ore from Chile. Even our own deposits of lead and zinc are hardly enough to take care of local requirements.

Now, it may be that the likelihood of a war of direct confrontation with the Soviet Union has largely evaporated. The mutual nuclear checkmate may prove a sufficient deterrent to both the NATO powers and the Soviet and its East European satellites. But this by no means gives the U.S. a guarantee that its access to strategic minerals in the outer world will remain unimpeded. For it reckons without the possibility of local "Titoist" or "Maoist" revolutions in those parts of the world that have been supplying us with such things as tungsten, tin, and bauxite.

In this connection, the story of what happened to our sources of nickel in Castro's Cuba is instructive. Most of our nickel has always come from Canada. But the nickel sources to the north of our border are concentrated in Ontario and northern Manitoba, and they could be put out of commission with a very few strategically placed bombs. To decentralize our sources of nickel in World War II we built a nickel plant in Cuba, with a capacity to supply some fifteen per cent of our needs. A second nickel plant was built in Cuba after the war.

Needless to say, these have now been swallowed up by Castro. And the Cuban nickel, instead of coming to us, is going to countries behind the Iron Curtain.

Our overseas sources of bauxite could easily go the way of the Cuban nickel. Currently, we need about fourteen million tons of bauxite a year for the aluminum industry. There are big deposits of bauxite in British Guiana, in Haiti, and in the Dominican Republic. Well, if Cheddi Jagan's crew of Marxists succeeds in taking complete control of the government in British Guiana, it isn't likely that this source of bauxite would be available to us for very long. And there is always the chance that the Castroites will win in Haiti and Santo Domingo.

We are vulnerable, too, in tungsten, which comes from South Korea, and in cobalt, which is mined in the Congo. South Korea and the Congo are under constant threat, so there is considerably more to this business of stockpiling than meets the eye.

The DOCTOR SAYS

Hunt for a Good Tonic Is Just Another Illusion

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

What is a good tonic? This is a question most doctors are asked frequently. In the back of the inquirer's mind is a vague idea that if he could just get hold of a bottle of the right medicine, he would feel better.

Television commercials have done nothing to dispel this quaint idea. On the contrary, they work night and day to persuade us that somehow life is a disease that can be endured only if you take their product early and often—with an extra portion for good measure on Sundays and holidays. To my mind this attitude is not only an exaggeration of the truth, it is a shortcut to disaster, also.

The word "tonic" means any agent that favors good muscular tone—the comfortable state between complete relaxation and extreme tension. Thus a breath of fresh air might be a tonic to a person who had been cooped up in a stuffy room.

For some persons, a cold shower acts as a tonic. But I long ago gave up the idea that everyone can benefit equally from such an experience. Perhaps, the best tonic of all is a good laugh, but even a good cry may have a tonic effect on some persons.

To get back to the subject of drugs, they are very necessary for some conditions. The few but ever increasing number of drugs that have a specific beneficial action on a certain symptom or disease are a boon to mankind, but we are too quick to take drugs at the first twinge of pain or frustration. Learning to cope with stress can be a tonic, too.

I have known people who by ignoring minor irritations have been able to keep going long after their pill-taking contemporaries have fallen by the wayside.

So when you ask me what is a good tonic, I can better tell you what it is not. Aspirin, penicillin and vitamins are not tonics. Neither are laxatives, iron, liver extract or caffeine—although admittedly all these drugs may under certain circumstances have their legitimate uses, both physical and psychological.

Observe the rules of good living with a well-balanced diet, plenty of restful sleep and work at a task you enjoy and you will never need to ask for a good tonic.

Q—I've had a postnasal drip for a couple of years. At night when I'm lying in bed it often makes me choke or gag. When I clear my throat I get up some stringy mucus. How can I get rid of it?

A—The cause of your trouble is either an allergic rhinitis or a chronic low grade infection in the nasal sinuses. Allergic rhinitis usually responds to the antihistamine remedies used for hay fever. If you have a chronic sinusitis your doctor may want to try an ephedrine sulfate nasal spray. Almost any other kind of nasal spray you might use including weak salt water would have the disadvantages of paralyzing the cilia that keep the mucous secretions from the sinuses moving outward.

WASHINGTON (NEA) — A month after the March on Washington by a quarter of a million advocates of civil rights reform, the situation is considered not a great deal different than it was before.

The warm and rosy glow of satisfaction that prevailed after the march was over still lingers as a happy memory. It was a success. There was no violence. It had been shown that peaceful protest was possible.

But the march settled nothing, as realists foresaw.

In the month since then there have been demonstrations, picketing and violence in scores of cities. There have been protests against housing restrictions, against job discrimination, against school segregation and other denials of civil liberties supposedly guaranteed by the Constitution.

The general expectation is that there will be more in the months ahead. And they will probably get worse.

THE PEACEFUL march on Aug. 28 had its aftermath in the silent marches held in many cities on Sunday, Sept. 22, in mourning for the four children killed by the bombing of the Birmingham church the week before.

That horror may have had more effect on the course of civil rights reform in America than the original march for jobs and freedom.

The march has been unjustly cited by a few observers as the inspiration for the Birmingham disaster. But it has also produced many grave warnings that the patience of the Negroes is not inexhaustible. The more Birminghams there are, the greater the likelihood of violent reaction.

The death of four little girls at Sunday School has raised doubts about the efficacy of the responsible Negro leaders' pleas for nonviolence. "Self-defense against violence is justifiable," said James Killem, presiding at a biracial memorial service in New York.

There has been talks of boycotts. "America has no right to celebrate Christmas this year," says Negro author James Baldwin.

THE NORTH HAS COME in for its share of the blame, from ex-President Harry Truman and from Student Nonviolent Co-ordinating Committee, accusing northern employers of southern labor.

There has been good mixed with the bad. There has been a $50 million fund drive with a $15 million Ford Foundation grant to aid Negro colleges, a fundamental requisite to providing better jobs. There are smaller drives for funds to rebuild the Birmingham church and aid its victims' families.

Leaders in the 150 southern communities where desegregated schools opened this September have won praise from President Kennedy. Recognizing that it is a "slow, step-by-step procedure, he says he thinks " progress is being made at about the right tempo." In Prince Edward County, Va., schools closed for four years have been reopened with assistance from Washington.

There are long-range political controversies ahead.

An all-Negro slate of candidates has been entered in an Essex County, N. J., election this fall, first of its kind.

THE BIG DRIVE for 1964 will be to increase voting registration.

The Gallup poll indicates 95 per cent of the Negroes favor President Kennedy, even though their leaders say the President's civil rights program is too little and too slow.

Five per cent of the Negro voters are said to favor Senator Barry Goldwater of Arizona. But President Kennedy admits the rights fight may cost him white votes in the south.

The premarch charges by Senator Storm Thurmond, D-S.C., and others that it was being planned and infiltrated by Communists have been pretty well discredited. But the march leaders made a political error after it was over by moving next day into a Socialist Party meeting in Washington which backed their cause.

The overwhelming support the march and the entire civil rights movement have received from America's churches of all denominations is a major point in their favor.

The Ethics of Challenging Supreme Court Decisions

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — Attorney General Kennedy in a speech at Kansas City, Mo., the other day gave some advice to lawyers which, if it had been followed prior to 1954, might never have brought about a reversal by the Supreme Court of the United States of its decision of 1896 which had declared "separate but equal" facilities to be Constitutional in dealing with the racial problem.

Mr. Kennedy told the Missouri Bar Association that, while "it is proper and just to avail oneself of every legal defense to test either the validity or the applicability of a rule of law," the principle is today being "used in isolation, invoked in improper contexts, espoused as absolutes and carried to extremes." He indorsed in general the "legal propositions" that "a court decision binds only those persons who are a party to it" and that "a court-made rule of law should always be open to re-examination and is susceptible to being overruled on a subsequent occasion." But today, he said, those same principles are "being proclaimed by lawyers and public officials as the justification for tactics to obstruct the enforcement of laws and court orders."

Mr. Kennedy asserted that "to seek reversal of a judicial rulings" is nowadays being defended as merely "to exercise one's Constitutional right" and that the arguments for such action are being given "a gloss of respectability" and "can even take on the disguise of a patriotic, high-minded dissent." He added that it is a position "publicly espoused today by the governors of two states by a past president of the American Bar Association, and by a Federal district judge who recently overruled the Brown decision (1954) on grounds that its findings of fact were erroneous."

But where does this leave the lawyer who is asked to defend his client before the bar of justice? What would have happened if the lawyers for the Negroes in those 58 years between 1896 and 1954 had accepted the defeatist doctrine that what had been decided in the courts in one set of cases was final? Mr. Kennedy says a reversal of the 1896 decision had been "expected" some day but no such reversal of the 1954 ruling is ever likely now. Who can be a prophet in the field of legal technicalities and judicial whims? For decades many a lawyer in this country felt that the 1896 decision was just as permanent as Mr. Kennedy today thinks the 1954 decision will be.

Is it the function of a lawyer to defend his client by every legal method, or must he accept a court precedent as binding in all future cases? Whether he likes it or not, the lawyer feels he must at least try to get a reversal on the very same basis perhaps that Mr. Kennedy has argued—that times may change and that the justices may see their errors of the past. Many school boards, for example, are testing in the courts today just how far the prayer decision of the Supreme Court really applies. Their lawyers evidently feel that the recent ruling was merely "the law of the case."

"What do we really mean, as lawyers," asked the Attorney General in his speech, "when we say that it is proper and Constitutional to avail onself of every legal defense?" He answered that it doesn't mean "using dilatory tactics" and requires "good faith" and "co-operation" with the courts.

But suppose Negro and white lawyers over the decades had advised their Negro clients not to challenge state laws and to show "good faith" rather than to test and re-test segregation laws of various kinds. Would the Negroes have ever secured a reversal of the 1896 decision? And what of the Negro organizations which openly argue now for street demonstrations which they know will lead to friction and bitter feeling and perhaps violence? Are they "co-operating" with the courts?

Some of the lawyers on the other side can, moreover, ask these questions:

1. Is the demand for the right of a trial by jury just the raising of a technicality when the governor of a sovereign state is being charged with contempt for trying to test a court order? No case like it has ever come before the Supreme Court.

2. Isn't the Department of Justice availing itself of a technicality in its proposal to justify interference with the right of owners of "public accommodations" to choose their own customers? Wasn't this issue decided by the Supreme Court in 1883, and why should circumventing tactics be used now?

3. Is it right for the Department of Justice to tell Congress it "expects" the Supreme Court to rule in its favor? Is this a proper statement to make, and does it mean that justices will be nominated hereafter who conform to the Administration's "expectations"?

The records over the years show that the lawyers for Negro organizations didn't mind defending their clients who had disregarded "the law of the case" or "the law of the land" again and again. Mr. Kennedy said this was because they expected a reversal in the desegregation cases. He described it as "a decision that the vast majority of the American public holds to be morally correct." But can a system of law and a written Constitution be effective if the Supreme Court rewrites the laws and amends the Constitution? This is the true weakness today.

If public opinion alone, moreover, is to be the guiding influence, then maybe a system of elected judges or appointments for a fixed tenure—so that the high court judges could perhaps be changed with each Administration—would reflect the wishes of the "vast majority" as to what is "moraliy," if not Constitutionally, correct.

Jim Bishop: Reporter

He's an old friend and he stopped at the house to talk books. His name is Gerold Frank, a tall, bland, bald man of 55 who looks like a roll-on deodorant in a Brooks suit. Frank wrote the Lillian Roth book, "I'll Cry Tomorrow"; the Diana Barrymore book, "Too Much Too Soon"; the Sheilah Graham book, "Beloved Infidel"; and Zza Zsa Gabor's "My Story."

Frank has written others, but these four sold 6,000,000 copies. We sat at the bar, sipping coffee and listening to the soft zither music of Ruth Welcome, and he kept jiggling an unlighted cigarette between his lips. I offered a light, but he said no thanks, he has been living on unlighted cigarettes for years. Never smokes; just jiggles until it falls apart.

This is a sensitive, sentimental man. Once, when he worked for the Associated Press, he took a roll of their ticker machine paper, and wrote a 60-foot single-spaced letter to Lillian Cogen of Cleveland. She read twenty feet of it and fell asleep. In the morning, the maid came in and swept forty feet of it into the garbage can.

He married Miss Cogen and now, 31 years later they have two married children and he writes about the heartaches of other people. Lillian Roth and Mike Connolly had had a whack at "I'll Cry Tomorrow" when Gerold Frank was called in to write it again. It was a good break for all concerned, because Gerold found out that if he opened the sessions by uttering the magic words: "There must be no secrets between us. You must tell me everything," that the ladies smiled shyly and told everything. Well, almost.

There is more to it than that. Frank has empathy. He loves people. Innately, he, too, is shy and he lives wild, garish lives through his subjects. He doesn't forget them when the book is done. It must be ten years since he wrote "I'll Cry Tomorrow," but, a year and a half ago, when Lillian Roth opened in "I Can Get It For You Wholesale" who sat in Sardi's waiting for the morning papers? Who read reviews to her, and became misty-eyed when they turned out to be good? The Jack Paar of the writers, that's who.

Once, when Miss Roth was deep in alcoholic despair, she rented a room in a tall hotel and tried to jump out the window. She tried three times, and fell to the floor. "My God," she sobbed, "I failed at this too." She always keeps small dogs. "They are the only things more helpless than herself," Mr. Frank says.

He has personal feelings about all of his women. He feels, for example, that Diana Barrymore saw herself as an ugly, bow-legged, yellow-skinned daughter of a handsome man. When she drank, she walked leaning forward like a child on six-inch heels. She enjoyed taunting her husband about other men. Why? She enjoyed violence because, when she was little, after violence came love.

"I am convinced," Gerold says, "that Diana was not a true alcoholic and she wasn't on pills. Yet, the night she died she was taking antabuse to stop drinking, seconal to sleep, dexedrine to stay awake, and she was drinking gin." He delivered the eulogy at her funeral.

Sheilah Graham writes a Hollywood newspaper column, but asked Frank to write her biography. Her great love was the novelist, F. Scott Fitzgerald, and their now-and-then romance became a big part of the book. Miss Graham was a London orphan. Gerold crossed his legs over two additional bar stools and said he thiks of her as the litle match girl who dreamed of fame and glory and literally forced them to come true.

In a way Gerold was the ghostly boy friend of these women, without kitchen privileges. When Miss Graham told him about a Sunday morning scene with Scott Fitzgerald, the writer went to the spot, high in the Hollywood Hills, and sat there with the lady on a Sunday morning. When Miss Barrymore said that she had a lover to whom she ran at the top of a bridge, arms outflung, Frank stood at the top of the bridge and re-enacted it.

Zsa Zza Gabor, a Hungarian, heard the speech about "tell me all" and she burst into laughter. "No woman," she said, "tells all. Not all." Her name was Sari, but her daughter couldn't pronounce it. It came out "Zsa Zsa." We have all been afflicted with baby talk ever since.

Gerold thinks of Miss Gabor, not as a glamorous woman, but as a humming dynamo. She is here, there, everywhere, all at the same time. Writing her biography, Frank found, was like riding a diamond-studded carousel sidesaddle. "She is always a step ahead of other women," he said, wrecking another cold cigarette. "Just before sack dresses came into style, Zza Zsa wore sack dresses. When wigs became popular, Gabor was ready to quit wearing them."

In one afternoon and evening, according to Gerold, Miss Gabor will rehearse a song, answer 20 phone calls, tell part of her life story, water the garden, read press clippings from Spain, Hungary, France and the U.S., take the dogs to the doctor, undress, bathe, dress, appear on T.V., and show up at a nightclub looking dewy fresh.

His favorite book is a new one called "The Deed." It's about two Israelis who assassinated Lord Moyne, British Minister of State, in Egypt. They were kids and they went to the gallows singing "Hatikvah." The Egyptian hangman broke down weeping. Gerold Frank almost chokes telling about it.

He has heart. And tenacity. I was afraid to ask if he'd given up looking for the remaining 40 feet of that letter . . .

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

EDITOR'S NOTE — The U.S. balance of payments deficit is unique in many respects. But Sam Dawson, AP business news analyst, in this, third of five articles on the problem, says that other nations can get into the same trouble, and have.

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—You hear a lot today about red-ink bookkeeping in U.S. accounts with the rest of the world. And you ask why just the United States? Why aren't other nations also having deficit problems affecting their currency and their credit standings?

Some Have Them Bad

The answer is: Some nations do have balance of payments troubles, and have them bad; Other nations (like Britain) have them off and on; and most of the rest suffered after World War II even worse than the United States is today but have pulled from deficit to surplus as the United States slipped.

Underdeveloped countries usually are dependent on loans and grants from others to balance their payments with the rest of the world. This is especially true of those with big ambitions — the ones who want to grow industrially at jet speed. Aiding them has helped push the United States further into the red.

Industrial countries like Britain have periodic payment problems when their exports slump or their consumer taste for imports gets too rich.

France, West Germany and other European countries went through rough years after the war. West Germany built up to her present affluence by austerity. France belatedly cured its inflationary sprees that caused the franc to be devalued more than once when the rest of the world lost confidence in it. Now a new inflation is starting and France is taking sharp corrective measures.

Not in Classic Fo..

Canada has a commercial trade deficit of $1.4 billion with the United States, largely offset by $1.2 billion a year in investments by Americans. It now is proposing to curb U.S. imports while protesting U.S. efforts to stem the investment outflow.

The unique thing about the U.S. deficit of payments today is that it isn't in any of the classic forms.

Usually deficits arise from imports topping exports (as in postwar Europe while it was importing all it could to build up its industrial facilities for domestic use and finally for the exports that make it prosperous).

But in the United States exports go right along topping imports.

Today the Yankee dollar, for all its problems, isn't shunned. It doesn't buy as much in goods and services as it once did. But most foreigners are willing to hold onto most of the dollars they get-up to a point. And it's that point American and other financial authorities worry about.

If the U.S. balance of payments stays out of kilter too long and others get the idea the dollar might become shaky, most countries would switch from dollar reserves to demanding gold.

Tomorrow: Defenses of our gold we could take in a crisis.

Stops Tuition Grants

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—An associate justice of the U.S. Supreme Court has stopped state tuition grants for white children attending private segregated schools in Virginia's Prince Edward County.

In Washington Monday, Justice William J. Brennan Jr. granted a stay requested by Negroes of a U.S. 4th Circuit Court of Appeals decree which had opened legal channels for the grants.

He said the stay would remain in effect until the Supreme Court resolves this and other issues involved in an appeal of the Circuit Court decision. Counsel for the Negroes expect to file the appeal by Oct. 15.

Jury Returns 13 Open Indictments, Six Dismissals

The April grand jury handed up 13 open indictments and six dismissals Tuesday. Among the indictments was one charging Joseph La Rosa, 28, of 310 East 27th Street, New York, with attempted murder, first degree assault and carrying a dangerous weapon.

The grand jury found no indictment against Charles Henry Shefers, 52, of Richmond Hills, Staten Island, who had been held on a charge of second degree manslaughter following the death of an 80-year-old Mombaccus man last July. In a dispute over a boundry of property Constantinos Potharas of Waterfall Road, Mombaccus, town of Rochester, died when the two men became involved in a battle with a shovel.

Difficulty Over Boundary

For 10 years there had been difficulties over a property boundary. Last July Shefers came to his premises and found a lane blocked with debris. He picked the material up and took it to the Potharas premises where he dumped it near the refreshment stand which Potharas operated. An argument ensued and in the scuffle which folowed someone procured a shovel and there was a battle over posession. The aged man was struck with the shovel and injured. Shefers believing his opponent was "faking" reported the affair to troopers at Ellenville and when they arrived at the scene Potharas was dead.

The attempted murder, first degree assault and charge of carrying a dangecus weapon against Anthony Joseph LaRosa arose over the firing of 10 shots from a 30-caliber carbine rifle at a Greenfield Park man at the latter's home near Ellenville last August.

La Rosa came to Ulster County after he had lost his job in New York City, went to Greenfield Park armed with a .22 caliber revolver and the rifle. He hid in a clump of brush outside the home of William Donnell, 79, and fired the revolver in the air to attract the attention of Mr. Donnell, 79 years of age. When Donnell came to the door to investigate, La Rosa allegedly fired 10 shots from the rifle, all of which missed their mark. The bullets ripped through the doorway of the Donnell home. La Rosa then fled but was apprehended at Monroe, Orange county, after his identity had been learned by state police.

Had No Motive

Taken before a justice of the peace for arraignment, La Rosa said he was despondent over loss of his job and had come to Ulster County because he "just wanted to kill somebody." He had no motive in trying to kill Donnell.

Other indictments were:

Edwin James Curry, George Albert Kirkpatrick and Carson Wayne Lyons, also known as Leo Lyons, burglary, third degree; petit larceny and unlawful entry.

Vincent Mark Maulucci, rape as a misdemeanor.

Alex Freeman, unlawfully having and illegally possessing a firearm.

James Lynn Gunsh, grand larceny, first degree.

Eathrom Little, criminally carrying a loaded revolver and criminally possessing a revolver.

Jay Warren Stanley, burglary, third degree; petit larceny and unlawful entry.

Jay Warner Stanley and Edward Louis Arace, third degree burglary, petit larceny and unlawful entry.

Jay Warner Stanley and Edward Louis Arace, third degree burglary, petit larceny and unlawful entry.

Milton Charles Grumback, also known as Charles M. Grunback, unlawfully having and illegally possessing a firearm.

Harry James Morgan, Lawrence Peter Carney and Michael Andrew Jansen, malicious mischief as a misdemeanor, in violation of Section 1425 of the Penal Law.

Carl Buford, second degree assault and unlawful entry.

Edwin James Curry, George Albert Kilpatrick and Carson Wayne Lyons also known as Leo Lyons, third degree burglary, attempted petit larceny and unlawful entry.

Six Dismissals

The six dismissals were:

The People vs. Charles Henry Shefers, manslaughter, second degree.

The People vs. Charles Colon, third degree burglary.

The People vs. Michael Davis Outram, illegal possession of a firearm.

The People vs. Bruce A. Mundy, second degree forgery.

The People vs. Frederick John Soehuline, illegal possession of a firearm.

The People vs. Gary Lee Taylor, attempted rape, first degree.

All of the cases were transferred by order to County Court for arraignments and disposition.

The new October grand jury was sworn in and the April grand jury dismissed. Foreman of the October grand jury appointed by Justice Louis G. Bruhn, presiding justice, is Harold Anson Bailey of Rifton and named acting foreman is Edith M. Kelder of Kingston.

ASC Committee Election Here Will Be by Mail

Selection of Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service community committeemen will be done by mail again this year in Ulster County.

Duties of the community committee are to assist the county committee in carrying out programs assigned to it by the USDA; inform farmers concerning programs administered in the county; arrange and conduct necessary community meetings and any other duties as may be assigned.

It is desirable to nominate and elect active farmers best qualified for committee work and those who will represent the various types of agriculture in each community.

Petitions signed by six or more eligible voters nominating persons for membership on the committee will be received at the county office at any time on or before October 15.

Names of persons nominated by proper petition will be included on the slate of nominees if found willing and eligible to serve. If a person nominated by petition is found ineligible he will be notified and he may appeal to the county committee anytime prior to the date set for completion of the slate of nominees.

The present community committee and the county committee may make such additional nominations as are required or as they determine desirable.

Slip-Proof Spaghetti

NEW YORK (AP) — They're even putting safety treads on spaghetti these days.

V. La Rosa & Sons, Brooklyn makers of Italian food specialties, twist spaghetti into an irregular spiral during processing by a special developed die. There's no difference in taste from old-fashioned kinds, but the new spaghetti gives that lip-grip that can mean the difference between aplomb and embarrassment during an Italian dinner.

Local Community Chest Drive Sets Goal at $7,695

Mrs. Vivian Leard and Joseph Di Domenico, co-chairmen of Saugerties Community Chest Campaign, announced today the Saugerties goal is $7,695.

The co-chairmen also announced unit leaders for this year's drive.

Business and industry, Herbert Lachmann, Garden Circle.

Advanced gifts, Mrs. Pat Schoemer, High Woods.

Commercial unit, Robert Levintan, Village Drive.

Government and education, Arthur Simmons of Barclay Heights.

Town residential, Howard Wittenbecher, Blue Mountain.

Saugerties Village residential, Mrs. Jean Turner of Simmons Park.

The agencies directly benefiting from this drive, that operate within the Saugerties area include: Association to Help Retarded Children, United Cerebral Palsy Fund, Gateway Industries for the Handicapped, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Salvation Army, and USO.

Bridge Club Has Franchise; Starts Games on Nov. 11

Saugerties Bridge Club, scheduled to begin playing in November, has received a franchise from the American Contract Bridge League.

This A.C.B.L. franchise affiliates the local club with more than 4,000 bridge clubs and permits the club to conduct regular bridge matches and award master points to the winners. The master-point rating system, used by nearly two million bridge enthusiasts, is a national method of ranking bridge players according to their performance and experience in competitive bridge.

Saugerties Bridge Club games will be open to any bridge player whether or not he or she is a member. The club will conduct games on the second and fourth Mondays each month except for July when play will be suspended.

Games will begin promptly at 8 p. m. and any player desiring to play should sign in no later than 7:50 p. m. The director will match up any player who cannot find a partner. Although membership in the club is not required to play, players who plan to play regularly will benefit from joining the club.

Club Director Charles Rice, states that many bridge players have a mistaken impression that duplicate bridge is only for the expert or highly trained player. Actually, the vast majority of duplicate bridge players are rubber bridge players who enjoy the competitiveness of tournament play where the outcome of the game does not depend upon the luck of the deal.

Anyone interested in club membership should call Rice. The first bridge match will be held Monday, Nov. 11th at 8 p. m. All matches will be played in the meeting rooms of Saugerties Savings Bank.

W. Camp Church Sets Communion

The Sacrament of Holy Communion in conjunction with World-wide Communion Sunday will be administered during the 11 a. m. Sunday worship service of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, West Camp, it was announced this week by the Rev. Alvin F. Messersmith, pastor.

A nursery supervisor will be in attendance to care for preschool children of parents attending the service.

The church council will meet in the pine rooms at 7:30 in the evening .

West Camp Luther League will hold its installation of officers and receive new members at its meeting 6:30 p. m. in the parish hall.

Date Must Wait On Auburn Sugar Beets

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman said Tuesday night a decision on a permanent sugar beet allotment for the Auburn area would not be issued until sometime next year.

Freeman told a reporter here that the final decision would depend on the outcome of tests being conducted to determine the suitability of growing sugar beets in the area.

Hercules Names Stern

Harry Stern, former manager of test engineering, has been made sales manager, Electro-Mechanical Devices for the Explosives and Cemical Propulsion Department of Hercules Powder Company, it was announced today. A native of Washington, D. C., Stern received his B.S. in physics in 1940 from the University of Maryland and did postgraduate work at George Washington University. From 1942 to 1944 he was employed by the Naval Propellant Plant, Indian Head, Md., as a physicist.

Women Voters League Urges Registration

Residents of Saugerties who wish to be eligible to vote on Election Day, November 5 should check if they are registered at their local polling place on the two registration days set by the Board of Elections—Saturdays, Oct. 5 and 12.

The polls will be open this Saturday from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. and Saturday, Oct. 12 from 1 to 10 p. m.

This note of caution was announced this week by the Provisional League of Women Voters, Saugerties.

The notice cautions, if a resident has not voted in a general election during the past four years, his or her name may no longer be listed on the registration register.

The Town of Saugerties has a non-personal registration system. Anyone the voter designated may register for him.

A voter to qualify must be 21 years old on or before Election Day; a citizen by birth, or naturalization on or before August 7; a resident of the state for one year, of the county four months, of the election district 30 days.

Polling places for the 11 town districts are as follows:

1. Municipal Building, Partition Street.
2. Grathwal's Garage, Cedar Street.
3. Lynch Fire Hall, Theodore Place.
4. Saugerties Town Hall, Main Street.
5. Centerville Firehouse, Route 212.
6. Quarryville Social Hall.
7. Malden Firehouse.
8. Glasco Firehouse.
9. Odd Fellows Hall, West Saugerties.
10. Old Mt. Marion School.
11. Esso Station, Barclay Heights.

Lutheran Church Lists Activities

Coming activities at the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Atonement, Market Street, Saugerties were announced this week by the Rev. Walter Cowen, pastor.

Lutheran Church Women will not meet Oct. 10. Instead they will conduct a cover dish supper and family night for the congregation on Sunday, Oct. 13 at 6 p. m. in the church basement. Those attending should bring a dish to pass. There will be a songfest, a special motion picture and also a program for the children. The purpose is for social fellowship and inspiration and to acquaint the many new and old members of the congregation. A free will offering will be received.

Confirmation instruction for both first year and second year pupils will begin Saturday from 9 to 10:30 a. m. Those who failed to register September 29 should attend with new or both parents —and provide name, address, date of birth and baptism parents natal names, grade in school.

Sunday Holy Communion will be administered. The Atonement Church will be joining with churches of the World Council in observance of World-wide Communion Sunday.

An adult membership class will be conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Walter Cowen, beginning Sunday, Oct. 13, at 9:30 a. m. at the parsonage. The classes will be held for five consecutive weeks and lead to reception into membership.

Wednesday, Oct. 23, Lutheran Church Women of the Hudson District will meet at 10 a. m. at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Red Hook. The Rev. Dr. David Gaise, pastor of Redeemer Lutheran Kingston, will address the group's morning session. Those attending should make luncheon reservations with Mrs. A. Battenfield of 10 Fraleigh Street, Red Hook, by October 15th.

The annual choir concert of Atonement Lutheran Church will be held Sunday, Oct. 27 at 7:30 p. m. in the church. Atonement Choir augmented with soloists and choristers from the Hudson Valley will be under the direction of Donald Fellows, director of Atonement Choir and Catskill Glee Club. The concert is open to all who care to attend. A free will offering will be received.

Rosary Society

The vacationland of Florida will be depicted on film at Thursday's meeting of St. Mary of the Snow Rosary Society, according to the program chairman, Mrs. Terry Nau. The meeting is slated for 8 p. m. in the school cafeteria. New members are always welcome.

Final plans for the Living Rosary on Monday and the annual card party Oct 23 will be discussed. President Mrs. Carolyn Parenti urges all members to attend.

To Start Art Class

An organizational meeting for an adult education art class will be held in Room 16 at Saugerties High School, Washington Avenue Extension, on Monday at 7 p. m. At least 15 students are needed to start a class. Paul deLaura, high school art teacher, will be the instructor.

Webber Honored For Long Service With C-H Concern

LeRoy A. Webber of Hurley, Kingston commercial sales engineer of Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corporation, was honored Monday on the occasion of his 35th anniversary of service with the local utility. He was cited for his long company career and received a service emblem from Central Hudson Board Chairman Ernest R. Acker at ceremonies in the utility's general office in Poughkeepsie.

Webber joined Central Hudson Sept. 28, 1928. He served with the utility's line forces as a groundman and as a serviceman and was advanced to commercial representative in 1943. He was promoted to commercial and industrial sales representative in 1950 and was named district gas engineer in October 1951.

He is a past president and concurrently serves as a director of the Hurley Lions Club and is a member of the Town of Hurley Recreation Commission. He was a trustee of the Hurley School and now serves on the consistory of Hurley Reformed Church. He also is a member of the Central Hudson Employes Quarter Century Club.

Food Sale Scheduled

The New Paltz Public Health Nursing Committee will sponsor the annual bake sale Saturday, Oct. 5, at the Empire Market, upper Main Street from 10 a. m. to 12 noon.

President of the organization is Mrs. Eldon Johnson and the chairman of the bake sale this year is Mrs. Walter Maurer.

This annual food sale is for the benefit of the nursing scholarship which is awarded to one student at the New Paltz Central High School each year who is interested in entering nurses's training. This year's scholarship will be the sixth awarded by the committee.

The 1963 graduate to receive the Public Health Nursing Scholarship was Jane Moehrke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moehrke of 14 Millrock Road, New Paltz.

Chest Leaders Named

Taylor Thompson, New Paltz chairman for the 1963-64 Community Chest fund drive, has released the names of the unit leaders for the various divisions.

These include Mrs. Rachel Matteson and Mrs. Barbara Yanchitis for residential; Wilson Lorenzen, Jay A. LeFevre and Albert S. Kerr for commercial, and Joseph Foley and Dr. Virgil DeWitt for advanced gifts.

Also, Robert C. Davidson for goverment and educational, Thomas Benenati for the New Paltz Central High School, Charles Nations for the Virtis Company, Inc., and Mrs. Gloria Fogden for publicity.

Dixon on Dialects

NEW YORK (AP) — Broadway's master of 58 dialects is aiding stars to get ready for another season. Alfred Dixon, a 53-year-old former actor, found his tutoring specialty 30 years ago, estimates he has since been involved with performers in 180 productions. Among those now getting his advice on special pronunciations are Charles Boyer, Mary Martin, Dennis O'Keefe, Larry Kirk and Ethel Shutta.

Industrial Group Sets Forum Meet At Poughkeepsie

The first forum meeting of Mid-Hudson Industrial Association's 1963-64 series will be held Monday evening, Oct. 7, in the Venetian Room of Aloy's Garden Restaurant, Poughkeepsie.

Edwin R. Werner, vice president of Associated Hospital Service of New York, will be the principal speaker and has chosen as his topic, "The Payroll With the Fringe On the Top."

Werner has devoted his entire business career to the voluntary prepayment system. He was first affiliated with Blue Cross in 1938 with the then infant Blue Cross Plan in New York - Associated Hospital Service.

In 1946 Werner became affiliated with the Blue Cross and Blue Shield Plans in Chicago, and served in several executive capacities until 1957 when he joined the National Association of Blue Shield Plans as assistant to the executive vice president.

In July 1961 Werner returned to New York City as vice president of Associated Hospital Service (Blue Cross) and United Medical Service (Blue Shield), the capacity he now holds.

The first forum meeting of this season will be one of a series of five educational and informational topics. Because of the many areas of discussion such as the Federal Government entering the field of health insurance, Werner will cover this and many other phases of health insurance.

Arrangements for the meeting are under the direction of the committee consisting of Henry J. Schwellenbach, vice president-production, New York Trap Rock Corp., chairman; James W. Effron, partner, Effron Fuel Oil Co.; Kenneth B. Mesler, assistant to the president, Fallkill National Bank & Trust Co.; David A. Schrom, plant manager, The De-Laval Separator Co.; Howard W. Smith, president, Pawling Rubber Corp., and Henry R. Wengen, vice president, Fargo Mfg. Company, Inc.

Schwellenbach, vice president of Mid-Hudson Industrial Association, will preside at the meeting and the speaker will be introduced by Wengen.

Dinner is planned for 7 p. m. with a social hour starting at 6 p. m.

Benjamin J. Van Wickler, executive secretary of the Association, said the forum meetings are always open to associates and guests of members as well as anyone interested in the topic under discussion.

Historical Group Annual Dinner Slated Oct. 11

The annual dinner of Ulster County Historical Society will be held Friday, Oct. 11 at 6:30 p. m. in Governor Clinton Hotel, and not as previously announced.

Norman S. Rice, presently curator of Albany Institute of History and Art, writer and lecturer on American decorative arts and architecture will present a lecture with slides on early furniture of the Albany district.

MODENA NEWS

Mrs. Glennie M. Wager—Telephone TU 3-7136

MODENA — The Wesleyan Service Guild will meet Tuesday, Oct. 8, at 8 p. m. at the home of Eileen Riley in Ardonia. Roxcie Smith will be assistant hostess and Florence Hyatt program leader. Plans will be completed for the district meeting of Wesleyan Service Guilds and Woman's Societies of Christian Service, Saturday, Oct. 19, in the Modena Methodist Church. A luncheon will be served in the Hasbrouck Memorial Hall in connection with the meeting.

The Public Health Nursing Committee of the Town of Plattekill will meet 8 p. m. Monday, Oct. 7, at the home of Mrs. Clayton Mackey in Clintondale. Members of the committee placed the loan closet articles in the gatehouse, at the entrance of the Modena Rural Cemetery, recently.

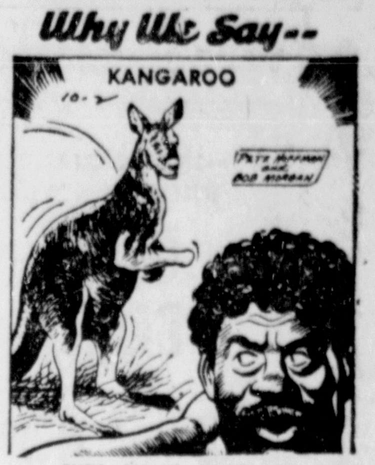
The Hall Committee has a meeting scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 10, at 8 p. m. in the Hasbrouck Memorial Hall.

The Modena Rod and Gun Club will meet Friday, Oct. 11, at 8 p. m. at the Hasbrouck Memorial Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Molson, Mr. and Mrs. George Daley are co-chairmen of the installation supper to be served Saturday evening, Oct. 12, in the Plattekill Grange.

Mrs. Herbert Winters Sr. and Mrs. Burton Ward are chairmen of the turkey supper to be served Wednesday, Oct. 16, in the Hasbrouck Memorial Hall. Servings are at 5:30 and 7 p. m.

Why We Say--



THEY DIDN'T KNOW: Captain James Clark, who discovered Australia, was amazed at seeing the kangaroo in the Endeavor River territory. He asked natives what the animal was and they replied "kangaroo" which meant they didn't know either, but Captain Clark believed that was the name of the animal, and that's how it was named.

Success car, '64 edition . . .

The car that answers the question, "After their '63 model, what in the world will Pontiac do for '64?"

Let's face it: it wasn't easy coming up with a worthy successor to our super-successful '63. But we did it, as you can plainly see. Evidence? Trim new styling, with interiors just as clean and handsome as the exterior. A smoother, quieter ride—which is something we seem to deliver every year. Wide-Track for curve-straightening and 389 cubic inches of Trophy V-8 power in every model. All in all, every '64 Pontiac looks and feels and acts like competitive cars wish they did and don't. Are we right in assuming you'd rather be down at your dealer's than sitting there reading? Be our guest! '64 Pontiac Pontiac

If you've been buying the same low-priced car time after time, get ready to break the habit.

And this is the habit-breaker—the '64 Pontiac Tempest. (If it were any more of a Pontiac, you couldn't tell it from our other one.) Anything new? Practically everything, that's all. A thrifty new in-line 6 cylinder engine, a longer, roomier body topping a wider Wide-Track, bigger brakes, a smoother and quieter ride, precise new steering, a new frame and assorted mechanical marvels. There's even an extra-cost 4-speed gearbox for the 6 or extra-cost V-8's. And most of all, very, very handsome Pontiac-style styling, inside and out. There are nine new Tempest and Le Mans models for 1964. So now your only problem is, which one to choose? And that shouldn't be much of a problem. Not with your Pontiac dealer so willing to help. '64 Pontiac Tempest

Calls Valachi Testimony Untrue

Wife of Buffalo 'Man of Year' Denies He Was in Cosa Nostra

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—John C. Montana, a businessman named by FBI informant Joseph Valachi as a former Cosa Nostra member, enjoys the prestige of having been named Buffalo's "Man of the Year" in 1956.

Mrs. John C. Montana said Tuesday night Valachi's testimony connecting her husband with the Cosa Nostra was "completely untrue." Montana could not be reached for comment.

"Coming from the source it did," Mrs. Montana said, "no one could believe it."

Valachi told the Senate investigating sub-committee Tuesday that Montana had been a "lieutenant" working under Stefano Magaddino of Niagara Falls. Magaddino was named earlier by Valachi as the Buffalo area boss of the Cosa Nostra.

Didn't Want Contacts

Valachi said Montana was demoted to "solider" at his own request because, Valachi said, he "didn't want the boys contacting him anymore."

Montana, one of 60 men taken into custody at the Apalachin gangland meeting in 1957, denied before a Senate committee five years ago that he was a member of the Cosa Nostra.

He was named Buffalo Man of the Year in 1956 by the Erie Club, an organization of members of the Buffalo Police Department.

He was cited for "outstanding civic achievement."

Held Civic Posts

Montana, 70, is chairman of the board of Van Dyke Taxi and Transfer, Inc., of Buffalo. He was a member of the Buffalo City Council from 1928-31, and was a delegate to the State Constitutional Convention in 1937.

Montana and his wife were among 44 guest invited by ex-governor Harriman to a luncheon honoring ex-Prime Minister Scelba of Italy in 1955.

Montana said in 1957 that he visited Joseph Barbara's mansion at Apalachin when his automobile broke down. He denied having any connection with the others in the house.

Montana was one of 20 apprehended at Apalachin convicted in 1959 of conspiracy to obstruct justice. The four-year prison sentence and $10,000 fine were set aside less than a year later when the courts ruled the federal conspiracy law unconstitutional.

Goldwater Not Changing Stand On Main Issues

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater said today those who contend he is hedging his conservatism to angle for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination have not listened to what he is saying.

Goldwater, Arizona Republican who is considered a front runner for a nomination he still insists he isn't seeking, said in an intervew that he hasn't changed his position on any fundamental issue in recent speeches he has made in all sections of the country.

"Some of the people who are saying that I am modifying my conservative position just haven't been reading what I have been saying," he said.

"Of course, I think there would be something wrong with any man in public life who didn't change some of his ideas to meet the developments of the time," he added. "Consistency is not necessarily a virtue. But I haven't changed my stand on any fundamental issue and I don't intend to."

Columbia Hotel Fire

Damage estimated at about $20,000 was caused by fire early today at the Stuyvesant Falls Hotel, Columbia County. The blaze was discovered by the proprietors, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Grega, who summoned firemen. It was reported firemen rescued Sandra, 17-year-old daughter of the hotel owners from a second floor room. The origin of the fire was not determined.

Boys Play, Woman Hurt

Police were notified at 4:40 p. m. Tuesday that Mrs. Katerina Koleniak, 67, of 36 Rondout Street, was injured when boys playing ball came in contact with her at Third Avenue and High Street. It was first thought she was uninjured, but she was later taken to Kingston Hospital in a Doctors' ambulance, treated for minor injuries and released.

Fail to Open Safe

An attempt to force open a safe in the office of the First Presbyterian Church, Cannon and Academy Streets, Poughkeepsie, today was under investigation by police in that city.

Arterial Laws

portant matter. I would point out that without such enabling legislation, the new arterial cannot be legally opened to traffic upon completion, except under the emergency powers of this office.

"Accordingly, I have had the required ordinance drawn to comply with the requests of the State Traffic Commission, and approved by both the Corporation Counsel, and counsel of the State Traffic Commission.

"It is my hope that your Honorable Body will pass the attached resolution so that the Washington Avenue Arterial may be uitilized by our citizens and visitors, when it is completed in the near future."

Says Leadership Negative

Alderman Myers held that the failure of the Common Council's traffic committee "to act on this request by the mayor is typical of the negative leadership of the majority party, since a Republican mayor has been in office.

"In the past 11 months," he said, "since the mayor communicated to his Honorable Body a request to study the proposal, and report to the State Traffic Commission, and prepare a resolution and ordinance establishing traffic controls for the new Washington Avenue Arterial, there has not been a single meeting of the traffic control committee of the Common Council to deal with this matter.

21 Months of Obstruction

"Instead, we have had 21 months of obstruction, harassment, and the forcing down our throats of ridiculous resolutions concerning matters over which the Common Council has no jurisdiction; resolutions dreamed up to embarass the administration and ursurp the responsibilities and powers of the administrative branch of our municipal government.

"The majority party in this council has been so busy directing the clerk to write nasty letters to the mayor, that when an important piece of legislation, such as traffic controls for the new Washington Avenue Arterial is needed, nothing is done about it for 11 months.

"I just hope that we shall be able to work together in this important matter, so that when the arterial is completed in the near future, the city will have legal traffic ordinances in effect."

Hastings Blames Mayor

Alderman Donald M. Hastings (D) Third Ward, chairman of the council's traffic control committee held that if Mayor Schwenk "was any kind of a man" he would have given notice of an earlier completion date for the project. It was the mayor, he charged, "who held this thing up."

Minority Leader Joseph F. Carroll Jr. (R) 11th Ward, asked if the necessary information was not in the committee's folder.

Francis R. Koenig (D) Ninth War, said it was not in the folder. He said later, however, it had been there, but apparently had been removed.

Frank A. Adams (D) Fifth Ward, held that Myers, as a minority member of the committee was empowered to ask where it was and to suggest action on the pproposal. "We cannot accept the blame brought to us by default," he said.

Notes Democratic Control

Carroll held that the traffic committee is controlled by the majority party, and he felt that "an important piece of legislation like this should not slip anyone's mind."

A bitter exchange between Carroll and Hastings resulted in Carroll noting that he had been asked when "the political campaign was going to start." He then declared, noting he was reluctant to do so, "right now," and suggested that Hastings had "better watch his statements." He, as he had done before referred to Hastings of "Dennis the Menace of the Third Ward."

Carroll referred to Hastings earlier attempt to gain a fixed tax rate for elderly citizens, and held that the effort turned out to be a "hoax" because of a ruling by Corporation Counsel Harry Gold.

Hastings held that his proposal was a legal one in the state, and felt that former Corporation Counsel William A. Kelly, would have ruled otherwise. Carroll said he had served in the counsel when Kelly was corporation counsel, and was sure Kelly would have not ruled otherwise.

Says Details Lacking

Sass, in dealing with requested approval of the $90,000 in revenue anticipation notes, argued that the city treasurer should have given the aldermen detailed information well in advance of the meeting, and Adams felt that he should have produced a detailed report, and the counsel's finance committee should have opportunity "to inspect the books."

Sass noted that the council "only 30 days ago" had approved a note for $75,000, and held that this time they should have been given sufficient notice and detail.

City Treasurer Richardson explained to a reporter that as of Aug. 5 the city had a total of $270,000 in uncollected monies, and the council approved a $75,000 note. Some $53,000 was collected leaving a balance of $217,000. In addition to the $217,000, he said, not yet collected were: $14,000 from the state for sewage treatment, $16,000 for the county's share of laboratory expenses, $15,000 in gross utility tax, adding $45,000 to the 217,000 for a total of $268,000. Against these uncollected sums $75,000 was borrowed, leaving a balance of $187,000, but only $90,000 was asked through approval of the note.

Koenig said it was indicated at the meeting of the finance committee and City Treasurer Richardson that Alderman Myers had received advance information of the need for the $90,000 in revenue anticipation notes. He took exception to Myers' claim that the majority members of the council had been unfair and had harassed the mayor's administration.

Majority party aldermen, Koenig held, had backed all of the administration's important legislation, and "tried to see that everything he has brought to us was carried."

Ex-Solon Bedded

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—Former U.S. Sen. Theodore Francis Green is confined to bed with a broken hip, it was disclosed today.

Edward Higgins, Green's secretary, said the former senator, whose 96th birthday is today, broke a hip in an accident in his home about three weeks ago. He was not hospitalized.

Green, a bachelor, retired from the Senate in 1960. He was the oldest man ever to serve in Congress. A Democrat, Green entered the Senate at age 69 after serving two terms as governor of Rhode Island.

ritual, Mafia-like initiation into the crime syndicate which he calls La Cosa Nostra. "Our thing" in Italian.

"This is my doom. . .what I'm telling you now," the 60-year-old hoodlum said grimly after relating how he was sworn in with a knife and gun before him, his finger pricked to draw blood and a piece of paper burning in his hand to remind him that he too would be burned to ashes if he broke his oath.

Going Back to Murders

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., announced his Senate investigations subcommittee has "two or three more murders" from the past on which to question Valachi before bringing his testimony back to crimes of the present.

The subcommittee is investigating the purported nationwide crime syndicate operations, with Valachi as a major witness. And it has said that police testimony will corroborate Valachi's testimony.

The subcommittee has indicated the aim of the hearings is to draw public attention to the racketeering activities and to explore the possible need of new laws to battle organized crime.

Upset by 'Inferiority'

Valachi has told the senators he wants to destroy La Cosa Nostra through his testimony because it exploited rank-and-file members like himself and has marked him for execution as an informer.

He has named Vito Genovese, now in prison as a narcotics racketeer, as La Cosa Nostra's dominant power, and linked Genovese's name with bloody gang wars for power.

The subcommittee's overnight recess interrupted Valachi's testimony of a double cross.

Fixed Death Meal

He swore Genovese and the notorious Salvatore "Lucky" Luciano lured another New York gangster, Giuseppe Masseria, to his "death meal" in a Coney Island, N.Y., restaurant to set him up for gang war execution.

Luciano, who was described in the past as one of the leaders of the nation's vice and narcotics rackets, was deported after World War II and died in Italv last year.

The recess came before Valachi had a chance to describe the actual murder of Masseria which the New York authorities list as unsolved.

Masseria was slain April 20, 1931, in a war with another mob headed by Salvatore Maranzano, himself a later victim of the war.

Valachi told of accepting without question "contracts" for murder, including the slaying of James Catania, also known as Joe Baker, on Feb. 3, 1931.

Six bullets cut Baker down as he walked toward his office. Valachi said the actual killing was done by Salvatore "Sally Shields" Shillitani, Nick Capuzzi and a Chicago mobster known as Buster who looked like a college boy and carried a machine gun in a violin or guitar case.

College Traffic

Burgevin Inc., filed the petition for a zoning change that would permit construction of "a high grade apartment building" on the site of present greenhouses off upper Pearl Street.

Alderman Donald E. Quick (D) 10th Ward, chairman of the council's laws and rules committee, noted that the petition would require the signatures of 51 per cent of property holders in the area who would be concerned through proximity, with the property involved.

A claim of $10,000 for Terri Lynn Worthington, four years old, and $1,000 for her guardian Ida Worthington, of 50 Meadow Street, was filed and referred to Corporation Counsel Harry Gold.

Claims Pool Injuries

It is claimed that the child suffered a foot laceration from "glass and other sharp material" while playing in the Hasbrouck Park pool last July 19. Claimants are represented by Attorney William P. Curran.

Alderman Joseph Tomaszewski (D) Sixth Ward, said he had fought for two years for action by the city that would remedy a drainage condition, which has damaging and dangerous results to a family on St. Mary's Street, near his own residence.

"Nobody goes down there," he said, and he asked, "Why, because it's in the Sixth Ward "

Majority Leader Frank C. Sass (D) Seventh Ward, felt that the family involved had a right to file a claim against the city, and he and Tomaszewski believed that all of the other aldermen would agree, if they visited the property.

Charges No Notification

Sass, when the urban renewal measure was reported, said: "The mayor takes pains to say we haven't lived up to our obligations." The alderman said he had not been told that action on the measure was due. He was sure that no member of the council's urban renewal committee knew of it, and charged that the mayor "as chief executive has failed to notify us of this important legislation."

Alderman Quick said: "The mayor is criticizing us, yet he is not paying any attention to us."

Quick said he thought the council had passed a resolution at the last meeting asking that the Wilbur Avenue incinerator be closed until repair was made to end smoke menace in the area.

Used Once a Week

The incinerator, he said, was "still burning," and he wanted to know why.

Minority Leader Carroll reported contact made by city officials to determine best means of repair, and until then the city needed a means of disposal for combustible materials.

Alderman Hastings contended that combustibles can be buried along with other refuse, and this has been proved.

The city has been using the incinerator, mostly once a week, to dispose of combustibles collected from commercial and industrial houses.

Not Ready for Report

Hastings, who heads a special committee named to study refuse disposal, reported meeting with representatives of the towns of Ulster and Esopus, but he thought it too early to create "a false sense of hope" by giving a report at this time.

Hastings asked the city clerk to invite Mayor Schwenk by letter to attend future meetings of the group, which is considering the possibility of a combined incineration project. Alderman Sass, said he also was interested in the study, and would like to attend the meetings.

Right-of-Way Adopted

A measure providing for the yielding of right-of-way to Washington Avenue arterial travel at Taylor and Murphy streets, was adopted. It also prohibits parking or standing on the westerly side of Washington Avenue for 500 feet north of the intersection of Hurley Avenue.

Hastings asked for a letter to the mayor requesting study of a regulation that would cover the change in travel on the arterial between 50-mile-per-hour and 25 MPH speed limits.

Alderman Sass, noting that Joseph Connors, of 156 Hunter Street, has been attending council meetings for the past three and a half years, presented him with a copy of the city's new zoning ordinance.

The council adjourned to meet next on Nov. 12 both as a canvassing board to review results of the Nov. 5 election, and to conduct its regular November meeting.

Alderman-at-Large Harold L. Kaye extended an invitation to his elected successor to sit with him on the rostrum at the next meeting. The candidates are Minority Leader Joseph F. Carroll Jr., Republican, and Francis R. Koenig, Democrat.

Car Hits Pole

Nelson Hoffman Jr., 25 of Tall Oaks Trailer Park, East Chester Street, police said, escaped uninjured when his car struck a Central Hudson utility pole on Flatbush Avenue near Clifton Avenue early today. Officers George Barringer and Anthony Turck, who investigated, said the driver claimed he was blinded by lights of an oncoming car. A report at 5:30 a. m. said the pole was severed from its base and traffic signs were hit.

Four Drivers Fined

Four drivers, charged with traffic violations, were fined $45 in city court today. Bruce Bodine, 20, of Route 3, Box 465, Saugerties, charged with speeding, was fined $25, Ray Russell, 37, of Catskill, charged with a traffic light violation, paid $10 and fined $5 each were Chester Blum, 64, of 332 Abeel Street, stop-sign, and Dennis A. Elmendorf, 17, of 106 Farrelly Street, uninspected vehicle.

Signs Military Boost

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy signed today, with "great pleasure" a bill granting an average 14.4 per cent pay increase to most of the 2.7 million men and women in the armed forces.

In a cabinet room ceremony, Kennedy used more than a dozen fountain pens to sign the measure, which will cost the government $1.2 billion a year. It is the biggest military pay boost in history.

Kennedy said that, while he is impressed with new and powerful weapons, he is mindful of the fact that it is men who "manage them, control them, and have the will to direct them."

Early Return Is Advised of Data On Vet Payments

Dependent parents of deceased veterans and veterans who are receiving additional service connect disability compensation because of a dependent parent or parents received a special income questionnaire last month.

Charles Culiver, state veteran counselor, New York State Division of Veterans Affairs and John Tyler, director, Ulster County Veterans Service Agency, today reminded recipients of the questionnaire that prompt return of the card is most important.

"The purpose of the questionnaire is to establish the fact that recipients continue to be dependent and are still eligible for payment. Failure to return the questionnaire to the appropriate office before Oct. 31, may result in the termination of payments, Culver and Tyier said.

Persons who have not returned the questionnaires as yet are urged to contact Tyler or Culver at their office at 4 Hurley Avenue. Office hours are Monday through Friday, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Ground Broken For Greene Plant

Ground breaking ceremonies on Tuesday marked the beginning of a new $150,000 headquarters for research, marketing and manufacturing for Stiefel Laboratories Inc., producers of dermatological pharmaceuticals at Oak Hill, Greene County.

Werner K. Stiefel, president of the firm, said the new plant is scheduled for completion early next year. He noted it is expected to lead to a 50 per cent increase in employment opportunities in about a year.

Attending the ground-breaking were bank officials of the area, Alfred C. Haven, comptroller of the Job Development Authority of New York, Greene County Assemblyman Alfred C. Haven, members of the Greene County Industrial Dvelopment Committee and other public and company officials.

The new plant is to be located on a 104-acre site in the foothills of the Catskills only a few miles from existing facilities. The plant will contain 11,000 square feet.

No Progress Is Made in Strike Against Stores

Pickets were still reported at the Kingston Shop-Rite store, Route 9W, this morning after 15-hour negotiations failed to settle a strike that began Tuesday.

"Negotiations bogged down over the length of contract," according to William A. McLaughlin, president of Local 1262 of the Retail Store Employes Union. The union is on strike against 88 Shop-Rite, Foodtown and Good Deal supermarkets.

Proposal Rejected

Stores affected by the walkout stretch from Toms River northward through Central and Northern Jersey. Workers also walked out at Orange county supermarkets in Florida and Vails Gate in addition to Kingston.

A union spokesman today said a proposal, submitted to membership, was voted down. He said 2,020 ballots were cast, 10 were voided and 1,650 voted against the proposal and 360 were for it.

According to an Associated Press report from Newark, N. J., the operation of stores was being carried on by managers using supervisory personnel and, in some cases, members of their families.

It was reported the union wants a 2-year contract with across the board pay increases of $7 now and $7 additional after one year. The management proposal offered a 42-month contract, with $4 increases now, $3 in one year and $2 later.

A union spokesman noted that the employes want increased sick benefits with seven days a year with pay, and with benefits to start the first day. He said the management offered a sick leave of nine days a year, with benefits starting on the third day.

Only One Locally

Local 1262, ALF-CIO had contracts with the three food chains. The old contract expired at midnight Sunday. Only one local store, Shop-Rite on Route 9W, is involved in the dispute. Between 50 and 60 retail grocery clerks struck the store on Tuesday, and picket lines were set up outside the parking lot, an official said.

Counselor Night To Stress Need of Student Guidance

A presentation of guidance services in Myron J. Michael Junior High School will be outlined to parents at Counselor Night to be held at the MJM P-TA meeting Thursday 8 p. m. at the MJM auditorium.

As children move from elementary school to junior high school, parents as well as students encounter the system of departmentalization. Where the Sixth Grade teacher handled most of the subject matter with her class throughout the school day, the junior high separates each subject into a period of time and assigns different teachers to each subject. Where the teacher in the Sixth Grade had the entire school day with her one class, the junior high teacher has five to six different classes of 35 students each. Always with departmentalization the guidance department is introduced to students for the first time when they enter junior high school.

Through small and large group counseling in addition to individual counseling, the counselors help the student to find out more about himself; of his interests, goals, weaknesses, strengths, abilities. Teachers and counselors work hand-in-hand in applying this information for better understanding of each student while in the classroom.

Jacob A. Noefo, guidance coordinator will outline the presentation, assisted by John O'Leary and Douw S. Myers, guidance counselors.

Fresh Hunt for Slayer

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Police and sheriff's men launched a fresh hunt today for the slayer of two small girls whose bodies were dumped in heavy underbrush along a secluded road.

A road worker, chancing to walk into the wooded area in suburban Plymouth Village, came upon the bodies Tuesday, 24 days after the girls disappeared while playing in their run-down south-side neighborhood.

Victims of the apparent kidnaping were Melissa Ann Lee, 5, and Barbara Ann Foshaug, 4.

Dempsey Visits Danbury Fair, to Conclude Sunday

"Governor's Day" today featured the 94th Danbury State Fair, Danbury, Conn., with Gov. John N. Dempsey, his wife and official party making their annual tour of the fair grounds. He was scheduled to address the grandstand crowd.

The fair opened on Saturday with good weather, as 34,612 people clicked the turnstiles. Heavy rain on Sunday held the attendance down to a mere 5,595.

In 1962, a total of 74,958 paid admissions was recovered the first two days. The record nine-day attendance is 165,082 paid admissions, recorded in 1961.

Friday is Danbury Day at the fair, when some 10,000 school children will have free passes and schools will be closed for the day, by tradition.

Popular spots on the fair grounds is the New Amsterdam Village, an authentic replica of a Dutch Village, and the newest attraction, Cinderelland.

The rides, sideshows, hundreds of exhibits, designed for entertainment and education of young and old, are popular with the fairgoers.

The fair grounds open at 9:30 a. m. daily and close at 7 p. m. The fair ends on Sunday.

Arrested for Assault

Florence C. Humphrey, 49, of 9 East Pierpont Street, was arrested Tuesday night by Margaret Elmendorf, of 118 Broadway, on a third degree assault charge. The arrest followed a report to police at 6:21 p. m. by the latter that someone had struck her. Officers Raymond Wells and Ira Hadsel were dispatched to investigate. Special City Judge Bernard A. Feeney Jr., imposed a suspended fine of $25.

Held for Larceny

Two men were in the Ulster County jail today under charges of petty larceny. Troopers booked George Morrow, 31, of 160 Bleeker Street, New York City, yesterday. Arraigned before Justice of the Peace James Palen, Town of Plattekill, Morrow was ordered held for hearing. Frank Irving, 33, of Wallkill, a shipping clerk, is the other defendant. No further details were available.

Today in History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Wednesday, Oct. 2, the 275th day of 1963. There are 90 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1780, the British officer, Maj. John Andre, was hanged by the United States as a spy. It was Andre who negotiated traitor Benedict Arnold's attempted surrender of West Point during the American Revolution.

On this date

In 1804, England's entire population was mobilized to resist possible invasion by Napoleon Bonaparte's French armies.

In 1871, Mormon leader Brigham Young was arrested for polygamy.

In 1919, King Albert of Belgium arrived in the United States for a visit.

In 1941, the Germans launched an intensive drive against Moscow during World War II.

In 1955, the Rev. Simon Montgomery became the first Negro minister of an all-white congregation at Old Mystic, Conn.

Ten years ago . . . The Brooklyn Dodgers beat the New York Yankees 3-2 in the third game of the 1953 World Series as right-hander Carl Erskine fanned 14 to set a new series strikeout record.

Five years ago . . . Russia accused the United States and Britain of flouting the U.N. General Assembly by refusing to withdraw troops from Lebanon and Jordan.

One year ago . . . Secretary of State Dean Rusk told representatives of the Organization of American States that the United States was prepared to provide political leadership needed to block Communist inroads in the Western Hemisphere.

Teachers May Intern

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Teachers may soon be required to serve an "intern year" on the job before being graduated at Ohio State University.

Donald P. Cottrell, dean of the College of Education, believes that an extra year of education is becoming increasingly necessary for teachers. Under the program, he said a bachelor's degree could be omitted with graduates receiving a master's degree instead.

Oswego Farmer Not Partisan on Suspenders

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—When it comes to giving away red suspenders Robert Monson, a Mexico, Oswego County, dairy farmer, is non-partisan.

He demonstrated this Tuesday night when he promised to send Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman, a Democrat, a pair of red suspenders similar to those Monson wore at a farm forum here.

Last month, Monson gave a pair to Republican Gov. Rockefeller, who had been attracted to Monson's suspenders while visiting the New York State Exposition here.

Freeman asked Monson at the meeting, "Let me know where I can get a pair."

Monson apologized, "I gave a pair to Gov. Rockefeller at the State Fair. I wish I had a pair to give you tonight. But I will send you a pair to Washington."

Cadillac FOR 1964

Upper: The Coupe de Ville; lower: The Fleetwood Sixty Special Sedan

MORE TEMPTING THAN EVER!

The 1964 Cadillac is more tempting than ever to look at! It has a clean, low sweep to its lines . . . greater refinement in all of its body contours . . . and a dramatically new, divided grille.

It's more tempting than ever to ride in! There's greater smoothness and quietness. The interiors are luxurious as never before. And an exclusive new Comfort Control* enables you to pre-set interior temperature while automatically controlling humidity.

And Cadillac for 1964 is more tempting than ever to drive! It has a new high-performance engine—the most powerful in Cadillac history. Cadillac's Hydra-Matic Drive has been remarkably improved in smoothness and responsiveness—and a new version, the Turbo Hydra-Matic, is standard equipment on some models. Both assure a truly amazing agility in traffic and a new over-all standard of automotive performance on the highway.

The final temptation? That's the extraordinary value that's built into each of the eleven new Cadillac models.

Be among the first to visit your authorized Cadillac dealer and . . .

. . . just wait till you drive it!

*An extra-cost option combining heating and air conditioning.

North's raise to two spades is eminently correct by modern bidding methods. He is not strong enough to try two clubs and he should avoid a no-trump call with two suits conspiciously unstopped.

South's three diamond rebid was close. Most players would have settled for a part score, but South had fallen in love with his hand. Therefore, after North merely returned to three spades South continued right on to game.

This last bid was a real flirtation with the undertaker, but everything worked out beautifully. After all, every overbid isn't punished.

South won the opening heart lead and counted four sure losers unless he could do something about his second heart. There was a place for it and South's first play was a club to dummy's queen. The finesse worked and South was able to park his losing heart on the ace of clubs.

A spade lead was won by West's jack and the heart continuation ruffed by South.

This left him with only three trumps, but South gambled when he bid four spades. He wasn't going to give up when victory was within his grasp. He led a second spade from his own hand. East's queen lost to West's king and another heart lead left South with only one trump.

It also left him with his contract. He showed his hand and announced, "I will play diamonds. Take your ace of trumps whenever you want to."

Capitol News In Brief

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

CORREGIDOR MEMORIAL: The House has passed and sent to the Senate a bill authorizing expenditure of $1.5 million as the U.S. share in making the Philippine island of Corregidor a World War II memorial.

House approval Tuesday was by voice vote.

Under the bill, the Philippines would put up a similar amount and would maintain the memorial.

DOMINICAN DEBATE: Three Democratic senators have demanded that the State Department permanently withhold recognition from the military junta that last week overthrew President Juan Bosch of the Dominican Republic.

The three, Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, Wayne Morse of Oregon and Ernest Gruening of Alaska, also urged withholding of military aid to the new regime.

The Senate Foreign Relations committee plans to question John Bartlow Martin, U.S. ambassador to the Dominican Republic at the time of the coup, and Edwin M. Martin, assistant secretary of state for Latin America, at its first closed session Thursday.

FREAR RESIGNS: Former Democratic Sen. J. Allen Frear Jr. of Delaware has resigned from the Securities and Exchange Commission. Although Frear, 60, has been ill a year, it was not known if this was the reason for his resignation.

Announce Arrival Of New Books at Phoenicia Library

A really big selection of new books in all categories has just been received by Phoenicia Library.

In the adult group of about 100 titles, fiction lovers will find "The Principal" by Sigel, "The Pumpkin Eater" by Mortimer, "Raise High the Roof Beams, Carpenters" and "Seymour" both by Salinger.

For non-fiction readers there are many new titles like "The World of Ice" by Dyson and controversial subjects such as "Silent Spring" by Carson which deals with man's reckless attempt to control his environment by use of chemicals that not only poison the insects against which they are directed but man himself to a greater degree than he realizes, and "Changing Patterns of Prejudice" by Marrow which discusses racial, religious and cultural tensions that are headline news today.

There is also a wide selection of good reading for young people from kindergarten to college. For the teenager, love and adventure stories predominate; for the youngsters there are new mysteries and animal stories galore.

Warning from Cuba

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Cuban armed forces Vice Minister Maj. Efigenio Almeijeiras has warned the United States to keep its hands off Cuba or suffer the consequences.

"If the imperialists stick their hands into Cuba again, we will cut them off," Almeijeiras said according to a Havana radio broadcast heard in Miami.

Phone Raise Approval In Dunkirk Area

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—The Public Service Commission gave its approval today to a plan for toll-free telephone service in the Dunkirk area in Western New York.

It will permit subscribers of the New York Telephone Co. and the Dunkirk and Fredonia Telephone Co. to make calls without toll charges between Dunkirk, Fredonia, Silver Creek and Forestville.

The plan is to go into effect Oct. 31, 1964.

The PSC said that monthly rates charged some New York Telephone subscribers would be increased by a total of $23,100 a year but that this would be offset by eliminating $32,300 in toll charges — for a net saving of $9.200.

Subscribers of the Dunkirk and Fredonia Telephone Co. will save about $3,360 a year in toll charges, the commission said.

Washington Cool To Central and Pennsylvania Tie

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration has opposed the merger of the Pennsylvania and New York Central Railroads, saying it does not think the union of the two eastern rail giants would serve the public interest.

William H. Orrick Jr., assistant attorney general for antitrust, disclosed the administration's position Tuesday as Interstate Commerce Commission hearings on the proposed merger neared an end.

Orrick's statement was regarded as the administration's official view on the proposal. However, it is not binding on the commission which will rule on the merger.

In Philadelphia, officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad said they would have no comment immediately on Orrick's testimony. Earlier in the day, before he learned of Orrick's testimony, the Pennsy's new board chairman, Stuart T. Saunders, said he was confident the merger would be approved.

Orrick said the union of the two eastern railroad mammoths "would eliminate a vast amount of beneficial rail competition, depriving a number of important areas and traffic flows of satisfactory alternatives among roughly equal rival railroads."

The assistant attorney general also testified, however, that the administration favored two other proposed consolidations—that of the Chesapeake & Ohio and the Baltimore & Ohio, and of the Norfolk & Western, Nickel Plate and Wabash Railroads.

Orrick said the merger of the Pennsy and New York Central "would not only impose restraints on effective rail competition, but would also endanger the service capabilities, the prospects and even the continued existence of several smaller railroads which neither these applicants nor any other railroads have included in their merger or control proposals."

Orrick said the government opposed the merger because of the long-range consequences, saying such a merger might bar a more balanced realignment of eastern railroads in the future.

Demos Will Open Office in Ulster Saturday Night

The Town of Ulster Democratic Campaign Headquarters on Albany Avenue Extension, opposite the Robert Hall store, will be opened Saturday, Oct. 5, at 7 p. m., it was announced by Town Chairman Pat Clausi.

Open house will be held and coffee, doughnuts and cider will be served. The public is invited to meet the candidates and to visit the headquarters at any time during the campaign.

Berbers Ready To Defy Bella At Cost of War

ALGIERS (AP)—Berber mutineers manned cannon on Algerian mountain ridges today, vowing to defy President Ahmed Ben Bella even at the cost of civil war. Ben Bella forces announced plans to arm vigilante committees to fight, if necessary with loyal Army troops.

The announcement was made by Hadj Ben Alla, chief organizer of Ben Bella's ruling Front of National Liberation (FLN).

"The vigilante committees will safeguard the revolution and fight against counterrevolution," Ben Alla said.

"If necessary they can fight alongside our Djounouds (soldiers)" Ben Alla said. "They will be formed in every town, every village."

Meanwhile, government troops threw a ring of roadblocks around the dissident Kabylie area in an effort to isolate the rebels.

Col. Mohand ou el Hadj, military commander of the anti-Ben Bella uprising, told newsmen he would like to avoid a clash but would not hesitate to fire if fired on.

Newsmen traveling to the dissident Kabylie area east of Algiers saw mutinous troops haul Chinese-made cannon up the mountainsides while infantry soldiers were digging in.

The last of the French settlers faced ouster from their farms as Ben Bella nationalized their land in an effort to rally hungry peasants to his defense.

Soviet Desire

farm income, but also the effect of farm programs on the federal budget and of an accumulation of more butter (under dairy support programs) than we can sell or give away under donation programs," he said.

Freeman said criticism had been focused on some provisions of a federal order regulating marketing and pricing of milk in the New York-New Jersey area. Critics contend the order gives special preferences to dairymen covered by it.

He said that hearings had been held on these complaints and that he was bound by legal procedure from discussing them until he received the formal hearing results.

college during evening hours chose their programs from 27 different course offerings distributed over 34 different sections.

College officials were most pleased at the magnitude of the evening enrollment. Earlier predictions had suggested that the evening enrollment would be between 300 and 350 with 400 as anticipated maximum. The final number at the conclusion of late registration revealed 552 evening students, and a number of citizens of the community have already expressed their intention to register for courses during the spring semester although they have not done so for the current semester.

The first week of classes at the new Community College moved along very smoothly and Dr. Dale B. Lake, president of the college, today made the following statement:

"I am pleased indeed at the response which the community has made to our new Community College. The West Chestnut Street facilities are extremely adequate and the adjustment of both full and part-time students to their new academic program has been exciting, satisfying and stimulating. I would like to take this opportunity to commend every one of our students for their interest, enthusiasm, motivation and cooperation. The members of our faculty have been pleased indeed with the attitude of the students and I look forward with confidence to the year ahead."

State GOP Huddles

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—A major issue up for discussion today at a meeting of the state's Republican senators was the possible strengthening of the state code of ethics governing outside activities of legislators and other state employes.

Senate Majority Leader Walter J. Mahoney called the session to begin formal discussion of matters expected to come up in the 1964 session of the Legislature.

The session will open Jan. 8.

Also on the agenda at today's meeting was consideration of the state financial situation, party policy on legislative reapportionment and other matters.

Republicans control the Senate, 33 to 25.

Troopers Probe 2 Greene Mishaps

Two highway mishaps were investigated Tuesday by Leeds State Police, who reported one truck driver was injured.

Troopers said Glendon Foley, 54, of Cairo, was driving a tractor-trailer east on Route 23 west of Route 32, Town of Cairo, when the right front tire blew out, causing the vehicle to veer off the highway and overturn.

Foley, troopers reported, received bruises of both shoulders. The mishap occurred at about 12:40 p. m.

Two vehicles were involved in a collision at the intersection of Routes 23 and 32, Town of Cairo, at 10 a. m. Tuesday. Troopers said William Baer, 19, of Davenport, was driving a truck west on Route 23 and Peter Betsolo, 47, of West Hatfield, Mass., was traveling north on Route 32 at the time of the collision. No injuries were reported.

Dominican Future Reportedly Rests In U. S. Hands

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Leaders in the Dominican Republic say the country will be bankrupt in three months if the United States and other American nations do not accept the regime that ousted President Juan Bosch.

"From a psychological point of view, maybe we'll last only one month," a high-level government official said in an interview. "Public opinion will deteriorate if we fail to get diplomatic recognition and you might see an uprising inside 30 days. Then we'd get a military dictatorship or a Communist takeover."

Officials in the provisional government, businessmen and foreign diplomats, agree that the Dominican future rests in U.S. hands. No one consented to be quoted by name.

Fog Burns Off

A heavy fog blanketed the area early today, slowing traffic on main highways. Authorities reported no serious highway accidents due to the fog, which burned off soon after daybreak. A State Thruway spokesman said no difficulty resulted on the superhighway.

Change Rondout

Bachelor of Science in music education. In 1947 he was graduated from Syracuse University in the field of school administration and supervision.

He served in various capacities from instructor to principal at Palmyra from 1942 to 1954.

The request for the change in status was initiated by the Board of Education upon the advice of and with the sanction of Lester J. Roosa, district superintendent of schools for Supervisory District Number I. When school districts grow to a pupil population of 2,000 or more and satisfy other requirements with respect to organization and curriculum, they may apply to the State Education Department for authority to establish a superintendency and employ a superintendent of schools.

This change is consistent with the changing pattern of school district organization in New York State. The role of the district superintendent of schools is changing, also. While he serves as the State Education Department's representative in the district which he serves, an even more important function is emerging in his capacity of chief administrative officer of the Board of Cooperative Educational Services.

Provides Special Services

This Board provides special services to schools which they, by themselves, could not support. This is the means whereby area schools are able to offer much improved programs for education.

For example, the Ulster County Board of Cooperative Educational Services is providing a very active vocational program for its member schools. In addition, it provides a wide variety of curriculum services including workshops for teachers, consultants in several curriculum areas, a large library of resource materials and experimental programs designed to test new ideas and teaching techniques in education. Further, personnel — including speech therapists,, psychologists and other special services—are made available on a part-time basis to the member schools.

With the creation of the Rondout Valley Central School District superintendency, there are now three such independent village superintendencies in Ulster County—Saugerties, Onteora and Rondout Valley — and one city superintendency—Kingston.

Selassie Views 20's As Guest of JFK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia had a front row view Tuesday night of America's gaudy twenties — prancing flappers and old vaudeville.

Sitting beside President Kennedy, the Emperor seemed to enjoy the antics of the Robert Joffrey Ballet Company which provided the entertainment after the White House dinner in the Emperor's honor.

There were 120 guests in the state dining room, and the President's official hostess for the evening was his mother, Mrs. Joseph Kennedy.

First Lady Jacqueline Kennedy left for a holiday in Greece Tuesday night before the affair got under way.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market moved irregularly lower early this afternoon as trading slackened.

Losses of key stocks went from fractions to a point or so.

Weakness of Pennsylvnia Railroad and New York Central followed news that the U.S. attorney general's office opposed the projected merger of the two roads.

New York Central was down 2 points, Pennsylvania more than a point.

Other railroads were mostly steady.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .2 at 277.9 with industrials up .2, rails up .1 and utilities up .3.

Despite further news of steel price increases, the steels backed away from early gains and moved raggedly lower on balance.

Sperry Rand and Chrysler again looked like the market pacemakers on volume. Each canceled early gains and showed small net losses.

General Motors held a fractional advance. Ford was down slightly.

American Telephone wiped out a small early gain and eased. Western Union, which reported a sharp gain in profits, was up nearly a point.

Lykes Steamship rose almost a point and American Export Lines a fraction.

Actively traded, Sunray DX Oil, Foote Mineral and Martin-Marietta gained fractions. Also active, whirlpool dropped more than 2 and Electronic Specialty nearly a point.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was down 0.90 at 737.43.

Polaroid was off more than 5, Xerox and Control Data about 2 each.

October Term Opens

Faced with a calendar of 849 civil cases on the regular calendar and 33 cases on the equity calendar, Supreme Court Justice Louis G. Bruhn opened the October term of Supreme Court Tuesday. After trial jurors had been excused an extra panel of 50 jurors was drawn to report at 10 a. m. on Thursday, Oct. 3. Following the charge to the Grand Jurors by Justice Bruhn, and selection of Harold Anson Bailey of Rifton and Edith Marie Kelder of Kingston as foreman and acting foreman, the Grand jury retired to organize and begin deliberations.

New CR Tensions

an end to a racial truce that began 12 days ago.

The 15 persons arrested pleaded innocent to charges of disorderly conduct and were freed in $500 bail each, pending court action.

Among those arrested were Onondaga County Supervisor Malchester P. Reeves, a Democrat; two Syracuse University faculty members and two instructors at the Upstate Medical Center.

The demonstration protested the Syracuse Common Council's action Monday in creating a 16-member mayor's commission on human rights.

Called Useless

Civil rights groups argued that the commission would be useless unless it had police powers and subpoena authority.

The dispute centers on a city urban renewal project. The protesting groups contend that Negroes being displaced by the project are unable to find housing outside of "Negro ghettoes" because of alleged racial discrimination.

Syracuse University security guards witnessed the arrests Tuesday and turned over to university officials the names of students and faculty members taken into custody.

Discipline Planned

Syracuse vice president Kenneth Bartlett said Tuesday night that disciplinary measures would be taken against those arrested. He did not elaborate.

Previously, the university adopted a policy prescribing disciplinary probation for students arrested in racial demonstrations.

In his speech, Case recommended that the U.S. Attorney General be given explicit authority to intervene "not just in school desegregation and voting cases, but for the whole range of civil rights."

The Republican lawmaker spoke at Syracuse University's Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs. His proposal goes beyond that of President Kennedy.

Broadened federal, civil-rights jurisdiction is needed because in some states, Case said, "the law is used as a shield of unlawfulness."

Says Support Lacking

He said he had frequently recommended extension of the U. S. attorney general's powers, but had not received support from the Department of Justice.

In Rochester, Robert F. Marrison opposed the board of education's announced goal of "reducing significantly" racial imbalances in pupil enrollments at city public schools.

Morrison said the board should work to "eliminate imbalance."

The Morrison statement prompted Jacob Gitelman, school board president to comment:

"Our objective first and foremost is education. Reduction of non-white imbalance below the 50 per cent mark is our ultimate goal. But the board very definitely is not promising that this will be accomplished immediately. You cannot move children around as if they were inanimate objects."

Bonds, Stocks Favored To Utilize Excess Cash

Q) "I am 51, married, with an income of $25,000 per year after taxes. We own our home, have commercial real estate worth $75,000, and $125,000 in cash. How should I invest this?" E. K.

A) It is obvious that you are in a high income bracket — perhaps as high as 50 per cent.

I believe in your place that I would put a substantial part of my money into tax-exempt securities, a moderate amount into stocks for growth, leaving an adequate balance in savings.

For tax-exempts, I recommend Savannah, Georgia Public Housing Authority 3¼'s (when issued) due in 2003 and offered to yield 3.30. These are triple-A bonds. Also State of California (various rates) of 1989 on a 3.25 basis (when issued) rated double-A by Moody.

If you are in the bracket I have suggested, you can double these yields to arrive at a taxable equivalent.

For growth, I suggest Texaco, Corn Products, and Merck — which offer inflation protection.

Q) "I figure on retiring in March at the age of 62. I own General Motors, American Can, Niagara Mohawk Power, Consumers Power, and two land contracts that pay $130 monthly. I have $30,000 in building & loans and local banks. Should I invest my cash to improve my income on retirement?" R. B.

A) It is a little difficult for me to answer your question, since you have not told me the return you are now getting from your building & loans and local banks.

If this return is 4 per cent or less, you might invest no more than $20,000 in sound stocks which pay a better income and have some prospects for future gains. In this class I would include Atchion, Topeka & Santa Fe, yielding 4.9 per cent; Maytag, 4.5 per cent; Libby-Owens-Ford Glass 4.6 per cent and Air Reduction, 4.6 per cent. Your average yield on this group would be 4.6 per cent.

Fire Prevention Week

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Oct. 6-12 will be "Fire Prevention Week" in New York State by proclamation of Lt. Gov. Malcolm Wilson.

"Carelessness is the leading cause of fire loss," Wilson said Tuesday in issuing the proclamation as acting governor while Gov. Rockefeller is in Europe.

Still Lacks

in line with known U.S. and Vietnamese suggestions.

He may recommend an increase in fighter aircraft and helicopters.

McNamara may tell Kennedy that if U.S. aid was suddenly cut off, Vietnamese forces would have sufficient supplies to operate—after a fashion and with much less mobility—for 6 to 12 months.

No Evidence of Reforms

McNamara saw no evidence Diem had instituted any reforms—such as Kennedy has been suggesting—since the secretary visited Viet Nam 16 months ago.

He probably will report the political-religious crisis sparked by Buddhist suicides and demonstrations has not had an appreciable effect on the morale of government troops so far, but if the ruthless political tactics continue the situation could become dangerous.

McNamara probably will report the Viet Cong is being pushed backed in the central highlands and northern provinces.

Ex-Grid Great Dies

ST. PAUL (AP)—Herb Joesting, two-time All-America on University of Minnesota football teams in the mid-1920s, died Tuesday night of a heart ailment at 58.

Joesting became ill while he and his wife were driving home and died after stopping the car.

Joesting played fullback in 1925, 1926 and 1927.

He had been with the Minnesota Motor Vehicle Department since 1930 except for leaves of absence to play professional football.

Since 1952, Joesting had been supervisor of deputy registrars in the Motor Vehicle Department.

He was a native of Little Falls, Minn., but grew up in Owatonna, Minn.

Strike Is Called At Albany Hotel, Remains Open

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Members of a local of the Hotel and Restaurant Employes Union, AFL-CIO, went on strike today at the Schine Ten Eyck Hotel in a dispute over wages.

An employe at the hotel said pickets began forming in front of entrances of the hotel shortly after the 6 a.m. deadline set by union members.

Nick Campas, president of Local 471, said Tuesday night that union members had voted, 110-15, for the strike.

The hotel remained open. Supervisory personnel tried to fill in.

Campas said the "wage proposal made by the Schine people came to about $1 a week and there was about another cent an hour offered in fringes."

The union had sought a 15 per cent pay raise.

Meanwhile, Campas said settlement was "imminent" with another hotel, the DeWitt Clinton.

Contracts at the two hotels, the city's largest, ran out last Sept. 1.

The union says about 200 of its members are employed at the Ten-Eyck.

Under the old contract, waiters and waitresses were paid $32 a week; bartenders, $78, and cooks $76-105.

Two Hurt in Mishap

Two persons were injured in a one car accident on Union Center Road, Ulster Park, Tuesday afternoon. Both sought treatment from their family physician. David P. Duffy, 17, of Ulster Avenue, Ulster Park, operating a car owned by Ruth E. Nielson of the same address, reported his car was forced off the road shortly before 6 p. m. when another car came around a curve. His car went into the ditch and was damaged about the front end and side. Duffy received bruised ribs and a back injury. Also injured was Martha Strano, 16, of 203 Bayard Street, Port Ewen, a passenger, who received lacerations of the chin and right knee.

What does it do?

It doesn't rumble, hiss or light up. It just sits there, out of the way, and turns out all the hot water your family can use, year after year, more cheaply than ever before. It's silent, safe and a stranger to servicemen. Of course it's an ELECTRIC Water Heater. Rent one or buy one.

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK — CBS' full, live coverage of the Senate investigations subcommittee hearings provide without doubt the most gripping television on the networks for a long time. The other network summaries of highlights do not begin to capture the impact of the shocking story.

Joseph Valachi, ex-burglar, ex-narcotics dealer, confessed accomplice in cold-blooded murder and defector from a secret Sicilian organization, appears to have an almost embarrassed reluctance to use that new tag. "Cosa Nostra," for what used to be called the Mafia or the Black Hand Society.

He has,. however, an elephant's memory for names, dates and conversations and by the end of Tuesday's testimony had reached only the early 1930s. It was a level-voiced—and thus even more shocking—account of life inside a nation-wide crime syndicate run by feudal overlords.

It is hard to follow his testimony. Valachi's diction is muddy. His sentences are a mixture of gang slang and formal legal phrases. He often mispronounces words. Most difficult of all is his cast of characters. Most of them have two names, used interchangeably. It is hard to remember the other name of Nick the Thief, or of Dutch Augie and I never did find out the real name of Chick Ninety Nine.

Valachi, who looks like an elderly and respectable businessman, told his incredible tale in a matter-of-fact voice. Even the senators who had heard the story before looked flabbergasted. One interrupted a complicated story about a killing contract to ask Valachi if all this seemed to him "as natural as breathing." The witness calmly agreed it did.

Valachi's description of the initiation ceremonies of the organization sounded like kid stuff. It involved promising to "live by the gun and the knife and to die by the gun and the knife," taking, quite literally, a blood oath of secrecy and fealty. But the witness, who seemed to be enjoying the sensation he was creating, pointed out "This is my doom—this is the promise I'm breaking."

It was certainly exciting and frightening to watch but one wonders what good this public testimony will do. Valachi has been talking to the authorities for over a year. Not much seems to have happened.

CBS' new "Chronicle" series, which occasionally will take over the "CBS Reports" Wednesday night spot (7:30-8:30 EDT) bows in tonight. Initial program is called "The French, They Are So French," and will take a look at the race—through French eyes.

NBC's "Espionage" series, based on real-life stories and filmed in Europe, also makes its debut tonight (9-10) with a World War II story about the Norwegian underground.

'Mother Courage'

NEW YORK (AP) — "Mother Courage" is getting a second chance to find a New York audience.

The Bertolt Brecht drama failed to catch the popular fancy last spring on Broadway. Now two of the production aides in that venture, Arthur Waxman and Richard Chandler, are arranging to install the play at the Theater de Lys in Greenwich Village.

Casting remains to be completed. In the uptown version, Anne Bancroft enacted the title role.

Scout Pack 3 Meeting Holds Ritual of Akela

The advancement ritual of Akela was featured by Cub Scout Pack 3 at its first meeting of the season at St. Joseph's School last week.

The opening ceremony was conducted by Assistant Cubmaster Carl Thurin and Cubmaster Jack Spader with committee members and den mothers assisting. Cubs and parents formed a circle with parents holding lighted candles.

The advancement ritual of Akela was narrated by Carl Thurin, while Jack Spader played the part of Aleka.

The following awards were presented:

Bear, Richard Krayewski; gold arrow on Bear, Michael Eigo; silver arrow on Bear, Michael Eigo, Kevin Donlon; gold arrow on Wolf, Michael Eigo; denner, Bernard Howard; assistant denner, William Powers; Lion, Ted Spader.

The Cubs in Den 4 under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Stenson, explained the science experiment each one chose.

Plans are being made for the Herrick's Marionette Show to be held at the new St. Joseph's School auditorium on the evening of Oct. 20. Tickets will be sold by the Cubs. It was also announced that Cub Day roundup will be held at Dietz Stadium on Oct. 12th, from 12:30 to 4:30 p. m. Old and new members, friends and neighbors are all invited.

THE WHOLE STORY

In a little book containing only ones hundred and twelve words and entitled, "The Whole Story," James W. Elliott boiled down the gist of his complete series of Man Messages which were published regularly every week for many years. And here are the one hundred and twelve words:

"Men of Principle are the Principal Men

Work is Life and Good Work is Good Life

It isn't what you know, but how well you know how to use what you know that really counts.

For, Good Friend, the trouble in business is not the lack of men with ability—but the terrible lack of ability of men to USE their ability.

In life it is just as important to forget some things as it is to remember others.So don't forget to remember and always remember to forget.And Keep on Keeping on. For you are judged by the Record that you Make—Not by Your Ability to Make a Record."

ROSS CORBIT'S GOLDEN YEAR—Hiram Walker, Inc employed a unique and successful innovation to bring to its distributors news of the company's designation of 1964 as "Ross Corbit's Golden Year."

Ross Corbit, vice president and board member of Hiram Walker-Gooderham & Worts Limited, and one of the alcoholic beverage industry's most respected leaders, will retire at the end of Hiram Walker's fiscal year. This is almost one year to the day September 4, when Jack Musick, president of the company, called each of its 218 distributors in the United States congratulating them for making 1963 Hiram Walker's greatest year in sales with Canadian Club the leader in gains.

Musick also announced Corbit's retirement and praised his contribution to the stability and progress of the industry. Requests from all over the United States prompted his decision, he said.

Scout is Found In Dense Area, Missing 3 Days

WEBSTER, Mass. (AP) — Tenderfoot Scout Gary Nester, 11, missing for 72 hours in dense terrain, was found Tuesday lying exhausted at the base of a 20-foot ridge.

Pfc. John Donnelley of Millville, Mass., and Fort Devens, who entered the search in its final hours, said he first saw a footprint and heard moaning, then spied the boy sprawled on rocks in the middle of the rugged Douglas State Forest in Worcester County.

The youngster was described in good condition at nearby Webster District Hospital. He became lost Saturday.

Joseph D. Noonan, 49, headmaster at Worcester's Indian Lake Academy was in charge of the seven-man search team which found the boy.

Noonan said if Donnelley and another Fort Devens soldier, Pfc. Riley G. Breedlove, of Batavia, N.Y., hadn't joined the search almost by accident, Gary "would still be out there."

The boy survived a heavy rainfall of more than two inches and temperatures which dipped to 36 degrees this morning.

Two Are Acquitted In Death of Teener

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Alfred Frank, 16, and his 28-year-old sister, Mrs. Mamie Hicks, have been acquitted of first-degree manslaughter charges in the beating of a teen-ager last May 15.

A similar charge against the boy's twin sister, Alice, was dismissed last Thursday.

Frank and Mrs. Hicks claimed they were acting in self-defense in a fight with Carl Savage, 16, who later died.

Mrs. Hicks said the fight began when three of her six children were coming home from school and were attacked by teen-agers.

An Erie County Court jury cleared Frank and Mrs. Hicks Monday.

Johnson Is ChoiceOf Pa. GOP for Seat in Congress

OIL CITY, Pa. (AP) — State House majority leader Albert W. Johnson of Smethport is the Republican choice for the vacant congressional seat for the late Leon Gavin.

The 57-year-old legislator got the party's nod early today on the 34th ballot by conferees from eight northwestern Pennsylvania counties.

A switch by the Venango County delegation from its favorite son, State Sen. Richard G. Frame, swung the vote for Johnson.

The veteran legislator led on virtually every ballot from the start and polled 59 votes on the 34th ballot, 13 more than he needed.

Venango County's 17 votes started the tide for Johnson. Warren gave him 11, Clarion 10, Elk 7, McKean 13 and Forest 1. The entire 90 conferees then made it unanimous.

The break came after a 1½ hour caucus by state GOP chairman Craig Truax with county chairmen.

Johnson will run for the unexpired term of Gavin at a special election Nov. 5 against a still unnamed Democratic opponent. The Democrats will choose their nominee Thursday in Harrisburg.

Other candidates beside Frame who received votes during the GOP's six hour meeting here were Glen Thompson, Clearfield attorney, Charles P. Leach Sr., an insurance broker from New Bethlehem, Clarion County, and William J. McKnight of Brookville and district attorney for Jefferson County.

Classes in Churches

Must Check Race Conditions Around U.S. Military Bases

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department has ordered the armed services to take an exhaustive inventory of any racial discrimination in transportation, education, public accommodations, housing and other facets of life near military bases.

The Associated Press learned today that Assistant Secretary of Defense Norman Paul sent the order for an "off-base equal opportunity inventory" on Sept. 24. He set a Nov. 8 deadline for replies.

"The basic objective is to obtain necessary information for the formulation of future policy," the Pentagon said.

It declined to make public Paul's memorandum to the services on grounds it is an "official working paper."

However, the department did furnish a copy of a three-page inventory form to be filled out by each base command.

The form listed 17 separate major questions and topics Paul wants covered.

It was not said how base commanders would collect the material. Presumably, military personnel will be sent out to make on-the-spot checks in communities surrounding the bases.

This newest action in a series of Pentagon moves aimed at easing discrimination against Negro servicemen appeared likely to meet strong criticism from Southern members of Congress.

The questionnaire delves, among other things, into local customs and laws and local law enforcement questions.

Two of the instructions are phrased this way:

1. "Briefly describe any local customs or laws which prevent or are enforced in a manner which discourage voluntary off-base association by white and Negro military personnel and their dependents when traveling in private automobiles, using public sidewalks or visiting each other's residences."

2. "Is the treatment accorded Negro military personnel by the local police in any way different from that accorded white military personnel? If so, specify."

Under public transportation heading, Paul told base commanders to:

—"Describe kind of commercial transportation service to base, whether or where integrated, whether bus service in town is integrated, whether seating policy for military personnel and their dependents differs from that applicable to other riders, plus other facts necessary to a full understanding of actual practices."

In exploring education around bases, the Pentagon directive asks commanders to describe facilities used by military personnel, indicating which are integrated.

Housing is covered in only one question:

"Do white and Negro personnel have equal opportunity for adequate housing off base? If not, give a brief description of the existing conditions."

Commanders were asked to describe segregation practices, if any affecting military personnel and their families in use of such publicly owned or controlled properties as parks, libraries, golf courses and tennis courts.

IBM Promotes Shaver

NEW YORK — J. Daniel Shaver has been promoted to director of service of International Business Machines Corporation. Formerly assistant director of service, he succeeds John J. Kenney who has retired. After joining IBM as a customer engineer in Chicago in 1940, Shaver served in various sales positions in Hammond, Ind., Aurora, Ill., and Ohaha, Neb. In 1956 he was advanced to manager of IBM's activities with the Air Force in Washington, and the following year was promoted to district sales manager. He became national accounts manager in IBM's Eastern Region in 1958, product line manager for the Data Systems Division in 1960, and IBM Tele-Processing systems manager for the division in 1961.

Registration Set Oct. 5 and 12 in Town Districts

Town Clerk Catherine O'Leary wishes to inform the residents of the Town of Rosendale that registration days in the following election districts will be Saturday, Oct. 5 from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m., Saturday, Oct. 12 from 1 p. m. to 10 p. m.

First election district will be located at the town clerk's office, Main Street, Rosendale; second district at Maple Hill Town Community Building, the former Maple Hill School House; third district the Tillson Firehouse.

To vote at the Nov. 5 general election residents must be registered to be eligible to vote. A citizen must have been a resident of the state for a year, resident of the county for four months and a resident of the election district for 30 days prior to election.

The town clerk also announced that all new hunting, fishing, archery and big game licenses as well as party permit applications are now available at the town clerk's office. These licenses may be obtained at the office Monday through Friday from 9:30 a. m. to 4 p. m., on Saturdays during October, 9:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m., and other times at the clerk's home at Lawrenceville.

Town Board Meets

The regular monthly meeting of the Rosendale Town Board will be held Monday, Oct. 7 at the town clerk's office, Main Street, Rosendale at 7 p. m. The town board will work on the new budget from 7 to 8 p. m. with the regular meeting starting 8 p. m.

Communion Sunday

The regular monthly communion Sunday for the St. Peter's Rosary Altar Society will be Sunday Oct. 6 at the 9 a. m. Mass at St. Peter's Church, Rosendale. The regular monthly meeting will follow immediately after Mass in the school hall. New members may attend. Coffee and cake will be served by the hostesses Mrs. Rose Klepseis, Mrs. Frank Rehor and Mrs. Joseph Murat.

Enrollment of new member Rosarians will take place 3 p. m. Sunday at St. Peter's Church, Rosendale. There will be a short service followed by Benediction.

Food Sale Oct. 12

The annual food sale for the St. Peter's Rosary Altar Society will be held Saturday, Oct. 12 at the Rosendale Food Center, Route 32, Rosendale starting at 10 a. m. The food sale is for the benefit of the church altar linens. Anyone wishing to bake or donate may contact Mrs. Vincent Steeley or Mrs. Arthur O'Leary.

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

Years ago, in New York, when I was a student I saw Lynn Fontanne and Alfred Lunt, in a play called I think, "The Goose Hangs High." They were then a fabulous couple. They have been in one successful play after another. Somewhere I read recently how from the glittering stage they took up real country living. Just now I saw them on TV in "Athens, Where the Theatre Began." It deals with Western culture and freedom.

One of the important things which bothered the Greeks, then, some 2,500 years ago, and still bothers us was the question of "what belongs to the state and what belongs to the individual" "Civilization is still trying to decide this question today, and the courts are working overtime on it, and to nobody's satisfaction, so it seems, Mr. Lunt, said on TV, that those Greek plays, lasted about an hour and a half, and played just once, never repeated, yet they have lasted all these years. So, let no one laugh about yesterday.

Andrew Hickey, whose book, The Story of Kingston I often mention, told me, on my recent question in the column, how was North Front Street improved back in 1901, that perhaps something was done to the pavement. The heavy wagons of bluestone used to come through there, and the wheels used to ride on bluestone runways set in the middle of the road. The rest of the road, I understand was mud or dirt, and if a wheel broke on the heavy wagon or slipped in the mud, the wheel could sink to its hub. Perhaps at the time the North Front Street section was paved with shale brick.

One of my neighbors gave me the Sunday, New York Times, of Sept. 1 and the school section is certainly big business today. They are catching up little cities like ours, and big businessmen are getting bigger. For instance schoolroom furniture is now a 100 million dollar business. While taxpayers have been enjoying the summer, textbook publishers have been very busy with business booming from 10 to 20 per cent ahead of the preceding year's volume. In the 1950's, the major textbook publishers were described as a group of privately owned conservatively managed companies growing slowly, writes Elizabeth M. Fowler. Then she tells how they started to grow, as never before.

Remember years ago, a new pair of shoes and perhaps a new dress, a pencil, and we were all set for school. I remember, the tea paper came from school, so did the black pen holder and the pen nib, and also the brown pencil. We received one sheet of tea paper for arithmetic, not two. We had pen wipers of our own, and the ink was in the desk ink-well. In high school, we had to furnish some of our English Literature books, very dull ones as I remember. Sometimes one student sold to another student.

In the Times they tell what a "Back-to-School Sales" means to big business. At this present moment, anyone who can get into anything pertaining to schools will be able to eat. The taxpayers money is pouring in without end. According to the way I read it in old history books, all the taxpayer is supposed to pay for, is a common school education, the rest is frills. Like $10,000 or more for shrubbery for around one of the new schools, and no doubt a gardener would be needed to baby such shrubbery.

Ulster Sends Two To Library Parley

Mrs. Walter Burger and Mrs. Edmund Frawley of the Town of Ulster Library attended the workshop held recently at Woodstock Library. Conducted by Miss Martha Dykes of the Mid-Hudson Libraries, the Workshop was entitled "Selecting Children's Books", and was attended by 10 representatives of local libraries.

Keeping up-to-date with new books always coming on the market and which to include on shelves is the task facing all librarians as many books can give the young reader wrong ideas and impressions instead of doing the opposite, it was reported.

Mrs. Burger has announced that Hi-Fi records are now available to adult borrowers. There are over 60 records of classical, semi-classical and the scores from stage musicals that can be borrowed for one-week periods. Those persons interested should inquire at the desk.

The Town of Ulster Library, located at the Chambers School, is open Tuesday from 7 to 8:30 p. m., Wednesday and Friday from 3 to 4 p. m. and Saturday from 10 until noon. A storytime period is also featured on Saturday mornings beginning at 10, when stories are read to preschool and lower grade children.

Our Best Ads Are Not Written

Italy Traveling Rocky Road Politically and Economically

By ALLAN JACKS

ROME (AP)—Italy is traveling a rocky road, both politically and economically. A resurgent Communist party is waiting patiently on the sidelines to take advantage of the situation.

For the present the party and its experienced leaders seem content to watch deteriorating conditions and save their big guns—strikes and riots—for the future.

Call Semi-Austerity

With summer vacations over, the so-called stopgap government of Premier Giuseppe Leone has announced a semi-austerity program providing for cutbacks in government spending, reduction of imports, higher taxes on luxury items and other measures.

Said Leone in a recent speech: "We do not deny, or ignore that current problems are heavy and serious." He went on to exhort Italians not to lose faith in the government or the economy.

Italian politics was left in a turmoil by the 14-month, left-leaning government of Amintore Fanfani. The government was defeated last April in an election in which the Communists made an astonishing showing. The Reds polled 25 per cent of the vote.

Fanfani's Christian Democrats, who have governed Italy since World War II and once could count on half the voters, polled only 38 per cent. The rest of the ballots were split among six other parties.

Boom Falters

During the same 14 months Italy's economic boom began to falter. Prices have been spiraling upward for months.

Some Italians, and foreign observers, blame circumstances as much as Fanfani for these price rises and other problems. Full employment, for the first time in Italy's history, and general prosperity have had inflationary effects.

Whatever the cause, politicians have taken little notice until Leone's recent speech.

Instead they have been debating the merits and demerits of Fanfani's experimental "opening to the left," the ideological formula under which he ran the government with the support of the country's bright pink Socialist party.

The Leone government was formed as a post-election stopgap to handle routine business until various parties, particularly the Christian Democrats and Socialists could settle internal disputes and form some sort of working coalition.

Still Disputing

Five months after the elections, the internal disputes are no nearer solution and efforts to resolve them are exhausting politicians who should be attending to national rather than party problems.

The major exception is the Communist party. It stands solidly behind veteran Palmiro Togliatti, undivided by the Chinese-Soviet feud, and ready to make the most of the growing crisis.

Set Cattle Show At Rhinebeck Fair Grounds Saturday

The Eastern New York and USO Silver Anniversary sale will be held at Rhinebeck Saturday at the fair grounds with animals ready for inspection at 8 p. m. on Friday. The USO Holstein Club will hold open house at Beekman Arms, Rhinebeck Friday at 8 p. m.

Cows with production records up to 23,000 pounds of milk will be displayed.

The second annual USO Holstein Club calf sale will be held this year on Saturday, Oct. 26, at Bullville Livestock Market starting at 1 p. m. The main objective of a calf sale is to make available top quality registered calves to members of the 4-H and FFA organizations.

The sales committee is seeking calves which are from top cow families with emphasis on type, as most of these calves will be shown at the fair. Calves should be born since July 1 to be right for showing.

Members of the committee to contact are Wisner H. Buckbee, chairman, Warwick; Russ Buswell, Washingtonville; Mino Menendez, Walden or Wayne Kelder, Accord.

Meet Candidates Nights Slated by GOP of Rochester

Town of Rochester Republican Club is sponsoring a series of coffee hours at 8 p. m. during the second week of October to introduce the town Republican candidates running in the November 5 election.

Monday at Peterskill Rod and Gun Club, Alligerville.

Wednesday at Town of Rochester Building, Pataukunk.

Friday at Palentown Schoolhouse, Palentown.

All voters are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Wilson Unveils Plan

SCARBOROUGH, England (AP)—Harold Wilson today unveiled the Labor Party's master plan for making Britain great again by exploiting the world-wild revolution in science.

In a keynote speech to the annual conference of the opposition party, the Socialist leader outlined a program designed to be his main vote catcher in the 1964 national election.

Jail 8 Leftists

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Eight Communist and leftist congressmen were jailed and 15 others were sought by police today after drastic government orders canceling their parliamentary immunity.

President Romulo Betancourt's regime accused the congressmen of masterminding bombings, holdups and kidnapings by the terrorist Armed Forces for National Liberation (FALN). It said Venezuela would no longer tolerate the perversion of parliamentary immunity.

The government was provoked into action by a train ambush Sunday in which five national guardsmen were killed and eight persons, including women and children, were wounded.

Plumbing Inspector Advises Checks

Caution Is Given on Heating Faults as Winter Approaches

Plumbing Inspector Charles J. Kelly issued a warning today of the dangers of neglected or malfunctioning heating units.

With the heating season underway, he cited the recent near-tragedy in which five persons were overcome by fumes. He was referring to an incident on Sept. 22 in which five were overcome by fumes from a space heater at a Walker Valley camp near Pine Bush.

"Many persons will die because of improperly installed space heaters," Kelly said, "children will be killed in school explosions, because of improperly adjusted equipment. And many homes and businesses will burn or be destroyed because of improperly installed heating equipment."

Also, Kelly said, many will die by asphyxiation due to faulty installation of vents from heating equipment, fires will start from clothes put to dry over floor furnaces or open flames, or from electrical, gasoline and oil heaters which are installed too close to inflammable material.

Among other dangers the plumbing inspector said, were storing of heating oils in glass containers and defective wiring in heating systems. He urged the public to check the valves and safety devices in home and business systems and every other facet of the system.

Kelly said "there was only one sure way to know" whether such systems were reasonably safe: to have a qualified plumbing or heating contractor check them. He said the record books were "full of instances where people, in the desire to save a few dollars, have either tried to do a minor heating job themselves or turned it over to a handy-man, with disastrous results to all concerned." He said "It is the responsibility of all of us to keep our city and surrounding communities free from tragedies during the heating season." He said any one having any questions may call him at City Hall.

No Objections to Plant

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Corps of Engineers says it has no objections to Pennsylvania Electric Co.'s plan to build a power development project at the Kinzua, Pa. dam and reservoir.

The corps said in a letter to the Federal Power Commission Monday it thought the idea was all right as long as minimum water levels are maintained in the Kinzua reservoir.

Pennsylvania Electric has proposed building a private lake and filling it with water pumped from the Kinzua reservoir. Water from the private lake would be used to generate electricity.

The commission had sought the Corps of Engineers' view on the proposal.

Superstition

The tiny Alpine village of Saint Veran, France, still has the medieval superstition that the devil lurks in 90-degree corners and nowhere in the modest log-and-stone houses of the village can one find a true right angle.

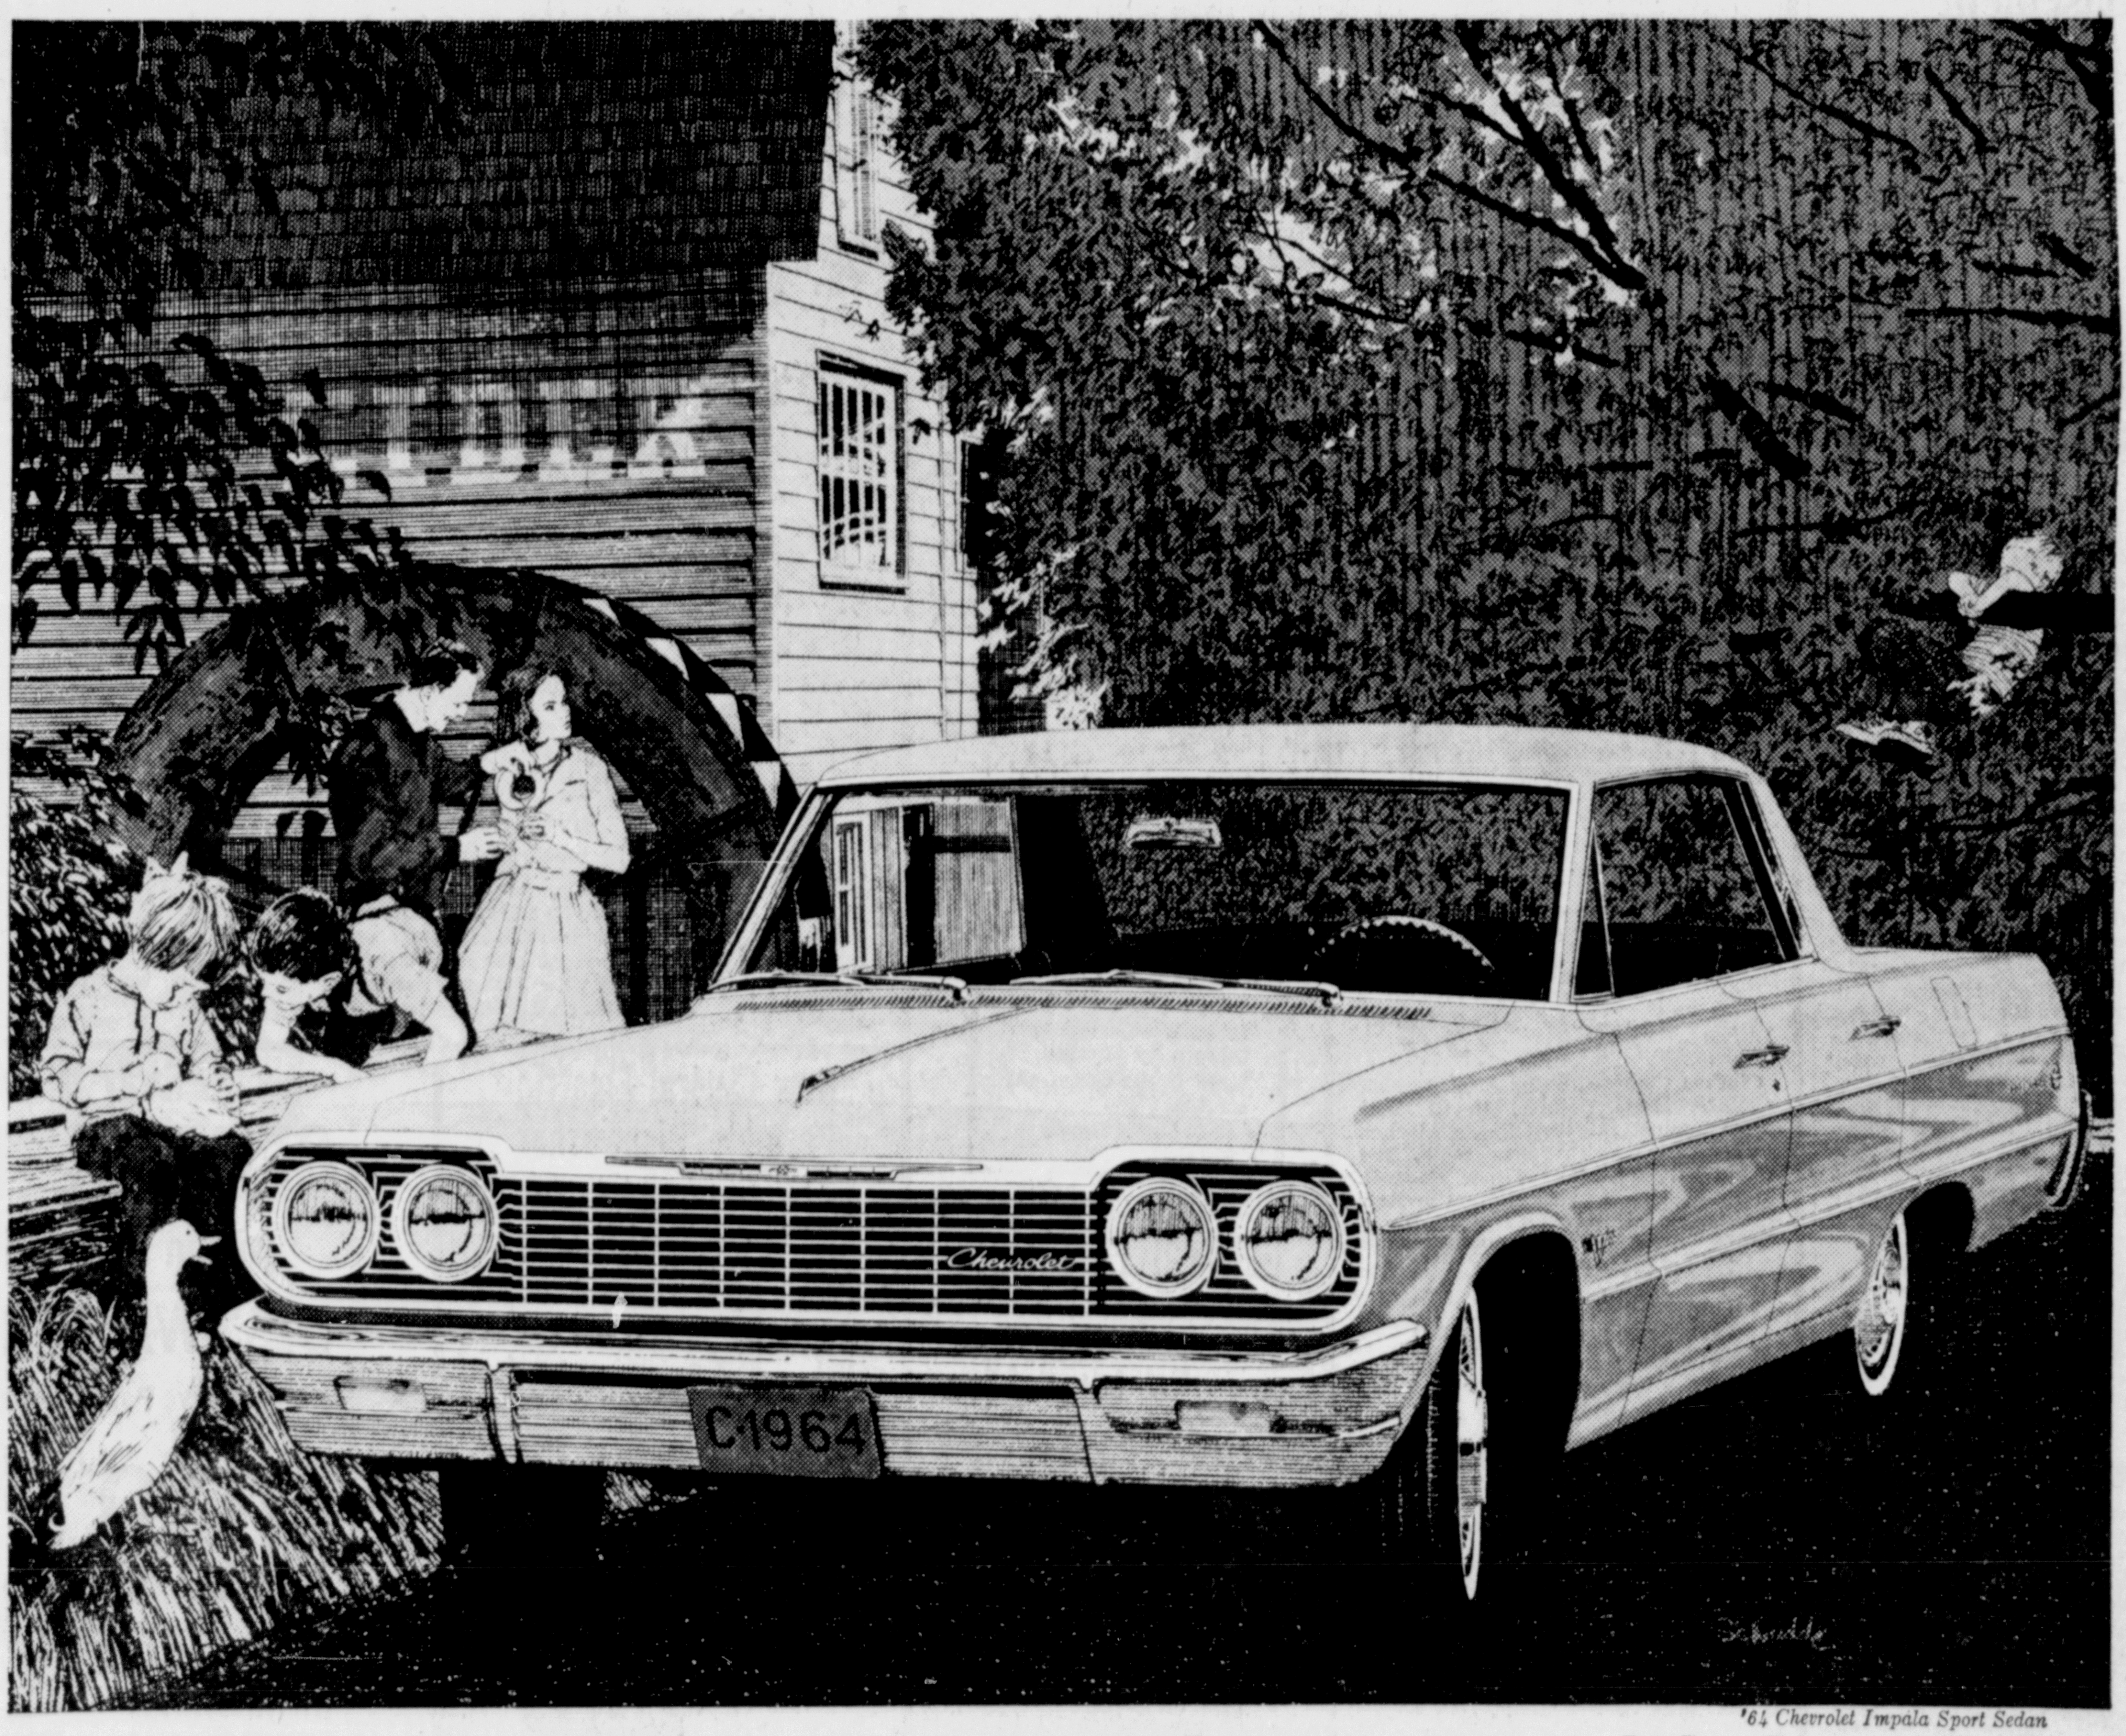
'64 Jet-smooth Luxury CHEVROLET



'64 Chevrolet Impala Sport Sedan

Besides looks, ride and power - what's so special about it?

(it's so reasonably priced)

Kind of leaves the high-priced cars some explaining to do, wouldn't you say?

Long and luxurious—with a clean fresh-christened look that almost makes you feel somebody should be breaking a champagne bottle over its prow.

Richer roomy interiors with subtle new blendings of colors and fabrics. Like the ultra-soft vinyl upholstery in the new Impala Super Sport Series. And the foam-cushioned front and rear seats and door-to-door carpeting, now standard in all models including the Biscaynes.

A choice of seven engines, no less, with output all the way up (say when!) to 425 hp.*

And a choice of four quiet, smooth transmissions—ranging from automatic* to 4-speed Synchro-Mesh*—to go with them.

And with it all, the opulent feel of that Jet-smooth ride—something some of the expensive makes would dearly love to claim for themselves.

Matter of fact, the most important and noticeable difference between this beautiful new 1964 Chevrolet and the high-priced cars is the price itself.

Let your Chevrolet dealer show you how much luxury that reasonable Chevrolet price now buys.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — LuLu's back in town, and what a difference!

She left last summer as LuLu Porter, a fairly obscure singer. Now she's an international celebrity.

Who's responsible? Contrary to printed reports and indignant congressmen, it wasn't Pierre Salinger, says LuLu.

The story was that the presidential press secretary caught LuLu's act at a Beverly Hills club and recommended her to represent the United States at the Polish International Song Festival.

This brought a blast from Rep. William Widnall, R-N.J., that the cultural exchange program had "fallen on evil days indeed" if the choice of artists was being made by "important administration officials who have no real experts in the arts."

LuLu had this to say:

"He (Salinger) came to see me perform and later said some nice things about my performance, also in the party was Pat McDermott (once Marilyn Monroe's press agent) who went to work for the U.S. Information Agency.

"I understand that later efforts had failed to get such names as Polly Bergen, Anna Maria Alberghetti, Sandra Church and Joan Baez to go to the festival. Pat McDermott suggested that we might send an unknown, and she mentioned me."

LuLu, who was working her way up to the better niteries, was ready and willing. With manager Jerry Fonarow, she took off for Warsaw.

Competing against the natives of 25 other countries, she was a sensation, winning the title of best singer at the festival.

LuLu, 22, has returned to appear on the Johnny Carson and Steve Allen television shows. She has her pick of recording contracts, television and supper club engagements. Not bad for a girl whose previous claim to fame was doing a belly dance in an upcoming film, "The Brass Bottle."

Curb Dampness In Basement

By MR. FIX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Damp basements can be caused by either condensation or seepage. Don't be too quick to think that water is leaking in from the outside when it may only be humid air condensing on the walls.

Cure for this situation is to eliminate as much of the moisture from the air as possible. Vent clothes dryer to the outside. Make certain that you are getting rid of steam from cooking and showers. Use a dehumidifier if necessary. Wrap pipes with insulating tape so that water will not condense and drip on the floor.

Outside Source

Water from the outside is a more complicated problem, but one that is getting easier to solve thanks to modern materials.

The fault may not be that of a poor foundation but of a poor drainage system around the house. While there is much you can do in the way of patching and covering to prevent water from entering, make certain that you are keeping water away from the house to begin with.

Gutters and downspouts should be in good condition so that water is properly drained away from the house. If there are low spots in the ground around your house, these can cause a build-up of ground water. Fill low spots with dirt. In extremely bad cases you may have to regrade your lot so that water runs away from the house.

Foundations are coated with a waterproofing compound, generally a tarry substance, on the outside to keep out water. This coating should come just above ground level or water will seep in.

Check Inside

With the exterior checked you can turn your attention to the inside of your basement. General seepage — but not flowing leaks—can be cured with any number of waterproofing compounds that are spread on like paint. Many are available in colors and can be used as finish coats.

Follow instructions exactly. Remove all dirt and loose mortar.

Cracks should be cleaned out and filled with a concrete patch material or a mixture of one part cement, two parts sand and enough water for a stiff mixture.

Cracks and openings through which water is actively flowing should be patched with hydraulic cement. This is mixed and used immediately since it dries quickly.

Instant Seal

Latest waterproofing material is an epoxy plastic material that can be used to seal small cracks by just painting over them.

As with all epoxies instructions should be followed carefully. The material is available in one pound lots, covering about 20 square feet. Since it sets so quickly it would not be wise to try to handle more at one time. The resin and reactor should be mixed thoroughly since setting is by chemical action and any variation in the mixture will affect it.

Once mixed you have a short time (generally 15 minutes) in which to brush it on. Surfaces must be clean and dry. Most basements leak at wall and floor joints. Brush it on along this joint and along cracks and porous surfaces. Spread the material on both sides of cracks so that they are well bridged. Another coat can be applied as soon as the first has hardened. More than one coat should be used where leaks are bad.

Gets Nine Months, Loses Rank

Po'keepsie Seaman May Remain in Coast Guard

NEW YORK (AP) — A court martial board has found a Poughkeepsie coast guardman guilty of causing the sinking of his ship and sentenced him to nine months at hard labor without pay.

Boatswain's Mate 3. c. Harry D. Lane, 21, also was reduced in rank to seaman recruit.

Lane told newsmen after Tuesday's sentencing that he thought the six-officer court treated him fairly and that there was "a pretty good possibility" he would remain in the coast guard.

The court found Lane guilty of "negligently" causing the sinking of the oceangoing tug Tamaroa by opening flood valves on its floating drydock. The Tamaroa capsized when the drydock went under at its Brooklyn moorage last March 14.

In effect, the verdict acquitted Lane of the original charge that he "wilfully" caused the mishap.

Lane testified that he absentmindedly turned two flood gate control wheels on the drydock as he passed them. He was returning from shore liberty when the incident occurred.

The prosecution maintained that Lane purposely caused the Tamaroa's sinking to avoid further service aboard her. He had applied the previous year for shore duty, but denied he still wanted the transfer at the time of the sinking.

A legal technicality threw out a charge that Lane negligently caused the sinking of the drydock, which is privately owned.

The Coast Guard said the 205-foot auxiliary fleet cutter has since been raised, temporarily repaired and berthed at St. George, Staten Island. The Coast Guard said the $1,140,000 Tamaroa had suffered $750,000 in damage and the $2 million drydock, $220,000 damage.

Two Months in Crate

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP)—A tough little gray cat from Canada astonished veterinarians here by surviving a two-months journey from Montreal sealed in a crate.

A docker in a warehouse noticed movement behind a knothole in the crate.

The crate was opened and the cat emerged, thin but little the worse except for a raging thirst.

Killed by Corn Machine

MORRISVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — Foster Irving Taynor, 65, of Morrisville, was killed when he was pulled into a corn-chopping machine he was attempting to clear, State Police reported Tuesday.

Troopers said the accident occurred Monday in a field near this Madison County community.

Javits Says JFK Ignores Contracts For Jobless Areas

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., said today the Kennedy administration has consistently ignored its avowed policy of channeling defense contracts into unemployment areas.

He said the value of defense contracts funneled into New York unemployment areas during the fiscal year which ended June 30 was 14.7 per cent below the previous year.

The Defense Department, he said, should either live up to administration policy "or abandon all pretense of helping to reduce pockets of persistent unemployment as it has said it wants to do."

Javits said defense contracts awarded in New York's unemployment areas dropped from $219.3 million during the year which ended June 30, 1962, to $186.9 million during the fiscal year which ended last June 30. Although there was a "heartening increase" — 19.6 per cent—in defense contracts awarded in the Buffalo area, he said, the drop in Utica-Rome was "devastating"—61.2 per cent.

Of the state's 15 smaller areas of substantial unemployment, Javits said, eight showed declines and seven showed gains. The only substantial gain, however, came in Plattsburgh where the value of contracts increased 87 per cent, he added.

In addition to Plattsburgh, areas which showed increased defense buying were Batavia, Elmira, Geneva - Canandaigua, Gloversville, Ogdensburg - Massena - Malone and Watertown.

Declines came in Amsterdam, Auburn, Glens Falls-Hudson Falls, Jamestown - Dunkirk, Newburgh - Middletown - Beacon, Olean - Salamanca, Oneonta and Wellsville.

The daily high temperature in Saigon, capital of South Viet Nam, averages from 87 to 95 degrees the year around.

We The Women

by Ruth Millett
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

It's strange that you never hear these comments made to, or about, men:

"Why hasn't a nice looking man like you ever married?" (Yet unmarried women hear that comment all the time.)

Well, that's a typical man driver for you!" (Women drivers have a better safety record than men, but men always call the poor woman driver a "typical woman driver.")

"With all your modern office equipment, ,you men sure have it easy." (Women are forever being told how easy they have it because they have a few elecrical gadgets in the home.)

"You know how a bunch of men gossip when they get together." (The truth is that men trade gossip just as women do, but when men gossip it's called "conversation.")

"You can't blame his wife for finding someone else. He just didn't make the effort to keep up with her." (Today, there are wives who outdistance their husbands socially, intellectually, and culturally, but who ever heard of a husband being blamed for not keeping in step with his wife?)

"He has certainly let himself go." (Men may show signs of aging, but it's usually blamed on overwork. It isn't just assumed that they've let themselves go.)

"That's a mans' logic for you." (Men can be just as illogical, but when a woman is illogical, it's called "a woman's logic." When a man is illogical, it's never referred to as "a man's logic.")

The show which will include an array of jewelry and handbags in addition to clothes for women and children, will be presented 8 p. m. Thursday at the Academy auditorium. Other models are Diane Bordenstein, Marguerite Flaherty, Marion Vertetis, Mary Ann Kennedy, Louise Flood, Lalie Priest, Sandra Kozlowski and Alice Danani. Child models will be Joseph Duffy, Michael Iaonne, Chris Bentley, Anne Marie Flanagan, Kathy Kuhnel and Mary Hastings. Tickets will be available at the door. (Freeman photo)

Ursula Reception for Mother General; Program to Include Narel and Nessel

It has been announced by Mrs. Andrew J. Murphy, chairman, that a tea for mothers of the newly matriculated students at the Academy of St. Ursula, will be held Wednesday, Oct. 9, from 2:30-4:30 in the school auditorium.

Arrangements for the tea have been completed and include a reception starting at 3 p. m. for the Reverend Mother General of the Sisters of St. Ursula, Mother Marie de Lourdes. Reverend Mother is visiting the American houses of the Society of St. Ursula of the Blessed Virgin, and this reception has been planned so that all of the mothers of the Parents' Association of the Academy will have an opportunity to meet her before she returns to France.

Mrs. Aleksander Narel of West Hurley, mezzo-soprano, will sing several selections for the occasion. Mrs. Narel, who is Society Editor of The Freeman, is also organist and choirmaster for St. John's parish in West Hurley and Woodstock. One of her selections will be "Ave Maria" an original composition by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph D. Ostermann, pastor of St. Peter's Church in Kingston.

Accompanying Mrs. Narel at the keyboard will be Mrs. Clementine (Vere) Nessel, well known accordionist and pianist of Woodstock. Mrs. Nessel, who had the distinction of performing at one of the inaugurations for the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, was featured with the Phil Spiltany Concert Orchestra.

Miss Elaine Studt, senior at the Academy, will ply the piano during the afternoon's festivities also.

Working with Mrs. Murphy and Mrs. Edgar Maurer, co-chairmen, are the Mmes. Joseph Scholar, Vincent DeLuca, Fred Weber, Bronislaw Hudela, Benjamin Ligotino and Edmund De Gasperis. Arrangements have been made with the St. Ursula seniors to provide baby-sitting service so that mothers of small children may bring them and enjoy the tea and reception. It will afford the mothers a fine opportunity to meet each other.

Mrs. James F. Maloney, president of the Parents' Association, extends a cordial invitation to all the mothers of St. Ursula students to attend the tea and reception.

Mrs. Maloney has announced that the first regular meeting of the Parents' Association will be held October 16 at 8:00 p. m. in the school auditorium. Teachers will be available for conferences with parents before and after the business meeting.

FIANCE'S PARENTS HAVE NOT CALLED

Q: Several weeks ago our daughter became engaged to a prominent man from out-of-state. They plan to be married in the spring of next year. I have not met his parents as yet. I suggested to my daughter that I write and invite them to our house so that we can get to know each other before the wedding. She has advised me not to do this and said it is up to them to make the first move. I know this is the conventional procedure but if they don't write, do I sit by and do nothing? It seems senseless to stand on ceremony but my daughter says we will be be-littling ourselves if we make the first move. Your opinion, please.

A: It is true that your daughter's fiance's parents should have called on you, or as they live out of the city, have written to you as soon as the engagement was announced. However, it may very well be that they are not aware of this convention and rather than permit this oversight to develop into an unpleasant situation, it would not be belittling, as your daughter seems to think, for you to take the initiative and invite them to your house.

BRINGING SOMEONE EXTRA TO DINNER

Q: Last Sunday my husband and I and our daughter were invited to dinner at my son and daughter-in-law's house. That day my husband's older brother arrived unexpectedly from out of town to spend a few days with us. As I couldn't very well leave him home alone I asked him to come along with us. I understand my daughter-in-law thought this was a terrible thing to do and that I had no right to bring him along. I would not dream of bringing a stranger to someone else's house for dinner, but considering that he is a relative and we were going to the house of a member of my family, I see nothing wrong in what I did. Will you please give me your opinion on this?

A: Even though you were going to the house of a member of your family, you should have called your daughter-in-law first to ask whether it was all right to bring Uncle John along. It could be very embarrassing and distressing to a hostess who has prepared just enough food for her guests, to have an extra one arrive unannounced at the last moment.

Dress to Be Informal

Q: Our company is planning to send out formal invitations to a large dinner they are giving in several months. However, they want to keep it informal as far as dress is concerned. How is this indicated on the invitations?

A: Include the words, "Informal Dress" in the lower right hand corner of the invitations opposite the R.s.v.p.

Pale Blue Wedding Invitations

Q: May wedding invitations be engraved on colored paper? I would like to have mine made up on pale blue paper. Would this be in good taste?

A: Pale blue, or any other color for that matter, is not in good taste for wedding invitations. The conventional color is white or cream.

Take It From Kathy

BY KATHY PETERSON
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Dear Kathy: Supose you were a high school freshman and your parents hadn't discussed whether or not you could date? Would you accept an invitation from a boy you wanted to go out with? What would you think about a movie, a drive-in or dinner?—G. N.

Dear G. N.: It reads as if you accepted, they vetoed, family fireworks followed and you're looking for someone who'll join your team—like me!

I thing all the details of dating should be thrashed out beforehand. The family should discuss it and decide when you'll be permitted to date and where you should be allowed to go. Most dating codes approve of occasional double dates for freshmen, when parents O.K. the plans.

Movie? I'd suggest double dating and give my approval if the boy was nice.

Drive-in? NO.

Dinner? Again, if the boy passes inspection, and preferably with friends joining the party.

MRS. GEORGE WOLDER

Daughter of Former Rifton Resident Wed To Marine Sergeant at Miami, Fla. Church

Miss Jeroldine Hildred Suominen of 2247 U.W., 95 Street, Miami, Fla., daughter of Jalmar V. Suominen of Miami, formerly of Rifton, and Sgt. George Lewis Wolder, US Marine Corps, son of Mrs. Betty Wolder of 128 Washington Avenue, Miami Beach, Fla., exchanged nuptial vows 7 p. m. Saturday, Sept. 21 at St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Miami, Fla.

The Rev. John R. Taylor, pastor officiated at the double ring ceremony. Organist was Charles Richards.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length white brocade sheath gown with detachable chapel train, long sleeves and high scooped neckline. Her fingertip veil was attached to a headpiece of pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of white carnations with removable white rose corsage.

Miss Charlotte Lund of Miami, Fla. was maid of honor with the Misses Judy Chaifetz of Miami Beach and Cheerie Cormican of Dania, Fla. as bridemaids. All were attired in pale aqua gowns with turquoise hats. They carried white carnations with aqua ribbons.

William Davidson of U.S. Air Force, Homestead, Fla., was best man. Ushers, both stationed with the U.S. Air Force at Homestead Base, were Paul Arceneaux, and John Kohler.

A reception for 100 guests was held at the church immediately following the ceremony.

After a wedding trip from Miami through Georgia, South Carolina and North Carolina, the couple will make their home at Camp LeJeune, N. C., where Sgt. Wolder is stationed with the U. S. Marine Corps. For traveling Mrs. Wolder chose an aqua knit suit.

The former Miss Suominen is a graduate of Coral Gables High School and Lindsey Hopkins Vocational School as a licensed practical nurse. She is a member of the Order of Eastern Star, former Rainbow Girl and past worthy matron. She was a junior hostess at the Miami Beach's Serviceman's Center for three and a half years and was hostess of the month twice She is also a past chairman of the junior executive board at the center. Mrs. Wolder is a member of the U. S. Naval Reserves (WAVES).

Sgt. Wolder is a graduate of Miami Beach Senior High School and attended the University of Maryland. He has served with the Marine Corps for 10 years.

Hyde Park Playhouse Will Re-Open Next Year; Combined Operation With Woodstock

By DOROTHY A. NAREL

M. Edgar Rosenblum, producer and owner of the Woodstock Playhouse, announced today he has taken a long term lease on the Hyde Park Playhouse, Hyde Park, N. Y., and that he will re-open the famous landmark for the 1964 summer season. Hyde Park and Woodstock Playhouses will be a combined operation.

Mr. Rosenblum feels that the Hyde Park theatre can be a successful one. Its past history has been an unhappy one despite the efforts of supporters in the Hyde Park Poughkeepsie area and a leading playwright. Hyde Park Playhouse did not open for the 1963 summer season. While its productions were of a very high caliber, evidently public support was not strong enough to keep the theatre open.

Mr. Rosenblum has a tough job ahead of him but he feels the double operation will enable him to attract top talent and that both theatres will benefit. The shows will have two full weeks of rehearsal rather than the present six days, Mr. Rosenblum has indicated. Plans are underway now for a full season of Broadway hits, comedies and musicals.

Such extensions of the Woodstock Playhouse as the Polari Gallery, School of the Theatre, School of Dance and other activities will be carried to the Hyde Park Playhouse grounds. A unique attraction will be a cafe espresso coffee house at the Hyde Park location.

A full season of concerts, lectures folk concerts and special attractions will be scheduled each Monday evening of July and August. This series will be in addition to special Saturday midnight folk concerts.

Housed on Estate

Hyde Park Playhouse is housed in a very picturesque location. Originally the stables of the vast Vanderbilt estate, it was transformed in 1954 and the result is very attractive.

Not only does the theatre have a very good stage, but acoustics in the Playhouse are excellent.

The stables were originally designed by architect Stanford White in the early 1900's for Mr. Vanderbilt's percherons (Belgian Work Horses) and his prize cattle.

We wish Edgar Rosenblum every success. His efforts to increase the area for good theatre deserves applause. Judging by the success he has achieved in Woodstock, we anticipate a successful season for Hyde Park next year.

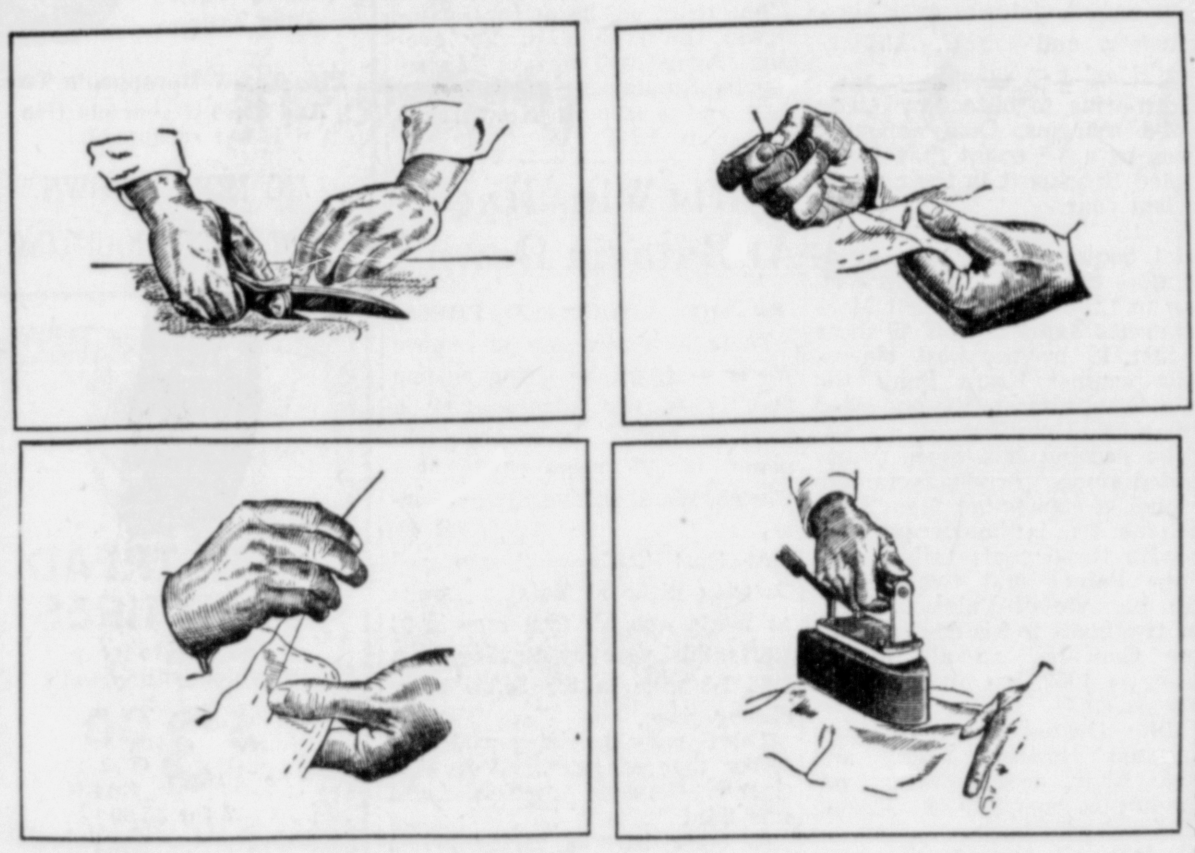
The most important ingredients



in the creation of Hickey-Freeman clothes

It seems rather strange to talk about the skill of the human hand in these days of high-speed production. But, no machine can match the skill and dexterity with which the sensitive fingers of Hickey-Freeman's craftsmen tailor their suits.

The soft pliancy of hand-drawn stitches that mould the garment to the contours of the body . . . the matchless comfort . . . the perfection of fit, all these are proof-positive that where fine tailoring is concerned, the hand is mightier than the machine!

Robinson-Herlitz Double Ring Wedding Rite Takes Place Sunday at St. Joseph's Church

The double ring nuptials of Miss Dian Marie Herlitz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinando Herlitz of RFD 3, Box 253, Kingston, and Robert Leo Robinson of Quarry Street, this city, took place 2 p. m. Sunday, Sept. 29 at St. Joseph's Church.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Anthony Gentile of Quarry Street and William Robinson of Ulster Park.

The Rev. William E. Williams, assistant pastor of St. Joseph's Church, officiated with Mrs. Frank Rafferty, organist, and Miss Eileen Reis, soloist, presenting traditional musical selections. The altar was decorated with white pompons and gladioli. Pews were marked with satin bows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white matte finish satin styled with long tapered sleeves, fitted bodice trimmed with lace appliques around the modified boat neckline. The full floor length skirt featured soft pleats and a back bustle. Her crown of pearls secured the full veil and she carried a cascade of white pompons.

Mrs. Vera Elliott of Kingston was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a pale apricot chiffon gown with sleeve stole, fitted T-strap bodice and bell skirt. Her matching rose headpiece held the chapel length veil and she carried a nosegay of golden yellow pompons.

William J. Robinson of Kingston was best man for his brother with another brother, Gerald F. Robinson of Kingston and Peter Coffey, this city, as ushers.

A reception of 80 guests was held at the Maverick Inn, Glenford following the ceremony.

For a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, Mrs. Robinson wore a brown and white print jersey sheath dress with beige coat and black accessories. Her corsage was of white pompons.

The bride is a graduate of Kingston High School and is employed as a secretary at Benedictine Hospital. Mr. Robinson also a KHS graduate, is employed at the Kingston-Rhinecliff Bridge.

The couple will make their home in Atwood.

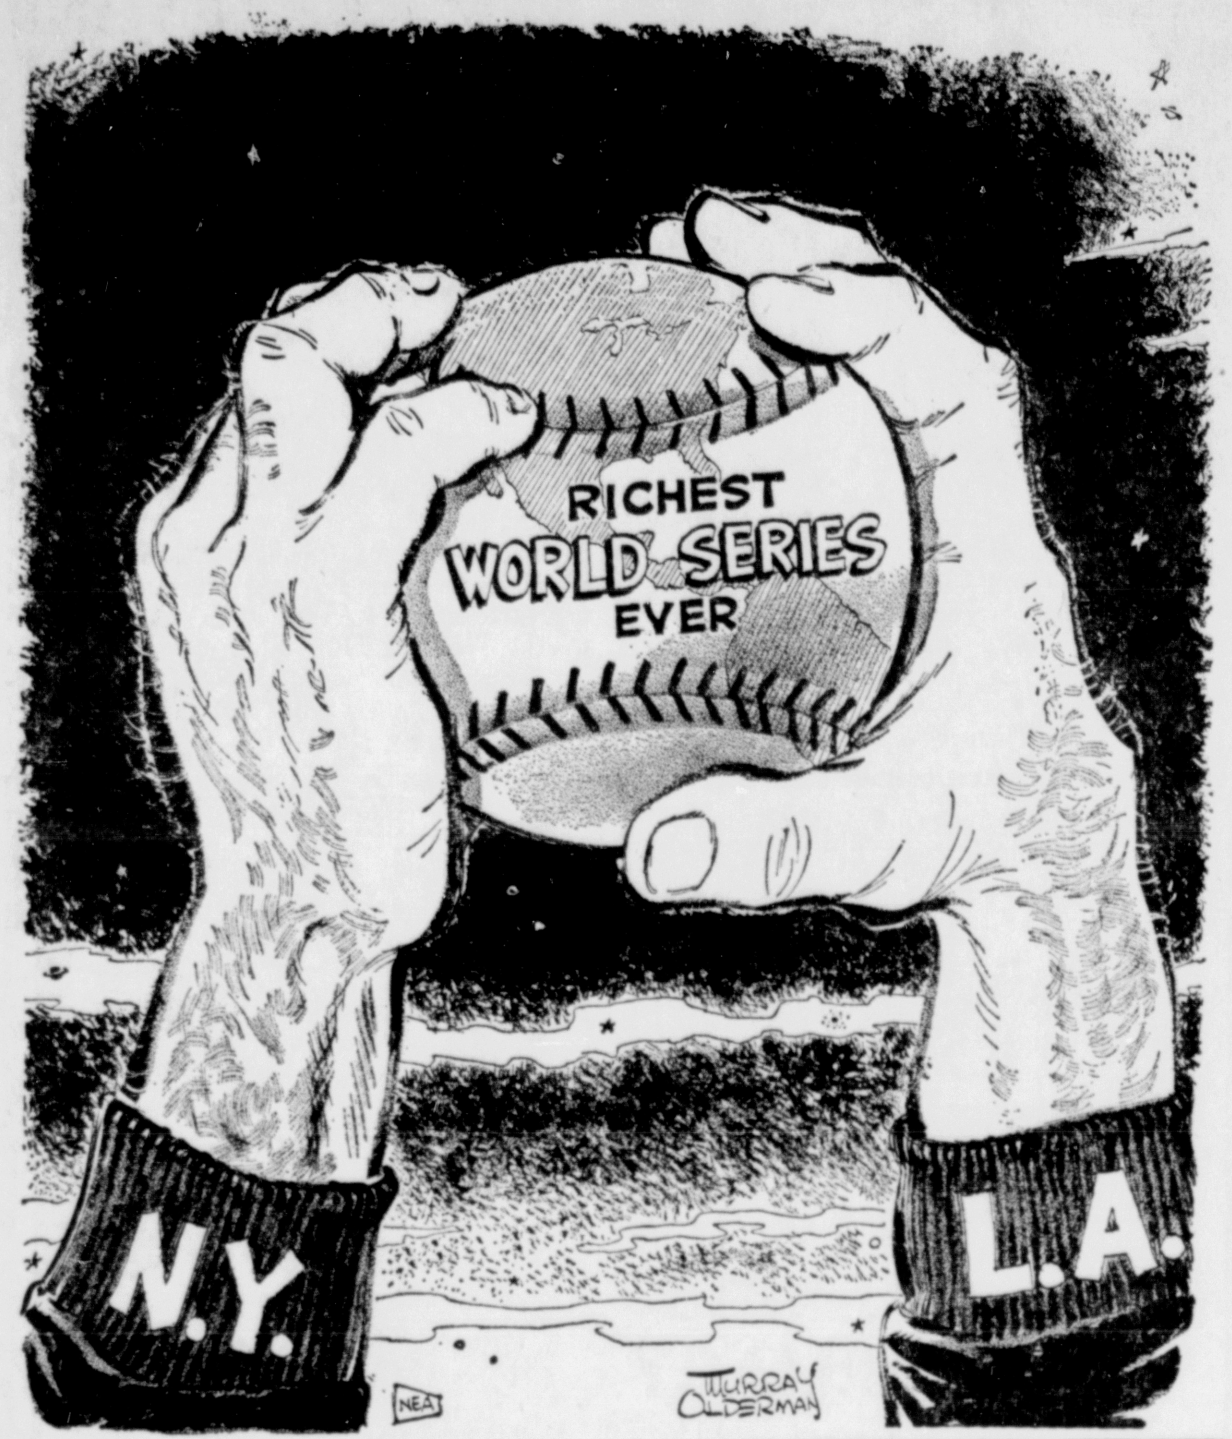
Koufax, Ford Ready to Hurl 1st Game

TO THE VICTOR (AND THE LOSER) . . .



Winning Team May Hold Edge Rest of Series

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Pounds of extra World Series pressure weighed heavily on the shoulders of opening game pitchers Whitey Ford of New York and Sandy Koufax of Los Angeles today because of unusual importance attached to the first game of the 1963 post-season classic.

Most experts agree pitching will be more of a dominating factor in this series than in any inter-league October clash since World War II. They point to the comparatively light team batting averages, .252 for the Yankees to .251 for the Dodgers, and the presence of only three .300 hitters—Tommy Davis, Maury Wills and Mickey Mantle—in the lineups.

A contributory factor is the determination of both managers to stick with three starting pitchers regardless of the length of the series. This means that should the series go seven games, as have all since 1955 except the 1959 and 1961 series, Ford and Koufax will probably face each other three times.

Thus the winner of the first Ford-Koufax duel — before some 70,000 at Yankee Stadium—would have a vast psychological as well as an actual edge.

Yankees Favored

The odds favored Ford at 6-5, with the Yankees a 7½-to-5 favorite to gain their seventh triumph in eight World Series meetings with the Dodgers. The perrennial American League champions have a 20-7 record in Series play, compared to 2-8 for the Dodgers.

Both clubs presented predominantly right - handed line-ups against the left-handed slants of Ford and Koufax.

The only southpaw swingers, aside from Ford, in the Yankee batting order, were shortstop Tony Kubek, first baseman Joe Pepitone and right fielder Roger Maris. Switch hitters Mickey Mantle, and Tommy Tresh naturally batted right-handed.

At a late hour Tuesday night, Manager Walter Alston of the Dodgers had just about decided to keep Ken McMullen, the injured rookie third baseman, on the bench, playing Dick Tracewski at second and switching Jim Gilliam to third. McMullen pulled a hamstring muscle in his right leg last week.

Move Davis Up

Alston promoted Willie Davis, the hottest hitting Dodger in September, from seventh to third spot in the batting order, behind Maury Wills and Gilliam with Tommy Davis, the National League's leading hitter, in the cleanup spot.

Bill Skowron, the ex-Yankee, was at first base, batting sixth behind the right-handed hitting Frank Howard. He was followed by Tracewski, John Roseboro and Koufax.

The Yankees had the same line-up that played all season when Mantle and Maris were in there. Mickey batted fourth behind Tresh and in front of Maris, Kubek and Bobby Richardson batted one, two with Elston Howard, Pepitone, Clete Boyer and Ford comprising the bottom half of the order.

Once A Met, Bob Miller Now in Series

NEW YORK (AP)—How lucky can you get? A year ago right-hander Bob Miller was a member of the lowly New York Mets and had a 1-12 record with a 4.88 ERA. Today the 24-year-old pitcher from Buena Park, Calif., is a valued hand of the National League champion Los Angeles Dodgers with a 10-8 record and an impressive 2.89 ERA.

"I said last year that this October I'd be in Yankee Stadium for the World Series," he said. "But I thought I'd be with the Yankees. I'm happy to be with the Dodgers, though."

A trade that came off happily for both parties was the deal that sent first baseman Moose Skowron from the Yankees to the Dodgers in exchange for right-hander Stan Williams.

After all these years with the Yankees, Moose had become accustomed to those fat World Series checks almost every fall.

The National and American Leagues each will play another 162 game schedule next season and opening day is Tuesday, April 14. That's all that was released after separate meetings by each league on the 1964 schedules.

Whitey Ford says he knows Sandy Koufax' weakness.

"He can't hit," said the Yankee ace. "It's a problem, though. I don't think I'll be doing much hitting against him either."

Ivy Teams Pace Statistics in 1st Football Week

NEW YORK (AP)—There's a distinct Ivy League tinge in the first set of team football statistics issued this season by the NCAA Service Bureau.

After just one game each, Pennsylvania is the national major college leader in total offense, rushing offense and scoring. Princeton leads in total defense and rushing defense and Cornell in punting.

Rutgers, a favorite playmate of the Ivies, is tops in forward pass defense and Columbia, Harvard, Dartmouth and Yale are among the leaders in various team statistical departments. The non-Ivy leader in forward passing offense is Southern Methodist.

Noting this somewhat unusual situation, the NCAA statisticians point out that teams somewhat better known in football, notably the three service academies—Navy, Air Force and Army, have compiled somewhat more impressive statistics for two games each.

Leaders among the major teams that have been out twice are Navy in total offense and forward passing, Navy and Air Force tied in scoring, Georgia Tech in total defense and rushing defense and The Citadel in pass defense.

Navy's strong offensive showing is due largely to the passing of quarterback Roger Staubach, the individual leader in total of offense and No. 2 in passing. The Midshipmen have gained 884 yards—486 by passing—for an average just 10 points below Penn's 452 yards for one game against Lafayette. Navy and Air Force have scored 79 points each in two games.

Brodie to Miss Six More Weeks

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The injured right arm of San Francisco 49ers quarterback John Brodie will be placed in a cast for six weeks, compounding the problems of the winless National Football League club.

The 49ers — who changed coaches Monday—would not say whether Brodie will be placed on the injured list, which would automatically idle him for at least four weeks.

He broke his right forearm—his passing arm — in a spring auto accident. The arm was sore much of the season and was re-injured Sunday when he was tackled while carrying the ball against Minnesota.

Podres Gets Starting Call for Second Game

NEW YORK (AP) — Johnny Podres has a history of pitching his best when they flash him the dollar sign.

So, although Podres gave the most atrocious performance of his career only four days ago, Dodger Manager Walter Alston is standing by his earlier decision to start the 31-year-old left-hander Thursday in the second game of the World Series.

In what was billed as a World Series tuneup, Podres was assigned to go five innings Saturday night against the Philadelphia Phillies. Had John been compelled to go the full five, the Phillies might still be batting in the bottom of the fourth.

Before he was mercifully excused with two out in the second, the Phils had scored eight runs on 12 hits — two homers, a triple, a double and eight singles.

"You can throw that game out," Podres said today. "I've already forgotten it. The only game I've got time to think about now is Thursday's.

"Every game I go out there and pitch to win. But if I'm going to pitch a game that really means something, I get keyed up a lot more. I seem to find a little extra, throw a little harder."

Podres beat the Yankees twice in the 1955 World Series, pitching a 2-0 shutout in the seventh game, aided by Sandy Amoros' great one handed catch. He hasn't pitched against them since the spring of 1957.

"They've got some new guys, like Pepitone and Tresh, that I've never seen before," John said. "But we've got a pretty good book on the Yankee hitters. At least it looks like a pretty good book. I just hope it works as good as it looks."

Army Gridders Have Big Test Saturday at Minnesota Field

WEST POINT—A handful of loyal Army football followers will journey halfway across the nation to see the Cadet gridders face their first "big test" this season, the University of Minnesota Saturday afternoon in Minneapolis. The rest will have to stick by their radios and listen to the action on New York's WOR.

Minnesota has been hit hard by graduation and injuries to key personnel, but still has plenty of material available to get the job done. In their opening game Saturday, the Gophers dropped a close 14-7 decision to Nebraska.

Fresh from shutout victories over Boston University and Cincinnati in its outings to date, the Army eleven has a sick list which has cut into the ranks of Coach Paul Dietzel's Black and Gold units.

Tackle Ed Schillo and wing-back John Johnson of the first eleven missed Saturday's Cincinnati game and remain doubtfuls for the Gopher game. Also wearing a white jersey with a big red cross on it, emblamatic of members of the non-playing squad, is tailback Tom Smith, the sophomore speedster on the Gold team. The Black teamers were hurt against Boston, while Smith twisted his knee on his first carry Saturday against Cincinnati.

Waldrop Shines

Coach Dietzel went to the golds for tackle John Carber and back John Seymour Saturday and boosted sophomore tackle Vince Casillo of West Hempstead, N. Y., and back Sam Bartholomew, another yearling from Kingsport, Tenn., to complete the Gold eleven. When Smith went out, the heavy chores were given to Ken Waldrop, a senior from Dallas, Texas, and the regular Black team tailback not only carried 25 times for 112 yards, but intercepted a pass, caught an aerial for 12 yards, and scored one of Army's two touchdowns. Dick Peterson, primarily a punting specialist, came in for some ball carrying with 30 yards in seven attempts.

An aerial effort was also unveiled by Army Saturday. Carl Stichweh threw 9 for 14 for 126 yards and Frank Cosentino hit 2 for 4 and 21 yards.

Guard Dick Dowak, a senior from Webster, Mass., has been named as game captain for the Minnesota contest.

Army will depart Stewart AFB Friday at 10:30 a. m., EDT via United Airlines. Will arrive in Minneapolis at 1 p. m. CST. The team will work out at Northrop Stadium at 2:15 p. m. and will arrive at Minnetonka Beach (Lafayette Club) at 4:30 p. m.

The team wil be at the Leamington Hotel on Saturday evening. Army will depart Minneappolis Sunday at 10:30 a. m. CST and arrive at Stewart at 4:30 p. m. EDT.

Cadet Booters Seeks 3rd Win

WEST POINT — Army's unbeaten soccer team will try to add Brockport State Teachers to its list of victims here Saturday afternoon. The Cadets have already scored victories over Massachusetts and the U. S. Merchant Marine Academy.

Both wins to date have come by 4-1 margins. Oddly enough, it was by a 4-1 count that Army toppled Brockport in their meeting last year.

As the results indicate, the Cadet booters have been spending more time in enemy territory than in their own. Against Massachusetts Army got off 49 shots to just 12 by the host eleven, while against Kings Point the scale was almost as one-sided with a 28-13 reading.

The scoring has been evenly divided among three players. Jim Kriebel, a sophomore from Philadelphia, Pa., is the current leader with three goals (all against Kings Point) and two assists. Dan Banovic of Valatie, N. Y., has two goals to his credit, while Jose Gonzales, an all-America choice in 1962, has one goal and two assists.

Mike Deems, a junior from Colorado Springs, Colo., and Hugo Elvir, a sophomore from Honduraus, complete the scoring with one goal each.

Defensively, three goalies have seen action and have teamed to hold the opposition to but two goals. Overall, the trio has saved a total of 19 shots, compared to the count of 48 booted at the enemy. Frank Kobes has put in more time than either Ken Eklund or Joe Musiol, both sidelined with injuries.

The junior varsity and plebe teams also have games on tap Saturday. The "B" team entertains Gordon College while the Plebes square off against the Brockport State Teachers freshmen. All games are scheduled for 2 p. m.

Change Football Game To Saturday Afternoon

PLEASANTVILLE, N.J. (AP)—The Board of Education voted Tuesday night to put off a football game between Pleasantville and Riverside High schools from Friday night to Saturday afternoon.

The vote came as a direct result of a night game last Friday between Pleasantville and Middle Township, which ended in fighting that spread to the streets.

Mets, Twins, Cards Next All-Star Hosts

NEW YORK (AP) — Hosts for the next three major league All-Star baseball games will be the New York Mets in 1964, the Minnesota Twins in 1965 and the St. Louis Cardinals in 1966.

The sites were picked Tuesday at a meeting of the Major League Executive Council.

Trap Shoot Slated Sunday at New Paltz

The annual Ulster County Trap Shoot, postponed last Sunday because of rain, will be held this Sunday, Oct. 6, at the New Paltz Rod and Gun Club.

Traps will open for practice at 9 a. m. and the shoot will begin at 10 a. m., rain or shine.

USC Star Named Lineman of Week

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—It was hotter than blazes in Memorial Coliseum at Los Angeles last Saturday where Oklahoma regained national prominence in college football by upsetting Southern California 17-12.

But the 105-degree temperature didn't faze Damon Bame, Southern Cal's All-America guard. The Trojans' first defeat in 13 games couldn't be traced to him. His outstanding performance earned him the nod today as the Lineman of the Week by The Associated Press.

Bame turned in a superb game, one of the best defensive games in USC records. He made five unassisted tackles, nine aided tackles and got assists on 12 others. Coach John McKay could have used some more Bames.

Jimmy Jones of Wisconsin and Lee Sampson of New Mexico State both ends, were high up in the voting by sports writers and broadcasters in the weekly AP poll.

Jones caught six passes for 100 yards and made the key play in Wisconsin's winning drive in the closing minutes against Notre Dame. He made a circus catch with one hand good for 16 yards and a first down on the ND 15. The Badgers went on to win 14-9.

Sampson was an offensive and defensive terror against Arizona State. He romped 80 yards for a touchdown on the old end-around play and gained 15 yards on the same play on another occasion.

Stress Offense

HAMILTON, N.Y. (AP)—Boston University's offense has come in for a good share of attention in Colgate University's preparations for Saturday's football game with the Terriers.

Coach Hal Lahar used his first two units on defense Tuesday against a variety of plays spotted in BU's previous games this season.

Warts Wins Race At Batavia Downs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

There is a new way to remove Warts — from the losing column that is — you simply enter a harness racing horse by that name in 22 races and, sure enough, Warts will turn into a winner.

At least that's what happened Tuesday night at Batavia Downs as Warts won his first race in 22 starts this year by turning in a 2:06 1-5 mile in the $4,150 early closing pace.

The 6-year-old gelding paid $27.40 for the nose victory over LeGuerre Hanover. Marian Laird was third.

In other harness racing action in New York State Tuesday night:

Phoebe Victoria ($10.90) beat Ardelle by a length in the $1,000 invitational trot at Saratoga Raceway. Luxmite was third. The winning time was 2:07.

At Roosevelt Raceway, Frolicsome ($9.50) paced a 2:03 1-5 mile to win the $3,600 feature. Busy Dares placed and Albert Gene finished third.

Shadydale Rhythm ($4.50) captured the $1,000 trot at Vernon Downs in 2:06. Kimberly Abbey was second and Prince Arthur, third.

Esopus Bridge Club Results

Mrs. Edith Ridgely and Mrs. Irving H. Wheatcroft, Kingston, posted a 59½ per cent game to win first place in the Esopus Valley Bridge Club regular fractional point game at Deanie's Restaurant.

There was a tie for second between the teams of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Peck of Woodland and Dr. Paul Perlman, Woodstock and Dr. John Comstock, Kingston, with games of 53½ per cent.

Fourth place went to Mrs. Vera Wilkins, Shokan and Gene Beirne, Woodstock, with a 52½ per cent game.

The regular fractional point game of the club will be held tonight, 8 o'clock, at Deanie's.

Grid Player Dies Week After Injury

COKATO, Minn. (AP)—A 16-year-old Cokato High School football player died Tuesday night without regaining consciousness after being injured in a game last Friday.

He was Jeffrey Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Peterson.

Ron Nelson, head football coach, said Jeffrey left the field after making a tackle, then fell down. He was taken to a hospital. A doctor said the youth suffered a cerebral hemorrhage.

World Series Rules Are All Ironed Out

NEW YORK (AP)—Commissioner Ford Frick met with managers Walter Alston of the Los Angeles Dodgers and Ralph Houk of the New York Yankees and the two league presidents Tuesday to iron out differences in rules for the World Series.

Rule Waived

The American League rule that requires a manager to remove a pitcher automatically after his second trip to the mound was waived. It was agreed that a pitcher must be in the on-deck circle if he is the next hitter and that a catcher must go into the on-deck circle without his catching equipment.

It was agreed that a pitcher can have eight warmups before an inning. The two leagues also agreed that the umpires can turn on the lights at any time, if needed, although attempts will be made to turn them on at the start of an inning.

Alston and Houk were advised that they were responsible for the conduct of their players.

OK on Umps

The two leagues agreed that any of the four umpires not the foul line men can call a balk. In the American League it is customary for only the plate umpire to call a balk. Frick emphasized that the balk rule, as altered in midseason by the rules committee, called for a stop but no longer spelled out any one-second limit, in a pitcher's motion while working with men on base.

Rondout Gun Club Has Hunter Safety Course

The second Hunter Safety Course of a series of three will be given this fall at the Rondout Valley Rod and Gun Club on Friday, at 7:00 p. m. and Saturday, 1:30 p. m.

All new hunters fourteen years of age or older who have never had a previous hunting license or cannot show proof of having had one, must take this instruction of handling firearms to procure a hunting license. These classes are sponsored by the Rondout Valley Rod and Gun Club and held at the clubhouse at Samsonville Road at Mombaccus.

Further details can be secured by calling Al Mastin, or George Schwab.

Several Changes

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—A Buffalo Bills spokesman said the American Football League club has released four players and activated four more.

Released Tuesday were Fred Brown and Hezekiah Braxton, offensive halfbacks; Charley Leo, offensive guard; and Gerry Delucca, offensive tackle.

Defense safety Billy Atkins; offensive halfback Wray Carlton, offensive tackle George Flint and linebacker Herb Paterra were put on the active list.

Ready to Play

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Syracuse University's regular quarterback, Walley Mahle, apparently has shaken off a wrist injury suffered in last Saturday's football game with Kansas University.

Mahle worked out with the first team Tuesday as the Orange continued drills for Saturday's game with Holy Cross.

Mahle's left wrist was injured in the fourth quarter of the Kansas game, won by the mid-westerners, 10-0.

Hemsley Released

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) —Rollie Hemsley, who managed the Indianapolis Indians to the regular season and playoff championships of the International League, was released by the Indians Tuesday.

No explanation for the dismissal was given. Hemsley, 56, was a major league catcher for 20 years and has been a manager or coach since 1949.

Operation for Mickey Mantle After Series

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—It's "fairly definite" that Mickey Mantle, the New York Yankees' $100,000-a-year outfielder who has undergone operations ranging from his toes to his tonsils, will be forced into still another right after the World Series.

Official confirmation of the need for an operation on Mantle—for removal of loose cartilage in his left leg—came from Dr. Sidney Gaynor, only hours before the 31-year-old slugger was scheduled to lead the Yankees onto the field for the Series' opener against the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Dr. Gaynor said that if Mantle underwent surgery immediately after the Series, he would have three months in which to recuperate before spring training and "we would expect him to be back in top physical condition by then."

Mantle, who has undergone a series of operations during an injury-plagued 13-year major league career, discussed the damaged leg in the Yankee dressing room before taking his final workout.

"If it doesn't get any better, it'll have to be operated on," admitted Mantle. "It's been getting stronger day by day, but as it stands now, we think it's going to be operated on."

White Plains Seeking 4th Straight Over KHS

BY ED PALLADINO
Freeman Sports Staff

Holding a winning string of three straight over Kingston High football teams, the Tigers of White Plains move into Dietz Stadium Friday night for a meeting with Coach Bill Hurley's undefeated eleven. Game time is 7:30 p. m.

The visitors from Westchester County, a yearly threat to win honors in that league, have played three games against Kingston and have won by scores of 26-7, 33-14 and 33-13.

Last week, the Westchester team outlasted Mont Pleasant, 27-26, showing another good offensive in the process.

White Plains has four returning linemen and a pair of backfield aces from last year's team, which finished with a disappointing 2-5 mark.

This season, the downstaters have been picked as the team to beat in the Westchester County league. They began with a 13-0 loss to Port Chester but then rebounded for their tight victory last week.

Power and Speed

Mike Belmont, a bruising, 190-pound fullback, is the offensive star for the Tigers. He scampered for a pair of TDs against Pleasant, moving for 37 yards on a cross buck and diving in from the one. Otis Hill, a sprint star on the track team, gives the visitors their speed. He buzzed 67 yards to a touchdown, the one which won the game.

Quarterback Tom McWhinnie, a pinpoint passer, has 6-4 Bruce Weinstein and 6-3 Bill Drummond to throw to. Both ends are fast and are two of the best defensive players on the club. Weinstein tips the scales at the 230-pound mark.

Coach Dean Loucks, who played his collegiate football at Yale, said that his club is in top condition except for three-year guard Chuck Arraste. He was injurde against Port Chester and was on crutches earlier this week.

Good on Defense

Kingston, with a pair of victories under its wing, will be in good shape for the Tiger invasion. Coach Hurley has been impressed with the tough defense his club has displayed in its previous outings.

Albany, a big club, made a lot of yardage along the turf but it was always near the midfield stripe. When the going got tough and the home side needed a first down, the KHS linemen dug in and stopped their opponents.

Quarterback Paul Gruner has been near perfect in his handling of the team. He's been a triple threat with his passing, kicking, and good defensive work. Fullback Tom Auringer has been hampered by a bad leg but he's been the workhorse to date.

This will mark the final non-league game for the locals for a couple of weeks. Next Saturday they open their DUSO campaign at Poughkeepsie and play at Port Jervis on Friday night, Oct. 18.

Rog Staubach Top Offensive Leader in Collegiate Ranks

NEW YORK (AP) — Penn State's Pete Liske has a slight edge over Navy's Roger Staubach among the nation's major college passers, but the sharpshooting Middie quarterback is the total offense leader after two games, the NCAA Service Bureau reported Tuesday.

The rushing department is topped by a familiar name, Pete Pedro of West Texas State, in the first NCAA rankings of the young football season.

The early figures are far from conclusive, as Liske leads the passser with 30 completions in 39 attempts for 288 yards, while Staubach boasts 37 yards on 29 completions in the same number of attemps. Liske has connected for three touchdowns, Staubach for one. In 1955 Navy's George Welsh won the passing title, last eastern to head the list.

Pedro, early rushing leader for the last two seasons before he was sidelined by injuries, has carried for 319 yards in 39 plays. Bobby Smith of North Texas State is second with 217 yards on 21 rushes, and the two will compare notes Friday night at Canyon, Tex., when West Texas meets North Texas.

Staubach's combined aerial and rushing yardage was good for 482 yards in 67 plays, with Tom Myers of Northwestern next on 422 yards in 46 plays.

Marshall's Jim Cure tops the pass receivers with 11 receptions for 124 yards, and Bob Lacey of North Carolina has 113 yards on 11 catches. Jim Whalen of Boston College ranks third with 204 yards on 10 receptions, and one touchdown.

LINDA CRUM had 140-145-175-460 in the Sawyer Women's league. Martha Seyher hit 453, Helen Lange 451 and June Swart 457. Results: Hamm Buick 3, Lowe's E-Z Do Pools 0; Katsbaan Inn 2, Joseph's Beauty Salon 1; Thorntonettes 2, Sauer's Sizzlers 1; Wynne Pontiac 2, Byrne Chevrolet 1.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. — Jose Moreno, 127, Monterrey, Mexico, outpointed Blackie Zamora, 127, Corpus Christi, 10.

Alabama, Texas, Navy Picked In Top Collegiate Contests

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The trouble in making the weekly college football selections is that not enough of the teams believe what they read. There were 14 such non-conformists last week but 40 others saw the light for a .741 average.

This week's picks:

Alabama over Vanderbilt: Joe Namath, Mike Fracchia & Co., should win this one while concentrating on the outcome of the World Series game.

Texas over Oklahoma State: The Longhorns want this one.

Northwestern over Illinois: Illinois is on the up-grade but so is Tom Myers, the Northwestern quarterback who already is regarded by many as the best in the land.

Navy over Michigan: Another game in which the quarterback may be the decisive factor. In this contest the person is Roger Staubach, the scrambling director of the Navy offense.

George Tech over Louisiana State: This could easily go the other way, especially because it is being played in the Tigers' lair.

Southern California over Michigan State: They moved this game from Saturday afternoon to Friday night so that there would be no conflict with the World Series game. The irate Trojans will move the Big Tenners just as easily.

Pittsburgh over California: Fred Mazurek is the answer to Chancellor Litchfield's suggestion to Coach Michelosen that the Panthers should play a more daring and entertaining type of football.

Mississippi over Houston: Without too much trouble.

Duke over Maryland: The game highlights the Tobacco Festival and the nation's television screens.

Penn State over Rice: Penn State has almost as much power and a lot more finesse than a year ago when it was the East's best.

Nebraska over Iowa State: The Cornhuskers veteran lineup includes Dennis Claridge, a quarterback who can do everything even to playing defense.

Ohio State over Indiana: The Buckeye line is too potent.

Arkansas over Texas Christian: The point is that Arkansas lost by a point last weekend and will be out for revenge.

Missouri over Idaho: Almost a waltz.

Whitetail Bowmen To Start Course

With the final approval of the Mohonk property at the end of Canaan Road, the Whitetail Bowmen plan to start work on their field course immediately.

Their second main objective is to strengthen their membership list. Anyone interested in joining the Whitetail Bowmen should contact one of the following: Joe Smith, Doug Snyder, Don Smedley, George Buchell or any other member of the club or attend any club meeting held at the VFW Monday evening at 8:30.

A working party is planned for this Sunday for laying out the course. Anyone interested in lending a helping hand please be at the course location at 1 p. m. Sunday.

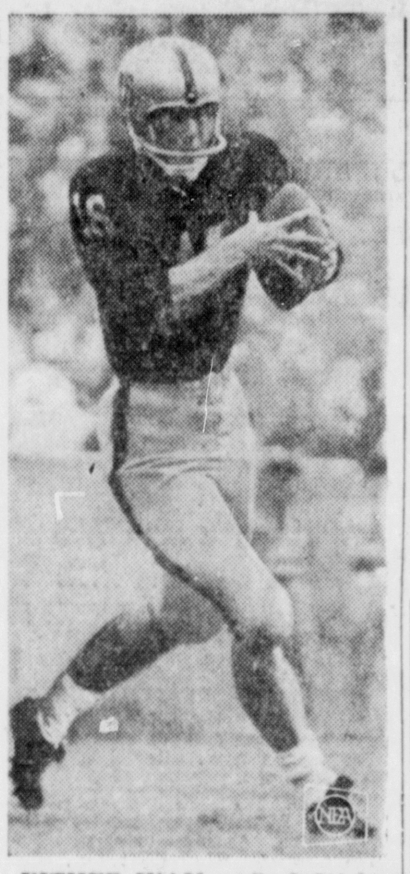
Next week Joe Donahue from Mohonk will be guest speaker at the meeting which will be held Oct. 7, 8:30 p. m. at the VFW on Rt. 208, New Paltz.

Rosendale Sportsmen To Meet on Friday

The Rosendale Sportsmen's Assn., Inc. will hold its next meeting on Friday, Oct. 4th at the club house in Tillson. This will be an annual meeting and the election of officers for the coming year will be the important point of the evening.

A film "Ireland, Isle of Sport," will be shown. This film covers fishing, boating, horse and dog racing, rugby, soccer, hurling, golf and the International horse show.

Refreshments will be served and all members are urged to attend.



EITHER WAY — Carl Stichweh, Army's new quarterback, against Boston University at Michie Stadium shows that he can carry the football as well as throw it.

Cards Regain Pair of Starters

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Two of the five St. Louis Cardinal starters who missed last Sunday's National Football League game at Pittsburgh may return to the lineup this Sunday against Minnesota.

Coach Wally Lemm said Tuesday that tackle Irv Goode is recovering from a sprained arch and end Taz Anderson from a knee bruise.

However, the Cardinals may lose another tackle, Luke Owens, for the contest because of a knee injury. Lemm said Fate Echols would replace Owens.

NOTICE TO JOB APPLICANTS

The Kingston Daily Freeman does not knowingly accept Help-Wanted advertisements from employers covered by the Federal Wage-Hour Law if they offer less than legal minimum wages. Most employes engaged in interstate or foreign commerce or in the production of goods for such commerce must be paid not less than $1.25 an hour and at least one and one-half times their regular rate of pay for hours worked after a maximum workweek of 40 hours, unless specifically exempt. Also, most employes in certain large retail, service, construction and other enterprises engaged in or producing goods for commerce, who have been entitled to a minimum wage of at least $1.00 an hour since September 3, 1961, must be paid overtime pay of not less than one and one-half times their regular rates for all hours worked after a maximum workweek of 44 hours, unless specifically exempt. If you are offered less by covered employers, or if you have questions concerning the Fair Labor Standards Act or other activities of the U. S. Department of Labor, call or write the Department's local office at 881 Gerard Ave., Bronx, N. Y. 10452 WYandotte 2-1235.

IN ULSTER COUNTY

Young widow, since 1947 executive secretary to the President of large New York City export-import corporation with offices throughout the world, has relinquished New York position in order to relocate in beautiful Ulster County. Has already purchased home and lives in Town of Olive.

Studied business administration at Northwestern University; expert stenographer, trained in office management and to relieve the boss of details; accustomed to responsibility, with years of experience in a position requiring tact, imagination, mature judgment, initiative, executive ability and dedication to job.

Has enough confidence in her ability to let her work be judged on its merits. Realtistic enough not to expect her New York City salary to be matched in Ulster County. Well-known to a few prominent Ulster County residents. Highest references available.

Flora Seen Threat To Hispaniola

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad (AP)—Hurricane Flora, showing signs of increased intensity and size, churned over central Caribbean shipping lanes north of Venezuela today and threatened southernmost sections of Hispaniola with gale winds.

The U.S. Weather Bureau at San Juan, Puerto Rico, said the dangerous storm would pass about 120 miles south of the Peninsula of Barahona, a section of the Dominican Republic jutting to the south, early tonight.

By Thursday morning, the hurricane will be less than 100 miles south of the Haitian peninsula of Presque Isle de Sudoueste, the bureau said. The Dominican Republic and Haiti share the island of Hispaniola.

Persons in these areas were warned to prepare for heavy rains and winds up to 55 miles an hour. Gale warnings were hoisted.

Fair and Mild Through 7th Area Outlook

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Extended forecasts for New York State, prepared by the U.S. Weather Bureau for the period from 7 p.m. today to 7 p.m. Monday:

Eastern New York — Generally fair and mild fall weather most of the period with no major changes indicated. Very little if any rainfall is indicated. Showers may develop near the end of the period, however.

Western New York — Temperatures will average near normal. Above normal temperatures at the beginning, but a gradual cooling trend with below normal temperatures by early next week. Precipitation will average one-quarter to one-half inch as scattered showers about Sunday and Monday.

Temperature normals—Daytime highs, 63-72; nighttime lows, 40-

Fire Prevention, Control Planned For 4-H Thursday

A 4H Project Fire Prevention and control will be presented to 4H Local Leaders Thursday at the New Paltz American Legion Hall beginning at 7:45 p. m.

Presenting the instruction will be Dr. Edward Eaton, 4H Agricultural Specialist from Cornell University. Dr. Eaton will explain the project to the 4H Local Leaders in Ulster County who are planning to teach this project at their local clubs. Ulster County Fire Coordinator, Winfred Snyder of Hurley will also be present and will give a short report on the organization of the County Fire Departments.

The Fire Prevention and Control project involves the following training: Learning how a fire burns, classes of fires, fire extinguishers, fire department organization, identification of fire hazards, fire insurance and fire emergency planning. Fire surveys or list of fire hazards by 4H members of houses, farms and dwellings is another part of the project. Firemen who have volunteered to help teach the project are invited to attend as well as 4H Local Leaders.

Chanber Accepts Resignation of William E. West

William E. West resigned as president of the Woodstock Township Chamber of Commerce at its September meeting. West resigned in order that he might run as Democratic candidate for superintendent of highways he told the chamber.

The chamber accepted the resignation with regret and elevated vice president Alavin E. Moscowitz to the presidency.

The subject of the Woodstock Information Center again occupied the attention of the chamber at great length.

Among the more recent developments are these:

The chamber rejected an offer by Warren Hutty, of the defunct Woodstock Businessmen's Association, to sell the building for $1300. In July, the chamber had offered $1,000 to Hutty but received no reply from him until Sept. 13, just prior to the meeting that the price of the building was $1,300 and the offer was good for two weeks.

Chamber members felt the asking price was excessive and there was strong doubt that a clear title to the building could be obtained since one of the 14 co-owners of the building Harry Alpern, wished his share given to the chamber so long as the building is maintained as an information center. Hutty's offer was also questioned as it was on official stationery of an organization that no longer exists.

Organization Doubted

There was also some doubt cast as to whether the original 14 note holders on the building had acted as individuals or an organization. F. Alan Simmons, a member of the chamber and a former member of the Woodstock Businessmen's Association, stated that the notes the bank held on the Information Center building were purchased by 14 members of the former Woodstock group as private individuals and not as members of an organization. Simmons emphatically stated that he could corroborate this information with correspondence he had in his possession.

A recent notice of public auction of the building which appeared in the Kingston Daily Freeman also figured in the lengthy discussion. It appears that when news of the proposed auction reached Edgar Rosenblum, owner of the land on which the structure still stands, he told Hutty and Mordy Berkowitz, who, he said, were prime movers in the act of settling the proprietorship to the building, that he would have preferred some prior notice and still does. Hutty and Berkowitz informed Rosenblum, he said, that they would move the building to a site owned by Hutty there to await the spring when it could be auctioned off.

Mrs. Paul Dessez of the Town House, whose property is immediately adjacent to the Information Center offered the use of her road for the proposed new center.

The committee named by president Moscowitz will be headed by Rosenblum and will include Abram F. Molyneaux, West, Nelson Shultis and Malcolm Rose.

Information Center

In the absence of Mrs. Peter Grad, who ran the Information Center this past summer, Kiki Godwin read her report. More than 1,000 requests for information were made to the Center during the summer. The requests were for information as to swimming facilities, suggestions regarding sleeping accommodations and rentals among others. Where to picnic was frequently asked. However, Mrs. Grad was reluctant to give them the name of Mallory Grove since it is not adequately set up for such recreation, she said.

A larger and clearer map of Woodstock was often asked for and such a map could be provided at a charge, Mrs. Grad said. She made other valuable suggestions which the Chamber is taking under advisement and will attempt to incorporate in its plans next summer when the Information Center is re-opened.

The financial report for the operation of the Center showed a significant difference between what was actually spent and the $700 recommended as a budget for its operation earlier in the summer. Mrs. Grad and her capable staff put in 346 man hours, used the telephone, answered letters and bought supplies at a total cost of $419.61, resulting in an impressive record and substantial economy for the Chamber. Mrs. Grad was thanked for her excellent record.

Sign To Woodstock

Rosenblum again brought up the possibility of erecting a sign pointing to Woodstock at the intersection of Thruway and Route 28. A letter requesting information on the subject was sent to the New York Motor Vehicle Bureau but brought no response, it was noted. Considering the heavy flow of traffic on Route 28 which by-passes Woodstock and the thousands of skiers during the winter who are unaware that Belleayre Ski Center can be reached by traveling through Woodstock is a source of added revenue the Chamber will make some effort to tap.

The president appointed a committee to look into the possibility of acquiring a road site for the erection of a sign. Mrs. Sylvia Kondolf, editor of the Record-Press, heads the committee, assisted by Mrs. Paul Dessez and Morris Citroen.

Year Round Plan

The subject of maintaining Woodstock as a year round cultural center was also discussed. Rosenblum, chairman of the chamber's arts committee, said that it is not impossible to obtain interested financial backers and that all new facilities would be needed. Mrs. Kondolf spoke of a year round Arts Center for the Performing Arts and suggested the Woodstock Estates. These proposals were submitted as idea suggestions for eventually furthering Woodstock's cultural season, thus insuring more than a merely seasonably influx of visitors.

Rosenblum also offered the chamber the use of his sign on the Playhouse grounds during the winter months to bear any appropriate legend the chamber would like to have displayed. He also suggested the possiblity of providing Blue Cross or some other sort of group insurance for the chamber and president Moscowitz promised to arrange for Arthur Hansen, local insurance man, to address the group at the next meeting.

Treasurer Gordon Anderson reported that approximately half of the membership (44) have paid their dues since notice for renewal was given approximately six weeks ago. Balance on hand at the September meeting was $1,269.

Highest Calibre Craft on Display At Guild Show

Handcraft of the highest calibre is on display at the Woodstock Guild of Craftsmen's fourth annual craft exhibition now in progress at the Kleinert Hall on the Village Green. The exhibit will remain on view until Oct. 12.

As usual, the show awarded two major prizes this year—one for professional work and one for student exhibitors. The first prize of $100 went to Eleanor Heller for a collection of ceramics whose subtlety and design were superb. Their muted beauty had an oriental quality in terms of understatement.

The student prize of $25 went to Margo Taylor for her soft handwoven fabrics which were almost luscious in texture.

Among the items beautifully displayed in the rich Woodstock tradition are gossamer fabrics, silver flatware, exquisitely polished articles, gold and silver jewelry of impeccable workmanship and flawless design.

A number of blue ribbons for excellence were awarded and these went to Berta Frey for weaving; Marie Frey for jewelry which was incomparably executed; Donald Jennings for ceramics and for a heavy silver bracelet that was especially outstanding; Robin Wetterau for wood—his miniature chess set was particularly good; William Seitz for metal and Raymond Kenyon for enamels.

Unique Process

It is understatement to merely mention the medium in which these gifted individuals work. Kenyon's "enamel", for example, provides the cover on a published cigarette box. The enamel, Kenyon informs, is fired over 20 times and each time the work is in jeopardy of cracking.

Isabelle Byman has a mirror decorated with characters from Alice in Wonderland that is sheer enchanment and even the younger group, among them Polly Wilson, were represented by high quality craftsmanship.

Lack of space prohibits description of the many other beautiful articles on display. However, any one who fails to visit the show will deprive himself of an important experience. The Woodstock Guild of Craftsmen is to be complimented and congratulated on maintaining a high quality of crafts and of providing instruction so that the handmade articles which are such a source of pleasure continue to hold a firm place in our community.

Richard Drake was chairman of the Exhibition Committee, assisted by Hal Boyer, Berta Frey, Don and Gail Jennings; Robin Wetterau and Marie Frey.

Girl Scout Troop For 9-12 Grades

A girl scout troop is being organized for girls in West Hurley and Woodstock who are in the 6th through 9th grades.

Mrs. Fox and Mrs. Perlman have planned a meeting at West Hurley Elementary school, Thursday, Oct. 3, at 7:30 p. m. Both the girl and her parent should attend to outline the interests of the troop as well as the time and the place of future meetings.

Any girl in this age group regardless of her previous scouting experience, is eligible to join.

Driver Is Hurt As Auto Strikes 2 Utility Poles

While driving a 1963 suburban east on Route 199 about three-tenths of a mile east of Route 32 near the Kingston-Rhinecliff Bridge, Town of Ulster, at 12:30 a. m. today Eugene Scheffler, 39, of Red Hook, was injured as the vehicle left the highway and hit two utility poles.

Trooper Fred Cooper of the Kingston substation, reported Scheffler was driving a car owned by the Scheffler Lumber Co., Red Hook, in an easterly direction when he became ill and lost control of the suburban.

According to Trooper Robert Houghtaling, the vehicle went off the south side of the highway and crashed into two utility poles.

Scheffler, whose injuries were not listed, told troopers he would see his own physician.

Charges Out Against Man Accusing Police

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—A City Court judge has dismissed three charges of disorderly conduct against John L. Funderburg, who accused police of brutally beating him after his arrest last month.

Judge Sebastian J. Bellomo Tuesday dismissed the charges of creating a disturbance, using profanity and resisting arrest at the request of a city prosecutor.

Funderburg, 51, was cleared of two other disorderly conduct charges last Friday by Judge Bellomo.

Funderburg, a Negro, was arrested in his wife's lunch room Sept. 2. The district attorney's office and the FBI are investigating his charges of police brutality.
